Religious Tourism and the Environment Kiran A. Shinde,Daniel H. Olsen,2020-09-30 The remarkable growth in religious tourism across the world has generated considerable interest in the impacts of this type of tourism Focusing here on environmental issues this book moves beyond the documentation of environmental impacts to examine in greater depth the intersections between religious tourism and the environment Beginning with an in depth introduction that highlights the intersections between religion tourism and the environment the book then focuses on the environment as a resource or generator for religious tourism and as a recipient of the impacts of religious tourism Chapters included discuss such important areas as theological views environmental responsibility and host perspectives

Religious Tourism and the Italian Economy, 1870—1950 Riccardo Semeraro,Luciano Maffi,Giovanni Gregorini,2025-09-28 This book

addresses a little studied area of the history of tourism religious tourism and pilgrimage and introduces a comprehensive economic analysis of their development from elite pursuits to a mass phenomenon Focusing on Rome Lourdes and the Holy Land as destinations the book showcases religious tourism as a key precursory factor in mass tourism in Italy and Europe Departing from conventional historiographical timeframes the authors demonstrate that the surge in tourism during the Italian economic miracle did not arise ex novo at that time but was part of a longer process of transformation originating prior to the Second World War Diverse factors are discussed such as the social and economic role of the Catholic Church its relationship to tourism revolutions in transport technologies rising wages and increasing leisure time Key questions are explored regarding religious travel who when how and how it gained momentum in the first half of the twentieth century Drawing on a wealth of unpublished sources many from the Vatican Archives the book uncovers new religious social and cross cultural perspectives and contexts for studying the economic history of tourism

Music, Piety, and Propaganda

Alexander J. Fisher, 2014-02 Music Piety and Propaganda The Soundscapes of Counter Reformation Bavaria explores the nature of sound as a powerful yet ambivalent force in the religious struggles that permeated Germany during the Counter Reformation Author Alexander J Fisher goes beyond a musicological treatment of composers styles and genres to examine how music and more broadly sound itself shaped the aural landscape of Bavaria as the duchy emerged as a militant Catholic bulwark Fisher focuses particularly on the ways in which sound including bell ringing gunfire and popular song as well as cultivated polyphony not only was deployed by Catholic secular and clerical elites to shape the religious identities of Bavarian subjects but also carried the potential to challenge and undermine confessional boundaries Surviving literature archival documents and music illustrate the ways in which Bavarian authorities and their allies in the Catholic clergy and orders deployed sound to underline crucial theological differences with their Protestant antagonists notably the cults of the Virgin Mary the Eucharist and the saints Official and popular rituals like divine worship processions and pilgrimages all featured distinctive sounds and music that shaped and reflected an emerging Catholic identity Although officials imposed a severe regime of religious surveillance the Catholic state's dominance of the soundscape was hardly assured Fisher traces archival sources that show the resilience of Protestant vernacular song in Bavaria the dissemination and performance of forbidden anti Catholic songs the presence of Lutheran chorales in nominally Catholic church services into the late 16th century and the persistence of popular noise more generally Music Piety and Propaganda thus reveals historical theological and cultural issues of the period through the piercing dimension of its sounds bringing into focus the import of sound as a strategic cultural tool with significant impact on the flow of history

