Virgil's Story Virgil D. Mochel,2013-08 The first part of the story explains how Virgil s ancestors from Europe all arrived at that small region called Woodland Indiana Emphasis is on what was going on in that part of each one s world to cause them to migrate to this country and eventually to that spot in Indiana Wars religious intolerance and decisions by the various kings or queens were the driving forces that caused so many to leave their homelands and look for better conditions Life on a farm during the Great Depression and World War II is described in some detail The emotional devastation upon learning of the deaths of two brothers in that war took a heavy toll on the Mochel Family The second part deals with the many varied experiences of Virgil and Marian as they traveled their life journey together up to the present time Witness from the Pulpit Harold I. Saperstein,2001-01-01 Harold I Saperstein served as rabbi of Temple Emanu El of Lynbrook N Y from 1933 until his retirement in 1980 The specific contours of his career reflect a sustained effort to use the pulpit of this suburban temple to communicate a Jewish perspective based on personal encounters with great issues of the day including the rise of Nazism and the Holocaust the civil rights era the McCarthy era and other turning points in American history The fifty two sermons in this book have been selected introduced and annotated by Marc Saperstein whose award winning books on the history of Jewish preaching have established him as a leading expert on this subject No other book illustrates as effectively the value of the sermon as a resource for understanding the challenges faced by American Jews at some of the most dramatic moments in the turbulent history of this century
