Frog Mountain Blues:

Frog Mountain Blues Charles Bowden, 1994 Discusses the development of Tucson Arizona and its impact on local environment describes the beauty and fragility of the Catalina Mountains and argues that they must be protected Frog Mountain Blues Charles Bowden, 2018-10-02 The Santa Catalina Mountains north of Tucson whose summit is called Frog Mountain by the Tohono O odham offers up to the citizens of the basins below a wilderness in their own backyard When it was first published in 1987 Frog Mountain Blues documented the creeping sprawl of new development up the Catalinas foothills Today that development is fully visible but Charles Bowden s prescience of the urgency to preserve and protect a sacred recreational space remains as vivid as ever Accompanied by Jack W Dykinga s photographs from the original work this book continues to convey the natural beauty of the Catalinas and warns readers that this unique wilderness could easily be lost As Alison Hawthorne Deming writes in the new foreword Frog Mountain Blues continues to be an important book for learning to read this place through the eyes of experience and history and Bowden remains a sobering voice for facing our failures in protecting what we love in this time of global destruction for taking seriously the power of language to set ourselves right again with the enormous task of living with purpose and presence and care on the land

The Myth of Emptiness and the New American Literature of Place Wendy Harding, 2014-10-01 From the moment the first English speaking explorers and settlers arrived on the North American continent many have described its various locations and environments as empty Indeed much of American national history and culture is bound up with the idea that parts of the landscape are empty and thus open for colonization settlement economic improvement claim staking taming civilizing cultivating and the exploitation of resources In turn most Euro American nonfiction written about the landscape has treated it either as an object to be acted upon by the author or an empty space unspoiled by human contamination to which the solitary individual goes to be refreshed and rejuvenated In The Myth of Emptiness and the New American Literature of Place Wendy Harding identifies an important recent development in the literature of place that corrects the misperceptions resulting from these tropes Works by Rick Bass Charles Bowden Ellen Meloy Jonathan Raban Rebecca Solnit and Robert Sullivan move away from the tradition of nature writing with its emphasis on the solitary individual communing with nature in uninhabited places to recognize the interactions of human and other than human presences in the land In different ways all six writers reveal a more historically complex relationship between Americans and their environments In this new literature of place writers revisit abandoned threatened or damaged sites that were once represented as devoid of human presence and dig deeper to reveal that they are in fact full of the signs of human activity These writers are interested in the role of social political and cultural relationships and the traces they leave on the landscape Throughout her exploration Harding adopts a transdisciplinary perspective that draws on the theories of geographers historians sociologists and philosophers to understand the reasons for the enduring perception of emptiness in the American landscape and how this new literature of place works with and against these ideas She reminds us that by understanding and integrating human impacts into accounts of the landscape we are better equipped to fully reckon with the natural and cultural crisis that engulfs all landscapes today Entertaining Tucson Across the Decades, Volume 2: 1986-1989 Robert E. Zucker,2015-08-01

The second of four volumes that cover the Tucson entertainment scene during the second half of the 20th century Volume 2 features hundreds of local musicians and actors between the years 1986 through 1989 Compiled from articles interviews and original photographs published in the Entertainment Magazine during those years Writing About Nature John A.

Murray,2003-12-15 Originally published by the Sierra Club in 1995 this handbook covers genres techniques and publication issues for aspiring writers scholars and students who want to share their experiences in nature and the outdoors Rim to River Tom Zoellner,2024-02-20 A sharp examination of Arizona by a nationally acclaimed writer Rim to River follows Tom Zoellner on a 790 mile walk across his home state as he explores key elements of Arizona culture politics and landscapes This book is essential reading for anyone interested in learning more about a vibrant and baffling place Arizona Lawrence W.

Cheek,2004 Discusses the history and culture of Arizona describes the sights and attractions in each region of the state and provides practical travel information Blue Desert Charles Bowden,2018-10-02 Published in 1986 Blue Desert was Charles Bowden s third book length work and takes place almost entirely in Arizona revealing Bowden s growing and intense preoccupation with the state and what it represented as a symbol of America s New West Bowden presents a view of the Southwest that measures how rapid growth takes its toll on the land Writing with a reporter s objectivity and a desert rat s passion Bowden offers us his trademarked craft and wit to take us into the streets as well as the desert to depict not a fragile environment but the unavoidable reality of abuse exploitation and human cruelty Blue Desert shows us the darker side of development where the land always makes promises of aching beauty and the people always fail the land and defies us to ignore it In a thoughtful new foreword Francisco Cant writes In Blue Desert we follow Bowden in the processes of becoming We see the version of Bowden that he would likely most want us to remember someone who did their best to be an honest witness someone who was haunted by modernity and his place in it someone who grappled with his demons by gazing deeply into the desert Blue Desert is a critical piece in the oeuvre of Charles Bowden and it continues to remind readers of the cruelty and beauty of the world around us Tearing Up the Ground with Splendid Results Mary M. Farrell,1995

