From I To We The Round Table Journey:

From I to We Jeffrey A. Zink, Thomas A. Kardashian, 2004 Gwenevere and the Round Table Wendy Berg, 2012 The new book by Wendy Berg puts her acclaimed Red Tree White Tree into practice It shows how the Round Table was an actual practical system of magic demonstrated by Gwenevere who was its prime interpreter within the court of the Round Table Central to the book is the concept of five Faery kingdoms described in the legends with which Gwenevere was closely associated Lyonesse Sorelois Gorre and Oriande about the central Grail kingdom of Listenois The book comprises a graded series of meditations practical magical exercises guided visualisations and a full ritual which take the reader into each of the Faery kingdoms in turn guided by Gwenevere to experience the various challenges and gifts that they each represent The fourth kingdom Oriande takes the reader into the Round Table of the Stars an experiential journey through 12 constellations which very neatly and remarkably demonstrates the continuing work of the Round Table into the future ITF Round Tables Valuing Convenience in Public Transport International Transport Forum, 2014-12-24 This report focuses on convenience in public transport and its importance to the user experience It reviews operational definitions of convenience evidence for the willingness of users to pay for convenience and the use of indicators to assess and improve the convenience of public transport ECMT Round Tables Time and Transport European Conference of Ministers of Transport, 2005-12-07 This Round Table revisits the extended literature on the valuation of passenger time and discusses the under researched topic of the value of time in freight transport ECMT Round Tables Public Transport in Rural Areas Scheduled and Non-Scheduled Services: Report of the Sixty-Fifth Round Table on Transport Economics Held in Paris on 15-16 February 1984 European Conference of Ministers of Transport, 1984-01-01 This Round Table on Public Transport in Rural Areas includes reports from Belgium Denmark France Germany Switzerland and the United Kingdom ECMT Round Tables Transport and Spatial Distribution of Activities Report of the Eighty-Fifth Round Table on Transport Economics Held in Paris on 5-6 April 1990 European Conference of Ministers of Transport, 1992-01-01 This report seeks to determine what influence high speed rail lines will have on the regions served particularly in the light of experience with the TGV Sud Est in France ECMT Round Tables Interurban Transport Costs Report of the Ninety-Eighth Round Table on Transport Economics Held in Paris on 2-3 December 1993 European Conference of Ministers of Transport, 1995-01-17 This Round Table gives a clearer picture of the whole range of interurban transport problems It provides both theoretical analyses and specific case studies and explores such fundamental matters as the actual social utility of transport ITF Round Tables The Economics of Investment in High-Speed Rail International Transport Forum, 2014-12-24 This report examines the key factors that drive the costs of high speed rail investment and reviews the economic benefits delivered by high speed rail services on the basis of experience in countries that have developed large high speed rail networks ECMT Round Tables Regular Interurban Coach Services in Europe European Conference of Ministers of Transport, 2001-03-02 The Round Table reviews regular interurban coach services based on case studies in countries which had adopted an original approach

Journeys to the Japanese, 1952-1979 Lucia White, Morton White, 2011-11-01 Morton White one of America's most distinguished and intellectual historians was among the first Western academics invited to Japan after the Pacific War With his wife and co author Lucia he first went there in 1952 and subsequently made four more trips the last one in 1979 During these visits the Whites became friendly with many Japanese intellectuals and their families and were able to observe Japan and Japanese life during a crucial part of this century Through personal reminiscences based on their journals and correspondence the Whites introduce the reader to the great intellectual social and economic changes that took place in Japan during the nearly thirty year span of their visits They provide penetrating sketches of the personalities and attitudes of an important group of Japanese academics leaders who acted against the prevailing opinion to introduce well known intellectuals from the United States to help break down the stereotypes created by World War II Reflecting on the changing trends and practices of the Japanese philosophers the Whites note the gradual shift in orientation from the European to the American tradition in philosophy and comment on how this produced tensions in the Japanese philosophers who lived through it issues of great interest both for students of the history of philosophy and for anyone interested in the spread of American influence Outside the precincts of the universities the Whites are keen observers of a culture they have come to respect and admire The delicacy of Japanese social arrangements the importance of face the self consciously problematic position of women in Japanese society as well as the intricate web of courtesy are given life through many insightful examples In the book's final chapter the Whites ponder upon things Japanese they have yet to understand and how their visits have made them more conscious of their own cultural tradition and what they perceive as its deficiencies Journeys to the Japanese both entertains and informs about an important period and significant individuals in Japanese history It is an affecting account of how lasting international sympathy and understanding can be nourished by encouraging cultural exchange and personal friendship

New Hope for Schools Susan Farr Gabriele, PhD, 2014-07-15 After teaching more than twenty years in Los Angeles public schools author Dr Susan Farr Gabriele became disheartened with the state of schools Too many influences took her away from the actual teaching of children Gabriele turned to graduate school to seek answers to the problems in public education In New Hope for Schools she shares the results of her studies and the creation of a system that works for education Gabriele discusses her experiences as a teacher and teacher turned detective looking for answers in her teaching experience and postcareer graduate school She then reveals a breakthrough theory to demystify the behavior of people in schools gleaned out of Boulding's Typology of System Complexity As a result she created the RoundTable a practice designed to be an effective new tool for schools and classrooms as well as a seed for systemic renewal She also provides a three pronged solution for unshackling and revitalizing schools and workplaces New Hope for Schools presents new theory new practice and a user friendly solution for systemic school renewal It offers compelling new insights and solutions for all school decision makers from educators to parents
