Far Eastern Promise:

Far Eastern Promise Janet Whitehead,1993     Asia ,1922     The Emperor's New Road Jonathan E. Hillman,2020-09-29 A prominent authority on China's Belt and Road Initiative reveals the global risks lurking within Beijing's project of the century China's Belt and Road Initiative is the world's most ambitious and misunderstood geoeconomic vision To carry out President Xi Jinping's flagship foreign policy effort China promises to spend over one trillion dollars for new ports railways fiber optic cables power plants and other connections The plan touches more than one hundred and thirty countries and has expanded into the Arctic cyberspace and even outer space Beijing says that it is promoting global development but Washington warns that it is charting a path to global dominance Taking readers on a journey to China's projects in Asia Europe and Africa Jonathan E Hillman reveals how this grand vision is unfolding As China pushes beyond its borders and deep into dangerous territory it is repeating the mistakes of the great powers that came before it Hillman argues If China succeeds it will remake the world and place itself at the center of everything But Xi may be overreaching all roads do not yet lead to Beijing     The East Asian Welfare Model Roger Goodman,Huck-Ju Kwon,Gordon White,2006-12-05 For many politicians and observers in the West East Asia has provided a broad range of positive images of the state's intervention in society Neoliberals grew excited by popular welfare systems that cost little in expenditure and bureaucracy Social democrats thought they had found a model for social cohesion and equality In fact the reality in East Asia is rather different from these stereotypes In this book six specialists of six different societies in East Asia Japan South Korea Taiwan China Singapore and Hong Kong examine the role of the state in their welfare systems There are detailed case studies on pensions health insurance housing and personal social services They provide an up to date detailed account of how these systems have developed as well as an examination of the question of whether these welfare regimes are the natural outgrowth of cultural traditions or the result of economic and political conditions This broad ranging and detailed study will be welcomed by both students and policy makers as the first proper academic study in English to have such a wide coverage of this topic Its clarity and authority should come as a welcome alternative to the more common misconceptions about Asian society     Copypat Television Albert Moran,1998 Television programme format transfer is the process whereby the basic idea or ingredient of a programme is used to produce a new version of the programme With Polyglot TV Albert Moran offers a detailed explanation of the process     Ten Camels for My Wife John Meadows,2016-09-14 A highly entertaining anecdotal collection of humorous life observations during a trip around the world Travelling by bus to Kathmandu the author experiences hair raising misadventures a chase through Jerusalem a gun battle in Jordan a pummelling by a gargantuan masseur in Istanbul a python in India and the terrifying James Bond encounter in Australia His portrait of an Afghani shopkeeper has a bizarre twist Time travelling detours punctuate interesting stories about the Taj Mahal Sydney Opera House Tahiti Easter Island statues and Christ in Rio More than a travelogue personal insights and character portrayals are underscored by whimsical humour

Supranationalism in the New World Order P. Close, E. Ohki-Close, 1999-01-29 In the post Cold War New World Order the European Union EU is among a growing number of regional regimes that are acquiring prominent roles in the process of global governance The EU is the most advanced and influential regional regime by virtue of being constructed around the supranational European Community EC However the evident competitive advantages of supranationalism will foster the consolidation and proliferation of supranational regional regimes in a manner consistent with the neo functionalist understanding of such organisations

The Moderns Paul Julian Smith, 2000 This book offers a radically new account of the rich and varied culture of contemporary Spain It focuses on three intellectuals who chronicle contemporary life including journalist Francisco Umbral three filmmakers who engage with the many nationalisms of the Spanish state Victor Erice Bigas Luna and Julio Medem and three crucial topics that are expressed in many media the replaying of history the rise and fall of the city and the practice of everyday life Ranging from the ethnographic photography of Cristina Garcia Rodero to the high tech architecture of Santiago Calatrava and from the hyperrealist painting of Antonio Lopez to the neo flamenco dance of Joaquin Cortes this book is also the first to draw on theorists of the intellectual field the production of space and the arts of bricolage Pierre Bourdieu Henri Lefebvre and Michel de Certeau Refuting the charge that contemporary Spanish culture is trivial or superficial this book argues that it is fully engaged in the aesthetic and historical project of modernity

Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho, 2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People's Republic of China and is home to around 250 000 Muslims practicing Islam However existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong Islam and China's Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state's triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf Then with reference to the rise of new media and technology the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government's concern of external extremism Finally it concludes by investigating Hong Kong's growing awareness of the Muslim minorities demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state's aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance Indeed Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of
