are designed for optimal personal interaction Grit to Stay Grace to Go Sue Eenigenburg, Eva Burkholder, 2023-05-30 Don't Leave Too Soon Don't Stay Too Long Staying isn't always good and leaving isn't always bad Both require grit and grace Cross cultural ministry presents us with many difficulties like transitions loneliness messy relationships and the desire to escape The lies we believe tempt us to leave our work too soon But nothing tests our resolve to stay like seeing others go Grit to Stay Grace to Go normalizes the challenges of ministry through honest and humorous stories from the authors own lives as well as testimonies from many other workers The point is to help cross cultural workers not just to stay but to stay well by countering lies with truth This workbook provides thoughtful reflection questions practical action steps and suggested prayers It encourages stayers to process their grief guilt and relief when saying goodbye to goers In this way they can move forward with forgiveness and humility and truly bless the departing ones Those considering leaving will find poignant questions and spiritual practices to help them make an intentional not reactive decision Are you considering leaving the field Or do you know someone who is Work through this book by yourself or with others You will gain wisdom to help workers develop grit and grace to stay or go Unbroken Faith Diane Dokko Kim, 2018-04-03 When a parent hears that their child has a disability hearts and hopes are often broken But faith doesn't have to be In Unbroken Faith Dianne Dokko Kim comes alongside you as a fellow special needs parent to help you reconcile the premise of a good God with the devastating realities of raising a disabled child Kim courageously articulates deep seated unspoken doubts and fears you may have but are afraid to voice Will my child still have a full life Can I do this Where is God in all this As you are adjusting to your new normal Kim's biblical based encouragement will help you understand that you are not alone that God gets it and that God's Word is entirely relevant to the raw and messy yet hallowed spaces of special needs parenting Pearl Girls , 2009-06-24 After experiencing the death of both parents Margaret McSweeney recognized the importance of community like never before Through these difficult times in life she learned how God uses gritty circumstances to conform us to the stunning image of Christ McSweeney also realized that she was not at all alone It is for this reason that she decided to compile essays into an inspiring book Pearl Girls Encountering Grit Experiencing Grace Through this collection readers will be encouraged by the heartfelt writings that deal with loss and hardship in a real and honest way Respected authors such as Shaunti Feldhahn Melody Carlson Debbie Macomber Robin Jones Gunn and others help remind every woman that they are not alone and that no circumstance is beyond the grace of God McSweeney uses the metaphor of a pearl in order to better describe the situations that ail us all When an oyster takes in a piece of sand in order to create its coveted masterpiece it is initially painful to the soft flesh of the creature But after the pain appears a clean white symbol of simplicity purity and endurance that any woman would be proud to wear McSweeney believes that each woman is a pearl and together form a necklace of great worth In this book readers will discover community and encouragement women are alone in neither their pain nor victories in life

From the Brink Paul W. Ashton, 2020-06-16 A commonly encountered experience of both analyst and analysand is that of the void It is spoken about at different stages of therapy and refers to experiences that have different origins Sometimes the experience of the void is around a relatively limited aspect of the psyche but at other times the void seems much more global and threatens to engulf the entire personality the whole individual psyche then seems threatened by the possibility of dissolution into nothingness

Jewish Wisdom for Growing Older Rabbi Dayle A.
