Farewell To Europe A Novel:

Farewell to Europe Walter Laqueur, 1981 Encounters and Destinies Stefan Zweig, 2020-10-27 A new collection of essays by Stefan Zweig tributes to the great artists and thinkers of the Europe of his day Stefan Zweig was one of the twentieth century's greatest authors and a tireless champion of freedom tolerance and friendship across borders Encounters and Destinies collects his most impassioned and moving tributes to his many illustrious friends and peers literary philosophical and artistic luminaries from across the Old Europe that Zweig loved so much and which he grieved to see so cruelly destroyed by two world wars Including pieces on Rainer Maria Rilke Marcel Proust Sigmund Freud Maxim Gorky and Arturo Toscanini this essential collection is also Zweig's tribute to the ideal of friendship an ideal he clung to as the world he knew was torn apart Dystopia(n) Matters Fátima Vieira, 2013-07-16 The volume is divided into two parts separated by an Intermezzo The first part Dystopia Matters benefits from the contribution of reputed scholars of the field of Utopian Studies who were asked to make a statement explaining why dystopia is important The Intermezzo completes this part and offers the reader an informed discussion of the concepts of utopia dystopia and anti utopia whilst providing ground for the case studies presented in the second part in the sections devoted to literature film and theatre In one way or another despite the variety of approaches all contributors argue for the idea that if dystopia has invaded most forms of contemporary discourse its sibling utopia has not been eradicated from the scene Furthermore the studies show that the tension between the two concepts is instrumental to our cautious conscious and tentative construction of the future The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels The Reception of Jonathan Swift in Europe Hermann J. Real, 2013-02-14 Jonathan Swift has had a profound impact on almost all the national literatures of Continental Europe The celebrated author of acknowledged masterpieces like A Tale of a Tub 1704 Gulliver's Travels 1726 and A Modest Proposal 1729 the Dean of St Patrick's Dublin was courted by innumerable translators adaptors and retellers admired and challenged by shoals of critics and creatively imitated by both novelists and playwrights not only in Central Europe Germany and Switzerland but also in its northern Denmark and Sweden and southern Italy Spain and Portugal outposts as well as its eastern Poland and Russia Hungary Romania and Bulgaria and Western parts from the beginning of the 18th century to the present day

The Historical Novel in Nineteenth-Century Europe Brian Hamnett, 2011-11-24 Even at the height of its popularity in the early nineteenth century the historical novel faced criticism at many levels After its predominance in the 1810s and 1820s writers and historians shunned it as a travesty of their respective disciplines Even so the historical novel has frequently attracted a wide ranging public right up to the present day Brian Hamnett examines key novels by authors including Scott Balzac Manzoni Dickens Eliot Flaubert Fontane Gald s and Tolstoy revealing the contradictions inherent in this form of fiction and exposing the challenges writers faced in attempting to represent a reality that linked past and present He argues that the historical novel in the nineteenth century was a common European phenomenon with considerable interconnection of themes and periods Accordingly the book ranges from the British Isles and France through the Germanic territories Italy and Spain to the Russian Empire identifying the different objectives and phases of the historical novel Although historical novels did appear in the two previous centuries the form came to maturity in the nineteenth century a consequence of the developing nature of history as a discipline distinct from literature and philosophy and the increasing primacy of the novel for writers and the reading public Yet the frontiers between history and literature remained blurred and the two disciplines continued to influence one another as each sought a faithful representation of human experience

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe: Types and stereotypes Marcel Cornis-Pope,John Neubauer,2004 Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800 1989 the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe approaches the region s literatures from five complementary angles focusing on literature s participation in and reaction to key political events literary periods and genres the literatures of cities and sub regions literary institutions and figures of representation The main objective of the project is to challenge the self enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories to contextualize them in a regional perspective and to recover individual works writers and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets figurations of the Family Women Outlaws and Others as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation As in the previous three volumes the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions An Epilogue complements the basic history focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989 This volume will be of interest to the region s literary historians to students and teachers of comparative literature to cultural historians and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region The Columbia Guide to the Literatures