Sunshot ,2006 The Devil s Highway crosses a stretch of borderland desert in northern Mexico where many immigrants have traveled and too many have died It is a despoblado where desperate people defend secret places But it is also known as El Gran Desierto a place where stately saguaros stand near aromatic elephant trees where sand dunes caress the edges of jagged granite mountains where one can watch bighorn sheep in the morning and whales in the afternoon Over the years desert rat Bill Broyles has ventured repeatedly into this sunshot landscape slogged across its salt flats and sand dunes and defied its deadly heat This book chronicles his years of exploration a vivid and personal introduction to a thorny but ultimately enchanting place that manages to endear itself over time if it doesn't kill you first Michael Berman's stark black and white photographs capture the desolate beauty of the desert while conveying a sense of Broyles' adventures Gleaned from more than 4 000 images shot with a large format camera these exquisite photographs translate the desert's formidable monotone into finely tuned studies of light and represent some of the best photos ever taken of this mysterious region El Gran Desierto is a grand desert indeed with beauty spirit and mystery rivaling any place on Earth and anyone captivated by the earlier explorations of Lumholtz Ives or Hornaday or by Edward Abbey's love of desert places will revel in these modern day adventures Sunshot defies the stereotype of a punishing wilderness to show how even the most perilous desert can be alluring if approached with knowledge and respect America's Most Alarming Writer Bill Broyles, Bruce J.

Dinges, 2019-11-15 The author of more than twenty books and a revered contributor to numerous national publications Charles Bowden 1945-2014 used his keen storyteller's eye to reveal both the dark underbelly and the glorious determination of humanity particularly in the borderlands between the United States and Mexico In America's Most Alarming Writer key figures in his life including his editors collaborators and other writers deliver a literary wake of the man who inspired them throughout his forty year career Part revelation part critical assessment the fifty essays in this collection span Bowden's rise as an investigative journalist through his years as a singular voice of unflinching honesty about natural history climate change globalization drugs and violence As the Chicago Tribune noted Bowden wrote with the intensity of Joan Didion the voracious hunger of Henry Miller the feral intelligence and irony of Hunter Thompson and the wit and outrage of Edward Abbey An evocative complement to The Charles Bowden Reader the essays and photographs in this homage brilliantly capture the spirit of a great writer with a quintessentially American vision Bowden is the best writer you've never read

Appalachian Autumn Marcia Bonta, 2011-12-01 Like her popular Appalachian Spring Marcia Bonta's new book offers a day by day account of the changing world of nature in the mountains of central Pennsylvania This time she chronicles the beauties of the autumn months as she walks the familiar roads and trails of her 500 acre mountain top farm noting the minute transformations of the season as well as the more dramatic ones But her quiet sojourn in the natural world is shattered by the intrusion of a lumberman who insists upon clear cutting a neighboring property The massive bulldozers and skidders crush every tree and shrub weed and wildflower leaving only rubble in their wake The Bontas become involved in a lawsuit challenging this violation of the land they love and seeking to protect their own property from the effects of the logging Autumn is a bittersweet time Bonta writes a season of good byes when after the flaming leaves fall and start the inevitable process of decay we are left with only the bare bones of nature Fleeing from the whine of chain saws and the crash of falling trees she roams the mountain top watching wild turkeys forage in the field flocks of migrating birds feast on wild grapes does and bucks eye each other in their mating ritual But she can never completely evade the insistent question What is the relationship between humans and nature Does ownership give one the right to do as one pleases with the land and all the flora and fauna living on it Does the natural world exists solely to satisfy mankind s desire for profit The answer is not simple it cannot be drawn in winter s black and white But the issues must be of concern to every thoughtful person Marcia Bonta s Appalachian Autumn offers a new voice in the ongoing debate

