London Calling Elena Crippa, Catherine Lampert, 2016-07-26 Between the postwar years and the 1980s in Britain and in particular in London a number of figurative painters simultaneously reinvented the way in which life is represented in art Focusing on the depiction of the human figure these artists rendered the frailty and vitality of the human condition Offering a fresh account of developments that have since characterized postwar British painting this catalogue focuses on Michael Andrews Frank Auerbach Francis Bacon Lucian Freud R B Kitaj and Leon Kossoff artists who worked in close proximity as they were developing new forms of realism If for many years their efforts seemed to clash with dominant tendencies reassessment in recent decades has afforded their work a central position in a richer and more complex understanding of postwar British art and culture Rigorous and gorgeously illustrated the essays reflect on the parallel yet diverse trajectories of these artists their friendships and mutual admiration and the divergence of their practice from the discourse of high modernism The authors seek to dispel the notion of their work as a uniquely British endeavor by highlighting the artists international outlook and ongoing dialogue with contemporary European and American painters as well as masters from previous generations This book is published to coincide with an exhibition at the J Paul Getty Museum from July 26 through November 13 2016 From London Richard Calvocoressi, Philip Long, 1996 From London David Cohen (informaticien).), Bruce Bernard, 1995 From London, 1996 Modernists and Mavericks Martin Gayford, 2018-06-12 Martin Gayford's masterful account of painting in London from the Second World War to the 1970s illustrated by documentary photographs and the works themselves The development of painting in London from the Second World War to the 1970s has never before been told before as a single narrative R B Kitaj's proposal made in 1976 that there was a substantial School of London was essentially correct but it caused confusion because it implied that there was a movement or stylistic group at work when in reality no one style could cover the likes of Francis Bacon and also Bridget Riley Modernists and Mavericks explores this period based on an exceptionally deep well of firsthand interviews often unpublished with such artists as Victor Pasmore John Craxton Lucian Freud Frank Auerbach Allen Jones R B Kitaj Euan Uglow Howard Hodgkin Terry Frost Gillian Ayres Bridget Riley David Hockney Frank Bowling Leon Kossoff John Hoyland and Patrick Caulfield But Martin Gayford also teases out the thread weaving these individual lives together and demonstrates how and why long after it was officially declared dead painting lived and thrived in London Simultaneously aware of the influences of Jackson Pollock Giacometti and through the teaching passed down at the major art school the traditions of Western art from Piero della Francesca to Picasso and Matisse the postwar painters were bound by their confidence that this ancient medium could do fresh and marvelous things and explored in their diverse ways the possibilities of paint The Making of Modern Art

Swan, 2021-03-23 THE TIMES BEST ART BOOK OF THE YEAR FINALIST FOR THE PLUTARCH AWARD AND THE APOLLO AWARD There are not many biographical masterpieces but Mark Stevens and Annalyn Swan have produced one wrote the novelist John Banville of Francis Bacon Revelations By the Pulitzer prize winning authors of de Kooning An American Master this acclaimed biography contains a wealth of never before known details about one of the iconic artists of the 20th century a singularly private darkly funny eruptive man and his extraordinary art whose iconoclastic charm keeps the pages turning The Washington Post Francis Bacon created an indelible image of mankind in modern times and played an outsized role in both twentieth century art and life from his public emergence with his legendary Triptych 1944 its images so unrelievedly awful that people fled the gallery to his death in Madrid in 1992 Bacon was a witty free spirit and unabashed homosexual at a time when many others remained closeted and his exploits were as unforgettable as his images He moved among the worlds of London's Soho and East End the literary salons of London and Paris and the homosexual life of Tangier Through hundreds of interviews and extensive new research the authors probe Bacon's childhood in Ireland he earned his father's lasting disdain because his asthma prevented him from hunting his increasingly open homosexuality his early design career never before explored in detail the formation of his vision his early failure as an artist his uneasy relationship with American abstract art and his improbable late emergence onto the international stage as one of the great visionaries of the twentieth century In all Francis Bacon Revelations gives us a more complete and nuanced and more international portrait than ever before of this singularly private darkly funny eruptive man and his equally eruptive extraordinary art Bacon was not just an influential artist he helped remake the twentieth century figure London painters, 2017 London Painters brings together works by a small group of artists who have commonly been identified as the main proponents of the so called School of London Michael Andrews Frank Auerbach Francis Bacon Lucian Freud David Hockney R B Kitaj and Leon Kossoff Through a selection of self portraits depictions of their loyal sometimes shared sitters and London scenes the show explores the artists dedication to the figure and cityscape at a time when abstraction prevailed 00Exhibition Ordovas New York USA 03 11 2017 18 01 2018
