Everyone agrees in saying that the most common obstacle and the one most difficult to overcome, which all those meet who labor for the conversion of sinners and the sanctification of pious souls, is want of confidence. Since 1990, direct sales have attracted over two million recruits in Mexico and are characterized by a belief in the power of positive thinking. Through an ethnographic portrait, Peter S. Cahn demonstrates that the quasi-religious commission of self-empowerment accounts for the explosive growth of commission-based sales in the developing world.
