The Decorative Arts of the Forties and Fifties Austerly Binge Bevis Hillier, 1975

The Costume Technician's Handbook Rosemary Ingham, Liz Covey, 2024-03-11 Since its first publication in 1980 The Costume Technician's Handbook has established itself as an indispensable resource in classrooms and costume shops Ingham and Covey draw on decades of hands on experience to provide the most complete guide to developing costumes that are personally distinctive and artistically expressive No other book covers the same breadth of necessary topics for every aspect of costuming from the basics of setting up a costume shop to managing one and everything in between

New York Magazine, 1984-11-05 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea As Seen in Vogue Daniel Delis Hill, 2004 Documents the history of Vogue magazine over the course of the twentieth century and features more than six hundred advertising images that provide insights into the evolution in American fashion society and culture since the magazine's debut in 1893 The Costume Designer's Handbook Rosemary Ingham, Liz Covey, 2024-03-27 The Costume Designer's Handbook is the definitive guide for both aspiring and seasoned costume designers blending the art and business of theatrical costume design since its inception in 1983 Rosemary Ingham and Liz Covey offer deep insights into play analysis historical research collaboration techniques drafting and setting up an effective workspace The book addresses the practicalities of the industry including job market navigation freelancing contracts and taxes With over 150 illustrations an 8 page color insert and a comprehensive reference section for resources this handbook encapsulates the essence of costume design making it an indispensable resource for professionals in the field '50s & '60s Style Polly Powell, 1988

Wholesale Couture Liz Tregenza, 2023-02-23 The first book to consider the subject Wholesale Couture London and Beyond 1930-70 seeks to revise the notion that wholesale couturiers were simply copyists and demonstrate the complexities of their design processes and business strategies This term has fallen out of usage however it was used to describe the pinnacle of the British ready to wear fashion industry between the 1930s and 1960s Companies within this sector have typically been recognised as creators of high quality copies of French haute couture using ready to wear techniques Liz Tregenza traces wholesale couture garments from concept to usage considering design manufacture branding promotion retail and export She looks beyond the garments produced and investigates the people behind these firms consequently demonstrating the significant role that largely Jewish immigrants played in the development and success of this industry The book also considers the wider social and economic factors that affected manufacturers and consumers the effect of austerity rationing and the Utility scheme and the pressing need for wholesale couturiers to export their products internationally It demonstrates that 1946 was a critical year for re building and re imagining the London fashion industry and that wholesale couturiers were at the centre of these developments Furthermore it reveals the impact of changing consumer purchasing power including the burgeoning youth market for fashion manufacturers Offering a new perspective on British fashion history Wholesale Couture demonstrates that these couturiers were vital in cementing London's status as a ready to wear fashion centre The 40s & 50s Helen Reynolds, 1999 Traces changes in fashion during the 40s and 50s including military styles utility clothes Dior glamour and the modernist look 50s Popular Fashions for Men, Women, Boys & Girls Roseann Ettinger, 1995 Those swinging Fifties are fondly remembered in this bright eye catching book of everyday fashions for men women boys and girls Color photos illustrate hundreds of examples most of them never worn and retaining their original colors and freshness A glossary index and price guide make this a very useful book for collectors Fashion and Everyday Life Cheryl Buckley, Hazel Clark, 2017-02-09 Taking cultural theorist Michel de Certeau's notion of the everyday as a critical starting point this book considers how fashion shapes and is shaped by everyday life Looking historically for the imprint of fashion within everyday routines such as going to work or shopping or in leisure activities like dancing the book identifies the fashion system of the ordinary in which clothing has a distinct role in the making of self and identity Exploring the period from 1890 to 2010 the study is located in London and New York cities that emerged as as socially ethnically and culturally diverse as well as increasingly fashionable The book re focuses fashion discourse away from well trodden power laden dynamics towards a re evaluation of time memory and above all history and their relationship to fashion and everyday life The importance of place and space and issues of gender race and social class provides the broader framework revealing fashion as both routine and exceptional and as an increasingly significant part of urban life By focusing on key themes such as clothing the city what is worn on the streets the imagining and performing of multiple identities by dressing up and down going out and showing off Fashion and Everyday Life makes a unique contribution to the literature of fashion studies fashion history cultural studies and beyond

Out-of-Style Betty Kreisel Shubert, 2018-06-13 This volume of style clues for fashion detectives weaves fascinating elements of social history into tales of how why and when fashions evolved Hundreds of illustrations accompany highly readable comments and explanations

Fashion Since 1900 Valerie D. Mendes, Amy De La Haye, 2010 From Belle Epoque tea gowns to Dior's 1947 New Look and fashion blogs in the 2000s this survey explores the significant developments in fashion from 1900 onwards

Ebony, 1965-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine

Classifying Fashion, Fashioning Class Katherine Appleford, 2020-10-14 Drawing together theoretical ideas from across the social sciences Classifying Fashion Fashioning Class examines how the fashion class association has developed and using the experiences of middle and working class British women demonstrates how this relationship operates today Though increasingly academics argue that contemporary class distinctions are made through cultural practices and tastes few have fully explored just how individual's fashion choices mobilise class and are used in class evaluations Yet an individual's everyday dress is perhaps the most immediate marker of taste and thus an important means of class distinction This is particularly true for women as their performances of respectability femininity and motherhood are embodied by fashion and shaped by class In unpacking this fashion class relationship the book explores how fashion is used by British women to talk about class It offers important insights into the ways fashion mobilises class differences in understandings of dressing up performance and public space It considers how class identity shapes women's attitudes concerning fashion trends and classic styles and it draws attention to the pivotal role mothers play in cultivating these class distinctions The book will be of interest to students in sociology fashion studies cultural studies human geography and consumer behaviour

The Handbook of Fashion Studies Sandy Black, Amy de la Haye, Joanne Entwistle, Regina Root, Agnès

Rocamora, Helen Thomas, 2014-01-02 The Handbook of Fashion Studies identifies an innovative spectrum of thematic approaches key strands and interdisciplinary concepts that continue to push forward the boundaries of fashion studies The book is divided into seven sections Fashion Identity and Difference Spaces of Fashion Fashion and Materiality Fashion Agency and Policy Science Technology and New fashion Fashion and Time and Sustainable Fashion in a Globalised world Each section consists of approximately four essays authored by established researchers in the field from the UK USA Netherlands Sweden Canada and Australia The essays are written by international subject specialists who each engage with their section s theme in the light of their own discipline and provide clear case studies to further knowledge on fashion This consistency provides clarity and permits comparative analysis The handbook will be essential reading for students of fashion as well as professionals in the industry
