Foster, Adrian Lawrence, Brian Morris, 1998 This paper highlights key urban groundwater issues and management needs It also raises awareness and understanding of hydrogeological processes in urban areas and provides a framework for the proper and systematic consideration of groundwater dimensions in urban management This paper suggests options for greater sustainable development and management of groundwater in urban areas Comprehensive River Basin Development Barbara A. Miller, Richard B. Reidinger, 1998-01-01 The

Tennessee Valley Authority TVA in the United States represents one of the few successful examples of comprehensive river basin development Established to guide the development of the resources within the Tennessee River Basin TVA operates a wide variety of water power economic development and environmental programs within the region This report presents an overview of TVA's growth and development its institutions and its operational programs World Bank Group Assistance for

Minerals Sector Development and Reform in Member Countries William Torrens Onorato, Peter Fox, John Strongman, 1998-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 399 This paper examines the increased role of the private sector in developing and maintaining critical infrastructure It identifies governments quest to shift part of the burden of new infrastructure investments to the private sector for the economic development of firms and industry and the improvement of quality of life and given the constraints on public budgets to finance growing infrastructure needs Adequate infrastructure services include power telecommunications transport water supply and sanitation The paper also emphasizes the private sector involvement in bringing increased efficiency to investment and management and operation Urban Aquaculture A.

Desbonnet, P. Edwards, D. Baker, 2005-01-01 Millions of people are moving from rural areas to coastal cities Meeting the basic human needs for protein foods in the future will be a difficult challenge Fishery products are the world's most important source of animal protein which has led to a doubling of the demand for fish since the 1950s As we can not expect to catch more food from the sea we must turn to farming the waters not just hunting them The new challenge for planners now is to accelerate aquaculture development and to plan for new production making urban areas of production particularly recycled urban wastewater This book includes papers from authors in the U S Europe and Asia that review these developing issues from the perspective of both developed and developing countries Subsidies in World Fisheries Matteo

Milazzo, 1998-01-01 In the past six years the world's fishery sector has reached a turning point with global fish production reaching a plateau of approximately 100 million tons annually While aquaculture output continued to grow yields from capture fisheries were uneven and showed increasing signs of stagnation because of widespread overfishing and overcapitalization ineffective management deteriorating resource health declining or flat global harvests and inefficient economic and trade policies This paper examines the role of subsidies in fisheries World Bank Literature Amitava Kumar, 2003 World Bank literature is more than a concept it is a provocation a call to arms It is intended to prompt questions about each word to probe globalization political economy and the role of literary and cultural studies As asserted in this major work it signals a radical rewriting of academic debates a rigorous analysis of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund IMF and a consideration of literature that deals with new global realities Made more relevant than ever by momentous antiglobalization demonstrations in Seattle and Genoa World Bank Literature brings together essays by a distinguished group of economists cultural and literary critics social scientists and public policy analysts to ask how to understand the influence of the World Bank IMF on global economic power relations and cultural production The authors attack this question in myriad ways examining World Bank IMF documents as literature their impact on developing nations the relationship between literature and globalization the connection between the academy and the global economy and the emergence of coalitions confronting the new power World Bank Literature shows above all the multifarious and sometimes nefarious ways that abstract academic debates play themselves out concretely in social policy and cultural mores that reinforce traditional power structures

Regional and International Trade Policy Csaba Csáki, John Nash, 1999-01-01 With appropriate preparation and policies the enlargement of the European Union EU will result in a broader and higher level integration of European agriculture create an environment more conducive to further liberalization of global agricultural trade and lead to further opening of European markets As part of the World Bank's Strategic Compact Initiative the Bank has coordinated activities to help the ten EU accession countries achieve EU membership These activities include the preparation of studies to facilitate implementation of necessary reforms and sponsoring seminars and workshops to disseminate and analyze the results This volume presents the major papers and summaries of one of the Workshop deliberations This volume includes the following topics lessons learned from other regional agricultural trade agreements the evolution of the Common Agricultural Policy CAP an analysis of the economic impact of trade flows the harmonization of agricultural policies within trade agreements the implications of the external trade environment for the accession countries the role of sanitary and phytosanitary trade rule in EU accession quantifying the incentive and farm income effects of agricultural support policies in transition economies major challenges to agricultural input regulation and trade during transition and EU accession concluding comments by the World Bank Latin American Insolvency Systems Malcolm Rowat, José Astigarraga, 1999 Modern society has eliminated the inhumane debtors prisons for handling the insolvent debtor and in their stead have enacted benign modern laws in the area of bankruptcy Unscrupulous merchants now use these benign laws for fraudulent purposes Based on case studies in Argentina Brazil Mexico and Venezuela this is the first publication to provide recommendations about the important legal and institutional issues that are involved in bankruptcy reform in a critical region of the global economy The authors note that effective bankruptcy policy balances several requirements for the conduct of a stable successful economy For example it might be in the greatest interests to all parties if a company is given an opportunity to restructure and make use of the scarce resources remaining in its possession On the other hand inefficient firms especially those that have long survived only on state subsidies may need to fail in order to free space in the market for more efficient better managed companies Finally there are the needs to enforce loan contracts and provide an equitable system of debt collection

The Impact of Drought on Sub-Saharan African Economies Charlotte Benson,Edward J. Clay,1998-01-01 Little effort has been made to research the nonagricultural or economywide macroneconomic impact of droughts in Sub Saharan Africa In an effort to fill the gap this paper reports the findings of an exploratory study of the subject It provides insights into the impact of drought in Sub Saharan Africa in the past and suggests policy options for dealing with future droughts