A Race to the Bottom of Crazy Richard Grant,2025-09-30 Bestselling author Richard Grant delves into the heart of Arizona exploring its complex political issues climate change challenges and immigration dynamics to reveal the intricate forces shaping its identity and future When Richard Grant and his wife moved with their four year old daughter back to Tucson Arizona where the couple first met he expected to easily rekindle his love of the region Instead he found a housing market gone haywire rampant election conspiracies and right wing political violence alarmingly close to his home and family Undocumented immigration was surging and the state was also on the front lines of climate change breaking heat and drought records and running out of long term water supplies Under these circumstances Grant wondered how he might raise a happy well adjusted child who believes in the future Yet these concerns weren t keeping people away Arizona was simultaneously experiencing some of the nation s highest population growth In A Race to the Bottom of Crazy Grant mixes memoir research and reporting in a quest to understand what makes Arizona such a confounding and irresistible place He visits the world s largest machine gun shoot takes a sunset boat cruise with a US Congressman and a group of far right patriots rides through the desert with a Border Patrol agent and goes camping with his family in breathtaking mountain ranges that rise out of the desert like islands in the sky Interspersed with these adventures are recollections of his previous stint in the state including his friendship with cult writer Charles Bowden and years living off the grid with smugglers dope farmers and outlaws on the Mexican border Ultimately Grant arrives at the conclusion that Arizona has always been a scattershot improvisation with bizarre and extreme behavior in its DNA This book is an entertaining illuminating and essential guide to understanding modern America at its most overheated

The Road to Mount Lemmon Mary Ellen Barnes,Tony Zimmerman,2009-06-11 As you wind your way up the Catalina Highway it doesn t matter whether you re a first time visitor or a native Tucsonan you know you re on the way to someplace special The Santa Catalina Mountains first captivated Tony Zimmerman on a 1937 hunting trip Regard for the alpine beauty must have been in his genes he was the son of Swiss German immigrants and by 1940 the Tucson schoolteacher had begun taking his family to Mount Lemmon to spend the summer Back then the road up the mountain was a rough two track dirt road from Oracle and Summerhaven was nothing but a sleepy cluster of summer cabins But Tony Zimmerman was to help change all of that The Road to Mount Lemmon is a beguiling memoir of the Catalina Mountains told by the daughter of one of the pioneers in the life and development of Mount Lemmon s communities Mary Ellen Barnes tells how her father Tony resigned from teaching in 1943 to devote his career to the development of this mountain oasis He not only sold real estate for long time landowner Randolph Jenks he even bought the village s tiny two room store installing a sawmill to build a larger store and built the Mount Lemmon Inn And as she spins Tony s personal saga she also gives readers a glimpse of the Catalinas before Tucson became a boom town recalling idyllic adventures in wild country and the cowboys rangers ranchers and loggers who worked there Barnes tells Tony s story as if sharing it with family evoking her father s personality on every page The Road to Mount Lemmon is an intimate view of a mountain community over the course of nearly sixty years a view that few people have shared but one all can appreciate Wrenched from the Land ML

Lincoln,2020-04-01 Wrenched from the Land features sixteen interviews with some of the most iconic eco warriors to put themselves on the line for their beliefs The activists featured in this book are inspired by the late Edward Abbey one of America s uncompromising and irascible defenders of wilderness The book includes interviews with Terry Tempest Williams the late Charles Bowden Sea Shepherd Society founder Paul Watson Jack Loeffler Doug Peacock Ingrid Eisenstadter John De Puy Bob Lippman Derrick Jensen Shonto Begay Ken Sanders Ken Sleight the late Katie Lee Executive Director of the Center for Biological Diversity Kieran Suckling Earth First cofounder Dave Foreman and climate activist Tim DeChristopher Some were among Abbey s closest friends and were the inspiration for his irreverent comedic masterpiece The Monkey Wrench Gang Here are mesmerizing stories about how they adapted Abbey s monkeywrenching ideas into a radical blueprint for direct action Their achievements as ingenious and fierce as the individuals in this book will encourage readers to discover their own pathways toward positive change National Parks ,2001-03 The flagship publication of the National Parks

Conservation Association National Parks Magazine circ 340 000 fosters an appreciation of the natural and historic treasures found in the national parks educates readers about the need to preserve those resources and illustrates how member contributions drive our organization s park protection efforts National Parks Magazine uses images and language to convey our country s history and natural landscapes from Acadia to Zion from Denali to the Everglades and the 387 other park units in between A Photographer's Life Jack Dykinga,2017-02-20 A Natural History of the Sonoran Desert Patricia

Wentworth Comus,Steven John Phillips,Mark Alan Dimmitt,Linda M. Brewer,2015-11-17 The landscape of the Sonoran Desert Region varies dramatically from parched desert lowlands to semiarid tropical forests and frigid subalpine meadows A Natural History of the Sonoran Desert takes readers deep into its vast expanse looking closely at the relationships of plants and animals with the land and people through time and across landscapes Touching Images of Delight and Sorrow

Heinz-Dietrich Fischer,2021-01-07 This volume presents highly emotional newspaper pictures from 1968 2020 many of them telling moving stories All images were decorated with the Pulitzer Prize for Feature Photography Heinz Dietrich Fischer EdD PhD is Professor Emeritus at the Ruhr University of Bochum Germany The New Earth Reader David Rothenberg,Marta
