From A To Zippy:

From A to Zippy Bill Griffith, 1991 Zippy the Pinhead Bill Griffith, 2010-10-18 In Zippy's latest collection of daily and color strips with additional pages the tour of Dingburg continues we drop in on dozens of Dingburgers and observe them in their natural habitat. The city inhabited entirely by pinheads can be seen as a metaphor for the world we live in today or not. In any event we watch as Zippy and his fellow Dingburg residents hunt and bag Speedy Alka Seltzer hear voices in their refrigerators become addicted to Riboflavin enjoy fondling newsprint believe that wahoo bark attracts the opposite sex and worship Joan Rivers Lost and Found Bill Griffith, 2012-01-30 Bill Griffith is best known as the creator of the Zippy daily comic strip currently running in over 300 newspapers nationwide but Zippy was conceived as an underground comix character before he became embraced in the mainstream. Beginning in 1969 Griffith contributed stories to a long list of legendary undergrounds. Lost and Found is not only a collection of these underground comix hand-picked by the artist himself but a mini memoir of the artist's comix career during the early days of the San Francisco Underground and his nearly twenty-year on-again-off-again involvement with Hollywood and TV. This collection from one of the great pioneering cartoonists also features Griffith's comics for High Times, The National Lampoon, The San Francisco Examiner and The New Yorker sed & awk Dale Dougherty, Arnold Robbins, 1997-03-01 sed and awk describes two text processing programs that are mainstays of the UNIX programmer's toolbox. sed is a stream editor for editing streams of text that might be too large to edit as a single file or that might be generated on the fly as part of a larger data processing step. The most common operation done with sed is substitution replacing one block of text with another. awk is a complete programming language. Unlike many conventional languages awk is data-driven; you specify what kind of data you are interested in and the operations to be performed when that data is found. awk does many things for you including automatically opening and closing data files, reading records, breaking the records up into fields and counting the records. While awk provides the features of most conventional programming languages it also includes some unconventional features such as extended regular expression matching and associative arrays. sed and awk describes both programs in detail and includes a chapter of example sed and awk scripts. This edition covers features of sed and awk that are mandated by the POSIX standard. This most notably affects awk where POSIX standardized a new variable CONVFMT and new functions toupper and tolower. The CONVFMT variable specifies the conversion format to use when converting numbers to strings. awk used to use OFMT for this purpose. The toupper and tolower functions each take a presumably mixed case string argument and return a new version of the string with all letters translated to the corresponding case. In addition, this edition covers GNU sed, newly available since the first edition. It also updates the first edition coverage of Bell Labs nawk and GNU awk. gawk covers mawk, an additional freely available implementation of awk, and briefly discusses three commercial versions of awk: MKS awk, Thompson Automation awk, tawk, and Videosoft VSAwk Making Your First Feature Film Dominick Bagnato, 2017-08-23 The tools for independent filmmaking are more accessible today than ever Yet there is much more to successfully creating a film than access to equipment and software

Chronicling the making of his debut feature film A Convenient Truth 2015 the author describes the practical preproduction steps needed to take a project from early concept to the first day of photography details most filmmaking guides don't include A scene by scene breakdown describes the transferrable lessons learned during the production and postproduction phases Filmmakers options for what to do after completing their first feature are also covered Aloha Las Vegas Edward Sakamoto, 2000-09-01 Edward Sakamoto is one of Hawai'i's most popular playwrights His skillfully constructed depictions of local life and command of stylized narrative devices have earned him recognition and acclaim both in the Islands and elsewhere in the U.S. The three plays collected here present an expertly dramatized panorama of life in Hawai'i from 1959 to 1994 Aloha Park explores a working class milieu with honesty and humor in this gripping study of a young man stunted by a slum environment at the time of statehood Stew Rice juxtaposing the hopes of the late 1950s with the realities of the late 1970s charts the fortunes of three high school buddies and the consequences of their individual decisions to leave or remain in Hawai'i Aloha Las Vegas centers on a retired baker land rich but cash poor who wrestles with the decision to relocate to Las Vegas in 1994 Sakamoto is quick to challenge easy affirmations and identifications Beneath their feel good humor and celebration of local language and culture the plays have a depth and an unpredictability As Dennis Carroll observes in his Introduction all of them center on the theme of Hawai'i versus the mainland and the challenges of relocation the ambiguities of the definition of home and whether it can ever be recovered or regained and the special qualities of local life that can or cannot be transplanted This theme is relevant to all Americans familiar with the immigrant experience not only those living in Hawai'i A glossary of pidgin words and terms is included Edward Sakamoto's trilogy Hawai'i No Ka Oi is available from Lightning Press Booksellers To order please contact Ingram Book Co P.O.
