From Ink Lake Canadian Stories:

From Ink Lake, 1995 This highly acclaimed anthology is an unexpected and discerning mix of traditional short stories and untraditional tales as selected by one of Canada's most beloved writers Michael Ondaatje. He has chosen 49 stories by a wide array of writers including Alistair MacLeod, Margaret Laurence, Carol Shields, Dionne Brand, Mavis Gallant, Stephen Leacock, Glenn Gould, Alice Munro, Rohinton Mistry, David Adams Richards and many more. Full of diversity and surprise, these writings reveal the geographical, emotional, and literary range of the country. Above all, Michael Ondaatje's personal selection offers good reading and great entertainment. From Ink Lake Michael Ondaatje, 1992 Ranging from fable to chronicle to intimate moment and from the early days of the century to the present, these fifty stories by well-known authors reveal the geographical, emotional, and literary range of Canada.

From Ink Lake Michael Ondaatje, 1990 Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty-six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned. Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre, Mansfield Munro, but also with well-known novelists, Achebe, Armah, Atwood, Carey, Rushdie, so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors. In addition, the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality, dialect, dance, rhythms, circularity, and trickster figure, for instance, and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community. Furthermore, the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme, both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters, primarily in Africa and India. The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox, her version of what she calls in her commentary, displaced autobiography or creative non-fiction. Lastly, an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research. The Canadian

Short Story John Metcalf, 2018-09-25 No other person has done more to celebrate and encourage the short story in Canada than John Metcalf. For more than five decades, he has worked tirelessly as editor, anthologist, writer, critic, and teacher to help shape our understanding of the form and what it can do. The long-time editor of the yearly Best Canadian Stories anthology as well as a fiction editor at some of the pre-eminent literary presses in the country for more than forty years, he has worked to support and champion several generations of our best writers. Literature in Canada would be far less without his efforts. Sifting through a lifetime of reading, writing, and thinking about the short story in this country and where it fits within the larger currents of world literature, Metcalf's magisterial The Canadian Short Story offers the most authoritative book on the subject to date. Most importantly, it includes an expanded and reconsidered Century List, Metcalf's critical guide to the best Canadian short story collections of the last 100 years. But more than a critical book, The Canadian Short Story is a love letter to the form, a passionate defense of the best of our literature, and a championing of those books and writers most often overlooked. It is a guide not only to what to read but also one of its author's most fervent desires, which aims to make better readers.
