From Fetish To Subject Race Modernism And Primitivism 1919 1935:

From Fetish to Subject Carole Sweeney, 2004-10-30 Was modern primitivism complicit with the ideologies of colonialism or was it a multivalent encounter with difference Examining race and modernism through a wider and more historically contextualized study Sweeney brings together a variety of published and new scholarship to expand the discussion on the links between modernism and primitivism Tracing the path from Dada and Surrealism to Josephine Baker and Nancy Cunard's Negro An Anthology she shows the development of n grophilie from the interest in black cultural forms in the early 1920s to a more serious engagement with difference and representations in the 1930s Considering modernism race and colonialism simultaneously this work breaks from traditional boundaries of disciplines or geographic areas Why was the primitive so popular in this era Sweeney shows how high popular and mass cultural contexts constructed primitivism and how black diasporic groups in Paris challenged this construction Included is research from original archival material from black diasporic publications in Paris examining their challenges to primitivism in French literature and state sponsored exoticism The transatlantic movement of modernism and primitivism also is part of this broad comparative study

Modernism and Race Len Platt, 2011-02-24 The transnational turn has transformed modernist studies challenging Western authority over modernism and positioning race and racial theories at the very centre of how we now understand modern literature Modernism and Race examines relationships between racial typologies and literature in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries drawing on fin de si cle versions of anthropology sociology political science linguistics and biology Collectively these essays interrogate the anxieties and desires that are expressed in or projected onto racialized figures They include new outlines of how the critical field has developed revaluations of canonical modernist figures like James Joyce T S Eliot Ford Madox Ford and Wyndham Lewis and accounts of writers often positioned at the margins of modernism such as Zora Neale Hurston Claude McKay and the Holocaust writers Solomon Perel and Gisella Perl This collection by leading scholars of modernism will make an important contribution to a growing field Olive Schreiner and African Modernism Jade Munslow Ong, 2017-10-20 This book works across established categories of modernism and postcolonialism in order to radically revise the periods places and topics traditionally associated with anti colonialism and aesthetic experimentation in African literature The book is the first account of Olive Schreiner as a theorist and practitioner of modernist form advancing towards an emergent postcolonialism The book draws on and broadens discussions in and around the blossoming field of global modernist studies by interrogating the conventionally accepted genealogy of development that positions Europe and America as the sites of innovation It provides an original examination of the relationships between metaphor postcolonialism and modernist experimentation by showing how politically and aesthetically innovative African forms rely on allegorical structures in contrast to the symbolism dominant in Euro American modernism An original theoretical concept of the role of primitivism and allegory within the context of modernism and associated critical theory is proposed through the integration of postcolonial Marxist and ecocritical approaches to literature The book provides original readings of Schreiner's three novels Undine The Story of An African Farm and From Man to Man in light of the new theory of primitivism in African literature by directly addressing the issue of narrative form This argument is contextualised in relation to the work of other Southern African authors in whose writings the impact of Schreiner's politics and aesthetics can be traced These authors include J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer Doris Lessing Solomon T Plaatje and Zoe Wicomb amongst others This book brings the most current debates in modernist studies ecocriticism and primitivism into the field of postcolonial studies and contributes to a widening of the debates surrounding gender race empire and modernism

Gendering Modernism Maria Bucur, 2017-09-21 Gendering Modernism offers a critical reappraisal of the modernist movement asking how gender norms of the time shaped the rebellion of the self-avowed modernists and examining the impact of radical gender reformers on modernism Focusing primarily on the connections between North American and European modernists Maria Bucur explains why it is imperative that we consider the gender angles of modernism as a way to understand the legacies of the movement She provides an overview of the scholarship on modernism and an analysis of how definitions of modernism have evolved with that scholarship Interweaving vivid case studies from before the Great War to the interwar period looking at individual modernists from Ibsen to Picasso Hannah Hoch to Josephine Baker she covers various fields such as art literature theatre and film whilst also demonstrating how modernism manifested itself in the major social political and cultural shifts of the 20th century including feminism psychology sexology eugenics nudism anarchism communism and fascism This is a fresh and wide-ranging investigation of modernism which expands our definition of the movement integrating gender analysis and thereby opening up new lines of enquiry Written in a lively and accessible style Gendering Modernism is a crucial intervention into the literature which should be read by all students and scholars of the modernist movement as well 20th century history and gender studies more broadly

