From Basic Needs to Basic Rights Margaret A. Schuler, 1995 Women Dorothy Q Thomas Women's Human Rights Niamh Reilly, 2013-04-23 Women's Human Rights Seeking Gender Justice in a Globalising Age explores the emergence of transnational UN oriented feminist advocacy for womens human rights especially over the past three decades It identifies the main feminist influences that have shaped the movement liberal radical third world and cosmopolitan and exposes how the Western legalist state centric and liberal biases of mainstream human rights discourse impede the realisation of human rights in womens lives everywhere The book traces the evolution of the womens human rights movement through an examination of its key issues debates and practical interventions in international law and policy arenas This includes efforts to Develop global gender equality norms via the UN Womens Convention Frame violence against women as a human rights issue Address gender based crimes in conflict situations include women in conflict resolution and post conflict reconstruction and challenge new forms of militarism Highlight the gendered human rights dimensions of widening inequalities in a context of neo liberal globalisation Develop human rights responses to anti feminist fundamentalist movements with a focus on reproductive and sexual rights Ultimately Women's Human Rights reaffirms a commitment to critically reinterpreted universal human rights principles and demonstrates the vital role that bottom up transnational movements play in making them a reality in women's lives

Women's Global Health and Human Rights Padmini Murthy, Clyde Lanford Smith, 2010-10-25 Women's Global Health and Human Rights serves as an overview of the challenges faced by women in different regions of the world Ideal as a tool for both professionals and students this book discusses the similarities and differences in health and human rights challenges that are faced by women globally Best practices and success stories are also included in this timely and important text Major Topics include X Globalization X Gender Based Terrorism and Violence X Cultural Practices X Health Problems X Progress and Challenges

Women and Political Violence Miranda Alison, 2009-01-21 This book directly challenges the stereotype that women are inherently peaceable by examining female combatants involvement in ethno national conflicts Drawing upon empirical case studies of Sri Lanka and Northern Ireland this study explores the ways in which women have traditionally been depicted Whereas women have predominantly been seen as victims of conflict this book acknowledges the reality of women as active combatants Indeed female soldiers irregulars are features of most modern conflicts and particularly in ethno nationalist violence until now largely ignored by mainstream scholarship Original interview material from the author's extensive fieldwork addresses why and how some women choose to become violently engaged in nationalist conflicts It also highlights the personal political costs and benefits incurred by such women This book provides a valuable insight into female combatants and is a significant contribution to the literature This book will be of great interest to students of political violence ethnic conflict gender studies and international relations in general

Women's Movements in the Global Era Amrita Basu, 2018-05-15 This book provides a path breaking study of the genesis growth gains and dilemmas of women s movements in countries throughout the world Its focus is on the global South where women s movements have engaged in complex negotiations with national and international forces It challenges widely held assumptions about the Western origins and character of local feminisms The authors locate women s movements within the terrain from which they emerged by exploring their relationships with the state civil society and other social movements This fully revised second edition contains six new chapters by leading scholars of women and gender studies on both individual countries and on several major regions of the world Europe Africa Latin America and the Maghreb This balanced coverage enables readers to identify regional patterns and also learn from in depth case studies Women s Movements in the Global Era is essential reading for anyone interested in the global scope and implications of feminism

Democracy, Citizenship and the Global City Engin F. Isin, 2013-04-15 Democracy Citizenship and the Global City focuses on the controversial neglected theme of citizenship It examines the changing role of citizens their rights obligations and responsibilities as members of nation states and the issue of accountability in a global society Using this interdisciplinary approach the book offers an innovative collection of work from Robert A Beauregard Anna Bounds Janine Brodie Richard Dagger Gerard Delanty Judith A Garber Robert J Holton Warren Magnusson Raymond Rocco Nikolas Rose Evelyn S Ruppert Saskia Sassen Bryan S Turner John Urry Gerda R Wekerle and Nira Yuval Davis Ethnography and Diversity Halyna Leontiy, Miklas Schulz, 2025-07-11 The focus of the volume is on ethnographically oriented research practice It is reflected in the mirror of the currently controversial concepts of diversity and intersectionality in the cultural and social sciences Special attention is paid to the question of how researchers deal with the methodological problem of the production reproduction and reflection of categories Which categories are already brought to the field later revised or solidified and which categories finally accompany the interpretation process and which constitute the presentation of results How and why do they emerge And last but not least How are specific worlds of experience of human diversity co produced or transformed by research categories The Content Conceptual foundations Diversity and inclusion in educational contexts Interculture in diversity Diversity in the field of tension between body gender and disability The Editors Dr rer soc Halyna Leontiy is Substitute Professor Verwaltungsprofessorin of Foundations of Social Sciences Institute of Methods and Methodological Principles in the Social Sciences IMMS University of Goettingen Germany since October 2021 Prof Dr phil Miklas Schulz is a visiting researcher focusing on Inclusive Education and School Development at the Institute of Educational Science Department of Applied Educational Science at the University of Hildesheim Human Rights in Africa Rachel Murray, 2004-12-09 This work examines the role of the Organization of African Unity now the African Union and how it has dealt with human rights since its inception in 1963 It considers the role of its main institutions both under the OAU and its transformation into the African Union The book is divided into chapters examining various themes including the rights of women the rights of the child the concept of democracy and the right to development Written by a leading human rights scholar this book is essential reading for lawyers acting for African states and for foreign governments and NGOs active in Africa as well as being of interest to international and comparative human rights scholars

