Hammer from Above Jay Stout,2009-03-12 In Operation Iraqi Freedom the Marine Corps ground campaign up the Tigris and Euphrates was notable for speed and aggressiveness unparalleled in military history Little has been written however of the air support that guaranteed the drive's success Paving the way for the rush to Baghdad was the hammer from above in the form of attack helicopters jet fighters transport and other support aircraft Now a former Marine fighter pilot shares the gripping never before told stories of the Marines who helped bring to an end the regime of Saddam Hussein As Jay Stout reveals the air war had actually been in the planning stages ever since the victory of Operation Desert Storm twelve years earlier But when Operation Iraqi Freedom officially commenced on March 20 2003 the Marine Corps entered the fight with an aviation arm at its smallest since before World War II Still with the motto Speed Equals Success the separate air and ground units acted as a team to get the job done Drawing on exclusive interviews with the men and women who flew the harrowing missions Hammer from Above reveals how pilots and their machines were tested to the limits of endurance venturing well beyond what they were trained and designed to do Stout takes us into the cockpits revealing what it was like to fly these intense combat operations for up to eighteen hours at a time and to face incredible volumes of fire that literally shredded aircraft in midair during battles like that over An Nasiriyah With its dynamic descriptions of perilous flights and bombing runs Hammer from Above is a worthy tribute to the men and women who flew and maintained the aircraft that so inspired their brothers in arms and terrified the enemy

STUCK ABOVE GROUND Philip Pecoraro, 2023-03-09 Life death and the place that lies between them Is there a fate worse than death Michael Jack Lajoie never expected to be a prisoner inside his own body But after being declared clinically dead following a routine surgical procedure he finds himself trapped between the living world and the hereafter With the ability to blend in among the living he wanders through his previous life searching for clues and finding no answers until contacted While Jack's wife Ellen sleeps inside their home an intruder enters and draws Jack inside The intruder Paul Jennings a coalition member is seeking to find the rest of his experimental group that has gone missing and the person responsible for their condition Dr Phillippe Sixto The doctor who has gone into hiding developed an experimental serum to allow terminally ill patients to continue living absent biological needs until medical science finds a cure The coalition members a select group of elected government officials and entrepreneur billionaires linked to the doctor now seek to find the harvested group at any cost for a secret mission
