Fantastic 4 Activity Book and Floor Puzzle Meredith Books, Victoria Forlini, 2005-05 Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 50 Fantastic Ideas for Block Play Judit Horvath, 2017-09-07 The 50 Fantastic Ideas series is packed full of fun original skills based activities for Early Years practitioners to use with children aged 0-5. Each activity features step by step guidance, a list of resources and a detailed explanation of the skills children will learn. Creative, simple and highly effective, this series is a must have for every Early Years setting. Block play stimulates learning in all areas of development: intellectual, physical, social, emotional and communication, as well as early maths and literacy. In this book, experienced author and practitioner Judit Horvath has put together a variety of exciting and challenging ideas that cover them all. Some activities include cheap, easily sourced props such as play dough, pebbles, fairy lights and flowers to capture the children's imaginations, while others prompt more challenging block play to encourage the development and understanding of complex patterns such as classifying, sequencing, counting, fractions and problem solving. This creative collection of ideas, featuring colourful and fun photography, is a fantastic resource for incorporating successful and exciting block play into your setting.

50 Fantastic Ideas for Developing Emotional Resilience Jillian Harrison-Longworth, 2019-03-07 The 50 Fantastic Ideas series is packed full of fun original skills based activities for Early Years practitioners to use with children aged 0-5. Each activity features step by step guidance, a list of resources and a detailed explanation of the skills children will learn. Creative, simple and highly effective, this series is a must have for every Early Years setting. There has always been emphasis placed on personal, social and emotional education, particularly in the Early Years. Emotionally resilient children are well equipped to deal with the challenges they may face, and this resilience reflects a range of skills, strengths and characteristics acquired and refined throughout one's life. Over the last ten years, Jillian Harrison-Longworth has planned and delivered a wide range of short but focused activities that can be used to develop aspects of emotional resilience across five key areas: confidence, self-image, self-esteem, perseverance and cooperation. This book contains refined activities for each of these crucial sections that most commonly arise in schools and settings. 50 Fantastic Ideas for Developing Emotional Resilience provides short but snappy, practical activities as starting points for practitioners to develop emotional resilience in the children they work with.

50 Fantastic Things to Do with Cardboard Judit Horvath, 2017-01-26 The 50 Fantastic Ideas series is packed full of fun original skills based activities for Early Years practitioners to use with children aged 0-5. Each activity features step by step guidance, a list of resources and a detailed explanation of the skills children will learn. Creative, simple and highly effective, this series is a must have for every Early Years setting. In order to be able to think creatively, children have to be encouraged to use their imaginations and play autonomously. When setting up open ended learning opportunities that stimulate children to investigate possibilities, practitioners need easily accessible, cost effective resources. The rationale behind using cardboard boxes is the simple fact that they are cheap and open ended, meaning they can be easily sourced and simply transformed by both adults and children A cardboard box is a resource that when left alone does nothing in particular but comes to life in the hands of children requiring them to use their imagination or to build on their past experiences Boxes as open ended materials greatly enhance the play experience as they require children to bring their thoughts into the play experience in a deeper way 50 Fantastic Ideas for Bikes, Trikes and Scooters James Davolls,2024-11-07 _____
