Humans at War A very good book The New York Times Working in a world of hurt Carol Acton, Jane Potter, 2015-07-01 Working in a world of hurt fills a significant gap in the studies of the psychological trauma wrought by war It focuses not on soldiers but on the men and women who fought to save them in casualty clearing stations hospitals and prison camps The writings by doctors nurses ambulance drivers and other medical personnel reveal the spectrum of their responses that range from breakdown to resilience Through a rich analysis of both published and unpublished personal from the First World War in the early twentieth century to Iraq in the early twenty first Acton and Potter put centre stage the letters diaries memoirs and weblogs that have chronicled physical and emotional suffering many for the first time Wide ranging in scope interdisciplinary in method and written in a scholarly yet accessible style Working in a world of hurt is essential reading for lecturers and students as well as the general reader Commemorative Modernisms Kelly Alice Kelly, 2020-07-06 Reconsiders the relationship between the Great War and modernism through women s literary representations of death Provides the first sustained study of death and commemoration in women s literature in the wartime and postwar period Offers a reconsideration of the relationship between the First World War and literary modernism through the lens of women s writing Considers the literary impact of the vast mortality of the First World War and the culture of war commemoration on British and American women s writing One of the key questions of modern literature was the problem of what to do with the war dead Through a series of case studies focusing on nurse narratives Edith Wharton Katherine Mansfield H D and Virginia Woolf as well as visual and material culture this book provides the first sustained study of women s literary representations of death and the culture of war commemoration that underlie British and American literary modernism Considering previously neglected writing by women in the war zones and at home as well as the marginalised writings of well known modernist authors and drawing on international archival research this book demonstrates the intertwining of modernist war and memorial culture and broadens the canon of war writing Paying with Their Bodies John M. Kinder, 2015-03-23 This valuable history examines America s complex and often conflicting relationship to wounded veterans and the lasting legacies of warfare The Intercept America has grappled with the questions posed by injured veterans since its founding and with particular force since the early twentieth century What are the nation s obligations to those who fight in its name And when does war s legacy of disability outweigh the nation s interests at home and abroad Focusing in particular on the decades surrounding World War I John M Kinder argues that disabled veterans have long been at the center of two competing visions of American war one that highlights the relative safety of US military intervention overseas the other indelibly associating American war with injury mutilation and suffering Kinder shows that when we bring disabled veterans into the foreground of history the narrative of American war over the last century takes a very different shape War can no longer be seen as a discrete experience easily left behind rather its human legacies are felt for decades

The First World War and Health , 2020-04-14 The First World War and Health Rethinking Resilience considers how the

First World War 1914 1918 affected mental and physical health its treatment and how the victims not only soldiers and sailors but also medics and even society as a whole tried to cope with the wounds sustained The volume which contains over twenty articles divided into four sections military personal medical and societal resilience therefore aims to broaden the scope of resilience resilience is more than the personal ability to cope with hardship if society as a whole cannot cope with or even obstructs personal recovery resilience is difficult to achieve Contributors are Carol Acton Julie Anderson Leo van Bergen Ana Carden Coyne C dric Cotter Dominiek Dendooven Christine van Everbroeck Daniel Flecknoe Christine E Hallett Hans Georg Hofer Edgar Jones Wim Klinkert Harold Kudler Alexander McFarlane Johan Meire Heather Perry Jane Potter Fiona Reid Jeffrey S Reznick Stephen Snelders Hanneke Takken Pieter Trogh and Eric Vermetten See inside the book At Belleau Wood with Rifle and Sketchpad Louis C.
