Rediscovering the Church Fathers Michael A. G. Haykin, 2011-03-02 While the church today looks quite different than it did two thousand years ago Christians share the same faith with the church fathers Although separated by time and culture we have much to learn from their lives and teaching This book is an organized and convenient introduction to how to read the church fathers from AD 100 to 500 Michael Haykin surveys the lives and teachings of seven of the Fathers looking at their role in such issues as baptism martyrdom and the relationship between church and state Ignatius Cyprian Basil of Caesarea and Ambrose and others were foundational in the growth and purity of early Christianity and their impact continues to shape the church today Evangelical readers interested in the historical roots of Christianity will find this to be a helpful introductory volume Oxford

Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB's first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain's recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It's hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean's gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in an another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non combatant to have received Britain s two highest awards for civilian bravery

Religion, Identity and Conflict in Britain: From the Restoration to the Twentieth Century Frances Knight,2016-04-08 The British state between the mid seventeenth century to the early twentieth century was essentially a Christian state Christianity permeated society defining the rites of passage baptism first communion marriage and burial that shaped individual lives providing a sense of continuity between past present and future generations and informing social institutions and voluntary associations Yet this religious conception of state and society was also the source of conflict The Restoration of the monarchy in 1660 brought limited toleration for Protestant Dissenters who felt unable to worship in the established Church and there were challenges to faith raised by biblical and historical scholarship science moral questioning and social dislocations and unrest This book brings together a distinguished team of authors who explore the interactions of religion politics and culture that shaped and defined modern Britain They consider expressions of civic consciousness in the expanding towns and cities the growth of Welsh national identity movements for popular education and temperance reform and the influence of organised sport popular journalism and historical writing in defining national life Most importantly the contributors highlight the vital role of religious faith and religious institutions in the understanding of the modern British state

Fake Prophecy and Polluted Sacraments William Tabbernee,2007 Fake Prophecy and Polluted Sacraments is an insightful case study of the opposition to Montanism an early Christian prophetic movement by Church and State both before and after catholic Christianity became the official religion of the Roman Empire

Eucharist and Ecumenism Owen F. Cummings,2013-07-08 Most Christians worship on a regular basis on the Lord s Day They have done so from the beginning and their worship has centered on the Eucharist following Jesus s words Do this in remembrance of me Over the two millennia of the Christian tradition there have been shifts of emphasis and understanding about the Eucharist This book attempts to point out by providing accessible accounts of both liturgies and liturgists across the centuries and traditions just how much different

Christians have in common and how they can benefit from attending to one another's worship. The author's ultimate hope is that in its small way the book will contribute to Christians worshipping together. Cities of God David Gange, Michael

Ecclesia is a quarterly journal of theology published by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology. It seeks to give contemporary expression to the one apostolic faith and its classic traditions working for and manifesting the church's unity by research, theological construction and free exchange of opinion. Members of its advisory council represent communities committed to the authority of Holy Scripture, ecumenical dogmatic teaching and the structural continuity of the church and are themselves dedicated to maintaining and invigorating these commitments. The journal publishes biblical, liturgical, historical and doctrinal articles that promote or illumine its purposes. Ways to subscribe: Call toll free 800 273 2223. Email journals.rowman.com. ISSN 1063 8512. The Journal of Ecclesiastical History Clifford William Dugmore, 2004. The Oxford History of Modern German Theology, Volume 1: 1781-1848 Grant Kaplan, Kevin M. Vander Schel, 2023-05-20 From the closing decades of the eighteenth century

German theology has been a major intellectual force within modern western thought closely connected to important developments in idealism, romanticism, historicism, phenomenology and hermeneutics. Despite its influential legacy however no recent attempts have sought to offer an overview of its history and development. Oxford History of Modern German Theology Vol I 1781-1848 the first of a three volume series provides the most comprehensive multi-authored overview of German theology from the period from 1781-1848. Kaplan and Vander Schel cover categories frequently omitted from earlier overviews of the time period such as the place of Judaism in modern German society, race and religion and the impact of social history in shaping theological debate. Rather than focusing on individual figures alone Oxford History of Modern German Theology Vol I 1781-1848 describes the narrative arc of the period by focusing on broader intellectual and cultural movements, ongoing debates and significant events. It furthermore provides a historical introduction to each of the chronological subsections that divides the book. Moreover unlike previous efforts to introduce this time period and geographical region the volume offers chapters covering such previously neglected topics as religious orders, the influence of Romantic art, secularism, religious freedom and important but overlooked scholarly initiatives such as the Corpus Reformatorum. Attention to such matters will make this volume an invaluable repository of scholarship and knowledge and an indispensable reference resource for decades to come. A History of Christian Thought, from Its Judaic and Hellenistic