Postcolonial Transitional Justice Khanyisela Moyo, 2019-05-31 Transitional justice processes are now considered to be crucial steps in facilitating the move from conflict or repression to a secure democratic future This book contributes to a deeper understanding of transitional justice by examining the complexities of transition in postcolonial societies It focuses particularly on Zimbabwe but draws on relevant comparative material from other postcolonial polities Examples include but are not limited to African countries such as South Africa Rwanda and Mozambique European societies such as Northern Ireland as well as other nations such as Guatemala are also considered While amplifying the breadth of the subject of transitional justice the book addresses the claim that transitional justice mechanisms in postcolonial countries are necessary if the rule of law and the credibility of the country's legal institutions are to be restored Drawing on postcolonial legal theory and especially on analyses of the relationship between international law and imperialism the book challenges the assumption that a domestic rule of law deficit may be remedied with recourse to international law Taking up the paradigmatic perception that international law is neutral and has fixed rules it demonstrates how complex issues which arise during postcolonial transitions require a more critical adoption of transitional justice mechanisms

Globalization and Feminist Activism Mary E. Hawkesworth, 2018-06-15 This thoroughly updated edition provides a comprehensive overview of two centuries of transnational feminist efforts to produce a more just global order Mary Hawkesworth explores how social economic and political inequalities between men and women of different races classes ethnicities and nationalities have been transformed over two centuries of globalization Drawing on historical and contemporary examples she demonstrates how women have forged international networks and alliances to address specific women's issues beyond the borders of the nation state crafting policies to mitigate pressing abuses and devising alternatives to liberal and neo liberal agendas The book considers innovative feminist tactics to produce global change carefully tracing the structural forces that constrain transnational feminist activism Hawkesworth illuminates the complexity of feminist strategies to influence international agencies and foundations national governments and transnational NGOs By providing critical new insights into the gendered nature of the global system and the gendered dynamics of international institutions and nation states this work will be invaluable for all those engaged in the interdisciplinary fields of globalization studies and feminist studies

Framing the Sexual Subject Richard Parker, Regina Maria Barbosa, Peter Aggleton, 2023-04-28 This collection brings together the work of writers from a range of disciplines and cultural traditions to explore the social and political dimensions of sexuality and sexual experience The contributors reconfigure existing notions of gender and sexuality linking them to deeper understandings of power resistance and emancipation around the globe They map areas that are currently at the cutting edge of social science writing on sexuality as well as the complex interface between theory and practice Framing the Sexual Subject highlights the extent to which populations and communities that once were the object of scientific scrutiny have increasingly demanded the right to speak on their own behalf as subjects of their own sexualities and agents of their own sexual histories This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 2000 This collection brings together the work of writers from a range of disciplines and cultural traditions to explore the social and political dimensions of sexuality and sexual experience The contributors reconfigure existing notions of gender and sexualit

Global Population Policy Paige Whaley

Eager,2017-07-05 The general assumption throughout history has been that a growing population is beneficial for societies By the mid 1960s however the United States and other developed countries became convinced that population control was an absolute necessity especially in the developing world This absorbing study explains why population control is no longer the focus of global population policy and why reproductive rights and health have become the major focus The book highlights the role that the US and other developed countries play in affecting global population policy looking in particular at the stance of the George W Bush administration since taking office It also studies the influence of the UN as an international forum and explores how civil society questioned the ethics of population control Global Population Policy will appeal to a wide audience including readers in the fields of women s studies development politics and international relations

