Fu Shan's World Qianshen Bai,2020-03-23 For 1 300 years Chinese calligraphy was based on the elegant art of Wang Xizhi A D 303 361 But the seventeenth century emergence of a style modeled on the rough broken epigraphs of ancient bronzes and stone artifacts brought a revolution in calligraphic taste By the eighteenth century this led to the formation of the stele school of calligraphy which continues to shape Chinese calligraphy today A dominant force in this school was the eminent calligrapher and art theorist Fu Shan 1607 1685 Because his work spans the late Ming early Qing divide it is an ideal prism through which to view the transformation in calligraphy Rather than seek a single explanation for the change in calligraphic taste the author demonstrates and analyzes the heterogeneity of the cultural social and political processes behind it Among other subjects the book covers the late Ming interaction between high and low culture the role of publishing the Ming loyalist response to the Qing and early Qing changes in intellectual discourse In addition to the usual approach of art historians it adopts the theoretical perspectives of such fields as material culture print culture and social and intellectual history The Gift Economy David Cheal,2015-07-03 Until recently we have known more about gift giving practices in pre industrial societies than about those of industrial western society In this book first published in 1988 David Cheal shows that the process of present giving and receiving is a vital element in contemporary social life relevant to some of the most important theoretical traditions in sociology particularly those of Durkheim and Weber and to the social constructionism of Peter Berger and Thomas Luckmann This volume is the result of a major study of gift rituals carried out by David Cheal and his associates in which general themes are richly illustrated with details from individual case histories gathered during the research It is highly significant that in western society women are more active gift givers than men and while their voices explain how emotions and interests are interrelated within the gift economy the author shows how that in turn is related to
