Arnold LPCC BCC,2019-10-04 We are all traveling on a journey through this life It seems that at times we will face some difficult situations and circumstances that leave us wounded and sometimes disillusioned We tell ourselves we just need to get over it and get on with life but in all honesty how well are we really doing this Joe shares his own story of how normal aspects of temperament play a role in how we experience these wounds along with how he has experienced substantial healing from various aspects of his own brokenness He both ponders and presents his belief that the healing of our brokenness has been minimized and overlooked by large segments of the contemporary church A thread of his own experience of grace is interwoven throughout the book He presents some whole person ideas of how we can all move toward a path of greater healing and a truer version of ourselves

Joe invites you on a journey with him to more fully explore this possibility Here s an opportunity to walk through a door of hope to see if a deeper level of healing is available to you and those you care for The American Practice Condensed