Israelism and the Place of Christ

Steven Paas,2018 From the perspective of Christian theology speaking about Israel not only touches on issues of international politics or social convictions but also on the core questions of faith and theology such as How does God relate to the peoples in this world Does the dictum that with God there is no partiality apply only to individuals or also to peoples In other words Does He still favour a people How do we read the Bible To what extent should we use the New Testament as a lens for the Old Testament What is the place of Christ in theology How far does salvation through Christ reach Does it apply to Jews and non Jews in the same way Should Christians keep the Jewish festivals What will be the place of the people of Israel in the future These are important questions about the concept of God hermeneutics christology soteriology practical theology and eschatology Therefore from a theological vantage point the subject of the collection of essays before you is extremely important Professor Dr Wido van Peursen Free University Amsterdam Netherlands Series Contributions to the Understanding of the Bible Beitr ge zum Verstehen der Bibel Vol 34 Subject Biblical Studies Religious Studies Law, Registration, and the State Jess Smith,2023-07-28 This book provides an original and compelling analysis of registration as a dynamic process which makes and unmakes legal identities Critical legal and socio legal scholarship tends to assume that registration is a textually mediated act of statecraft which governs through the technology of writing Taking a different approach this book develops movement as socio legal method to illustrate the legal social and bureaucratic layers of movement which unfold in everyday engagements with the law The book presents empirical and theoretical analysis of historical contemporary and future oriented places of registration a community hub a city of pilgrimage and the General Register Office Drawing from diverse perspectives across anthropology geography sociology architecture and mobility studies the book argues for an understanding of registration as evolving socially constructed and shaped by spatial imaginaries which are materialised in its architecture This mobile understanding of registration expands conceptual discussions of legal materiality whilst opening up possibilities for legal identities unconstrained by the assumed desirability of stability or endurance This interdisciplinary book will appeal primarily to a sociolegal critical legal and legal geography readership but it will also be of interest to those in other disciplines concerned with materiality movement and statecraft

Conversion in the Age of Pluralism, 2009-09-30 The theme of conversion constitutes a privileged point to study the framework linking an individual to the sociocultural contexts in which he or she is included Changes in personal biographies and sociocultural change are interwoven when we speak of conversion values speech norms behaviors beliefs lifestyles interests everything is open to potential debate when an individual converts Conversion is especially developed here through a connection with the dynamics of pluralism which appears to be the most peculiar cultural characteristic of our era what does it mean to speak of conversion in a time in which it seems that the presumption of only one true truth no longer exists while instead many different truths live together each with its own judgment criteria Encounters of Body and Soul in Contemporary Religious Practices Anna Fedele, Ruy Llera Blanes, 2011-09-01 Social scientists and philosophers confronted with religious phenomena have always been challenged to find a proper way to describe the spiritual experiences of the social group they were studying The influence of the Cartesian dualism of body and mind or soul led to a distinction between non material spiritual experiences i e related to the soul and physical mechanical experiences i e related to the body However recent developments in medical science on the one hand and challenges to universalist conceptions of belief and spirituality on the other have resulted in body and soul losing the reassuring solid contours they had in the past Yet in Western culture the body soul duality is alive not least in academic and media discourses This volume pursues the ongoing debates and discusses the importance of the body and how it is perceived in contemporary religious faith what happens when body and soul are un separated entities Is it possible even for anthropologists and ethnographers to escape from natural dualism The contributors here present research in novel empirical contexts the benefits and limits of the old dichotomy are discussed and new theoretical strategies proposed Driving Tourism through Creative Destinations and Activities Királová, Alžbeta, 2016-12-28 Tourism has become a booming industry within the last few decades and with the help of many new unique destinations and activities creative tourism will continue this upward trajectory for the foreseeable future Tourism helps stimulate economies decrease unemployment promote cultural diversity and is overall a positive impact on the world Driving Tourism through Creative Destinations and Activities provides a comprehensive discussion on the most unique emerging tourism topics and trends Featuring engaging topics such as social networking destination management organizations tourists motivations and service development this publication is a pivotal resource of academic material for managers practitioners students and researchers actively involved in the hospitality and tourism industry Theologies on the Move Joerg Rieger, 2020-10-13 Theologies on the Move Religion Migration and Pilgrimage in the World of Neoliberal Capital speaks to the reality that many religions have developed in motion with people exploring new boundaries migrating and being displaced Consequently major religious traditions form as they come into contact with other religions and cultures typically in situations of struggle and pressure Due to neoliberal capitalism more people are on the move today than ever before Most are driven by necessity migration due to violence poverty and perceived poverty others by religious quests that are often fueled by experiences of tension pilgrimage The chapters in this volume explore the complexity of these situations examining in detail how theology and religion shape up in various contexts on the move and investigating specific problems and tensions in order to suggest solutions alternatives and new possibilities