Women, Ethnicity and Nationalisms in Latin America Natividad Gutiérrez Chong,2016-12-05 The relationship between gender and nationalism is a compelling issue that is receiving increasing coverage in the scholarly literature With case studies covering Argentina Ecuador Bolivia and Mexico this is the first book to explore these links in the context of Latin America It includes contributions from Latin American scholars to offer a unique and revealing view of the most important political and cultural issues The work opens by outlining four dimensions in the relationship between gender and nationalism These are the contribution of women to nation building and their exclusion from it by the state and its institutions the role of women in contemporary ethnic and nationalist movements the place of the female body in the myths and traditions surrounding the nation and the role of women in forging the intellectual and artistic culture of the nation It then provides both theoretical and empirical explorations of these themes with chapters covering the debate on multiculturalism and gender in the construction of the nation the struggles of ethnic women to participate politically in their communities and studies of the first Mexican filmmaker Mimi Derrba and the indigenous heroine Dolores Cacuango from Ecuador

Women's Rights and Human Rights P. Grimshaw,K. Holmes,M. Lake,2001-03-20 This international collection of historical work explores the breadth and creativity of women s struggles for human rights citizenship and social justice across the world It brings together twenty contributions by scholars in women s history whose work reflects the global reach of the International Federation for Research in Women s History In addition to presenting studies by well known scholars in the United States and Europe the book is distinctive in also bringing the work of scholars from regions such as South and East Asia and the Pacific to the attention of an international audience Africa Today, 2002 Women, Law and Human Rights Fareda Banda, 2005-10-04 Africa with its mix of statute custom and religion is at the centre of the debate about law and its impact on gender relations This is because of the centrality of the gender question and its impact on the cultural relativism debate within human rights It is therefore important to examine critically the role of law broadly constructed in African societies The book focuses on women's experiences in the family This is because the lives of women continue to be lived out largely in the private domain where the right to privacy is used to conceal unequal treatment of women which is justified by invoking custom and tradition The book shows how law and its interpretation is used to disenfranchise women resulting in their being deprived of land and other property which they may have helped to accumulate It also considers issues of violence within the home reproductive rights and examines the issue of female genital cutting The role of women in development is explored as is their participation in politics and the NGO sector A major theme of the book is a consideration of the linkages of constitutional and international human rights norms with local values This is done using feminist tools of analysis The book considers the provisions of the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and People's Rights on the Rights of Women which was adopted by the African Union in July 2003 The Limits of Law and Development Sam Adelman, Abdul Paliwala, 2020-08-13 The book examines the well established field of law and development and asks whether the concept of development and discourses on law and development have outlived their usefulness The contributors ask whether instead of these amorphous and contested concepts we should focus upon social injustices such as patriarchy impoverishment human rights violations the exploitation of indigenous peoples and global heating If we abandoned the idea of development would we end up adopting another equally problematic term to replace a concept which for all its flaws serves as a commonly understood shorthand The contributors analyse the links between conventional academic approaches to law and development neoliberal governance and activism through historical and contemporary case studies The book will be of interest to students and scholars of development international law international economic law governance and politics and international relations

UN Millennium Development Library: Who's Got the Power UN Millennium Project, 2013-06-17 The Millennium Development Goals adopted at the UN Millennium Summit in 2000 are the world's targets for dramatically reducing extreme poverty in its many dimensions by 2015 income poverty hunger disease exclusion lack of infrastructure and shelter while promoting gender equality education health and environmental sustainability These bold goals can be met in all parts of the world if nations follow through on their commitments to work together to meet them Achieving the Millennium Development Goals offers the prospect of a more secure just and prosperous world for all The UN Millennium Project was commissioned by United Nations Secretary General Kofi Annan to develop a practical plan of action to meet the Millennium Development Goals As an independent advisory body directed by Professor Jeffrey D Sachs the UN Millennium Project submitted its recommendations to the UN Secretary General in January 2005 The core of the UN Millennium Project's work has been carried out by 10 thematic Task Forces comprising more than 250 experts from around the world including scientists development practitioners parliamentarians policymakers and representatives from civil society UN agencies the World Bank the IMF and the private sector This report lays out the recommendations of the UN Millennium Project Task Force on Child and Maternal Health The Task Force recommends the rapid and equitable scale up of interventions like the Integrated Management of Childhood Illness the universal provision of emergency obstetric care and sexual and reproductive health services and rights be provided through strengthened health systems This will require that health systems be seen as social institutions to which all members of society have a fundamental right This bold yet practical approach will enable every country to reduce the under five mortality rate by two thirds and the maternal mortality rate by three quarters by 2015
