From Abbeville to Zebulon Gary L. Doster,1998-12 From Depot Street looking North in Abbeville to a Street Scene in Zebulon this collection of more than six hundred vintage postcard images presents the panorama of daily life in early twentieth century Georgia They are an invaluable resource for both historians and nostalgia buffs From Abbeville to Zebulon Gary L. Doster,1991 Gathers post cards showing Georgia s towns public buildings residences schools colleges churches farms industries transportation leisure activities and hotels Around Fitzgerald, Georgia in Vintage Postcards Milton N. Hopkins,2001 Conceived and settled as a colony for aging Union veterans at the end of the 19th century the town of Fitzgerald holds a unique place in Georgia s history In deep pine forests warmed by a mild South Georgia climate opportunity presented itself to P H Fitzgerald an Indianapolis attorney who devised a plan to bring the veterans into what had once been enemy territory The result is a town that grew and prospered where men and women from all walks of life and from all parts of the nation live and work together in harmony Together they have built homes businesses churches schools and railroads all preserved on vintage postcards photographs and historical documents highlighted within these pages

The New Georgia Guide University of Georgia Press,1996 The Georgia Humanities Council presents a guidebook with cultural historical and regional coverage of Georgia Souvenirs of the Old South Rebecca C. McIntyre,2016-10-05 Written in a clear accessible and lively style Souvenirs of the Old South will be the foundational work for subsequent scholars and readers interested in tourism in the New South W Fitzhugh Brundage author of The Southern Past A Clash of Race and Memory This study of southern images offers readers a glimpse of how history culture race and class came together in the tourist imagination If the South emerged from the Civil War a distinctive place Rebecca McIntyre would remind us that s because distinctiveness sells Richard Starnes author of Creating the Land of the Sky Tourism and Society in Western North Carolina Less than a decade after the conclusion of the Civil War northern promoters began pushing images of a mythic South to boost tourism By creating a hierarchical relationship based on region and race in which northerners were always superior promoters saw tourist dollars begin flowing southward but this cultural construction was damaging to southerners particularly African Americans Rebecca McIntyre focuses on the years between 1870 and 1920 a period framed by the war and the growth of automobile tourism These years were critical in the creation of the South s modern identity and she reveals that tourism images created by northerners for northerners had as much effect on making the South southern as did the most ardent proponents of the Lost Cause She also demonstrates how northern tourism contributed to the worsening of race relations in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The North Carolina Historical Review ,1992 St. Augustine in the Gilded Age Beth Rogero Bowen,2008 St Augustine was more than three centuries old when tourism awakened the sleepy Spanish village Soon after Standard Oil partner Henry Flagler brought the railroad to town in the 1880s well heeled visitors began flocking to Flagler s luxury hotels as St Augustine became known as the American Riviera Tourists walked the quaint narrow streets and visited the city gate the old Spanish fort the alligator farm the Fountain of Youth and the four houses all claiming to be the oldest in the country Postcard History Series St Augustine in the Gilded Age depicts the oldest city in the United States from the beginning of the picture postcard era to 1914 when a fire destroyed several downtown blocks The volume presents more than 200 images from the archives of the St Augustine Historical Society and the author's personal collection