The South Seas Sean Brawley, Chris Dixon, 2015-04-21 The South Seas charts the idea of the South Seas in popular cultural productions of the English speaking world from the beginnings of the Western enterprise in the Pacific until the eve of the Pacific War Building on the notion that the influences on the creation of a text and the ways in which its audience receives the text are essential for understanding the historical significance of particular productions Sean Brawley and Chris Dixon explore the ways in which authors and producers ideas about the South Seas were haunted by others who had written on the subject and how they in turn influenced future generations of knowledge producers The South Seas is unique in its examination of an array of cultural texts Along with the foundational literary texts that established and perpetuated the South Seas tradition in written form the authors explore diverse cultural forms such as art music theater film fairs platform speakers surfing culture and tourism

Modern Literature and the Death Penalty, 1890-1950 Katherine Ebury, 2021-02-10 This book examines how the cultural and ethical power of literature allowed writers and readers to reflect on the practice of capital punishment in the UK Ireland and the US between 1890 and 1950 It explores how connections between high and popular culture seem particularly inextricable where the death penalty is at stake analysing a range of forms including major works of canonical literature detective fiction plays polemics criminological and psychoanalytic tracts and letters and memoirs The book addresses conceptual understandings of the modern death penalty including themes such as confession the gothic life writing and the human animal binary It also discusses the role of conflict in shaping the representation of capital punishment including chapters on the Easter Rising on World War I on colonial and quasi colonial conflict and on World War II Ebury s overall approach aims to improve our understanding of the centrality of the death penalty and the role it played in major twentieth century literary movements and historical events

Avant-Garde Cultural Practices in Spain (1914-1936), 2016-04-08 This book offers a critical reinterpretation of the Spanish avant garde focusing on narrative transculturality and intermediality Narrative because it prioritizes the analysis of prose over poetry against the traditional use of critical literature on the subject up to this point Transculturality because the Spanish avant garde simply cannot be understood without the acknowledgement of its multi linguistic reality and the transnational scope of the experience of Modernism in Europe of which Spain was an integral yet underexposed component And intermediality because the interrelations of painting photography film and literature articulate a correlation and mutual affect among different media creating a rich cultural tapestry that needs to be addressed Contributors Rosa Berland Jennifer Duprey Marcos Eymar Regina Galasso Eduardo Gregori Juan Herrero Sen s John McCulloch Andr s P rez Sim n Lynn Purkey Domingo R denas de Moya Evelyn Scaramella and Antonio S ez Delgado

