From Durham to Tehran Michael Craig Hillmann, 1991 From Durham to Tehran presents a Persian literature specialist's impressions and reflections on his field of study and profession based on two research trips: one to Durham, England, in 1986 and the other to Tehran, Iran, in 1989. With a format of travel diary entries, the book intends to suggest issues which American students of non-Western literary cultures face in their professional lives. It highlights ambiguities which characterise the situations and experiences of American students of living non-Western literatures. Moreover, it suggests that involvement in an older non-Western literary culture impels the American to reflection on his or her own roots and cultural history. It includes memories of many notable literary figures including Jalal Al-e Ahmad, Ali Shariati, and Sadeq Chubak.