Agency and Embodiment Carrie

Noland,2010-02-15 Arguing against the constructivist metaphor of bodily inscription dominant since Foucault Noland maintains that kinesthetic experience produced by acts of embodied gesturing places pressure on the conditioning a body receives encouraging variations in cultural practice that cannot otherwise be explained Katherine Mansfield and the Bloomsbury Group Todd Martin,2017-06-01 The New Zealand born writer Katherine Mansfield associated intimately with many members of the Bloomsbury group but her literary aesthetics placed her at a distance from the artistic works of the group With chapters written by leading international scholars Katherine Mansfield and the Bloomsbury Group explores this conflicted relationship Bringing together biographical and critical studies the book examines Mansfield s relationships personal and literary with such major Modernist figures as Virginia Woolf T S Eliot Aldous Huxley and Walter de la Mare as well as the ways in which her work engaged with and reacted against Bloomsbury In this way the book reveals the true extent of Mansfield s wider influence on 20th century modernist writing Choreomania Kéline Gotman,2018 When political protest is read as epidemic madness religious ecstasy as nervous disease and angular dance moves as dark and uncouth the disorder being described is choreomania At once a catchall term to denote spontaneous gestures and the unruly movements of crowds choreomania emerged in the nineteenth century at a time of heightened class conflict nationalist policy and colonial rule In this book author Kéline Gotman examines these choreographies of unrest rethinking the modern formation of the choreomania concept as it moved across scientific and social scientific disciplines Reading archives describing dramatic misformations of bodies and body politics she shows how prejudices against expressivity unravel in turn revealing widespread anxieties about demonstrative agitation This history of the fitful body complements stories of nineteenth century discipline and regimentation As she notes constraints on movement imply constraints on political power and agency In each chapter Gotman confronts the many ways choreomania works as an extension of discourses shaping colonialist orientalism which alternately depict riotous bodies as dangerously infected others and as curious bacchanalian remains Through her research Gotman also shows how beneath the radar of this colonial discourse men and women gathered together to repossess on their terms the gestures of social revolt Blacks and Blackness in European Art of the Long Nineteenth Century AdrienneL. Childs,2017-07-05 Compelling and troubling colorful and dark black figures served as the quintessential image of difference in nineteenth century European art the essays in this volume further the investigation of constructions of blackness during this period This collection marks a phase in the scholarship on images of blacks that moves beyond undifferentiated binaries like negative and positive that fail to reveal complexities contradictions and ambiguities Essays that cover the late eighteenth through the early twentieth century explore the visibility of blackness in anti slavery imagery black women in Orientalist art race and beauty in fin de siècle photography the French brand of blackface minstrelsy and a set of little known images of an African model by Edvard Munch In spite of the difficulty of resurrecting black lives in nineteenth century Europe one essay chronicles the rare instance of an American artist of color in mid nineteenth century

Europe With analyses of works ranging from Gault's Raft of the Medusa to portraits of the American actor Ira Aldridge this volume provides new interpretations of nineteenth century representations of blacks

Decolonizing the Republic Félix F. Germain, 2016-07-01 Decolonizing the Republic is a conscientious discussion of the African diaspora in Paris in the post World War II period This book is the first to examine the intersection of black activism and the migration of Caribbeans and Africans to Paris during this era and as Patrick Manning notes in the foreword successfully shows how black Parisians in their daily labors weekend celebrations and periodic protests opened the way to decolonizing the Republic advancing the respect for their rights as citizens Contrasted to earlier works focusing on the black intellectual elite Decolonizing the Republic maps the formation of a working class black France Readers will better comprehend how those peoples of African descent who settled in France and fought to improve their socioeconomic conditions changed the French perception of Caribbean and African identity laying the foundation for contemporary black activists to deploy a new politics of social inclusion across the demographics of race class gender and nationality This book complicates conventional understandings of decolonization and in doing so opens a new and much needed chapter in the history of the black Atlantic

Art for an Undivided Earth Jessica L. Horton, 2017-05-18 In Art for an Undivided Earth Jessica L Horton reveals how the spatial philosophies underlying the American Indian Movement AIM were refigured by a generation of artists searching for new places to stand Upending the assumption that Jimmie Durham James Luna Kay WalkingStick Robert Houle and others were primarily concerned with identity politics she joins them in remapping the coordinates of a widely shared yet deeply contested modernity that is defined in great part by the colonization of the Americas She follows their installations performances and paintings across the ocean and back in time as they retrace the paths of Native diplomats scholars performers and objects in Europe after 1492 Along the way Horton intervenes in a range of theories about global modernisms Native American sovereignty racial difference archival logic artistic itinerancy and new materialisms Writing in creative dialogue with contemporary artists she builds a picture of a spatially temporally and materially interconnected world an undivided earth
