From Gospel To Sermon:

Let the Gospels Preach the Gospel Christopher J. H. Wright, 2017-01-14 Preaching about the cross of Christ is one of the greatest privileges and responsibilities any preacher can have. The four Gospel writers who wrote about the cross of Christ and the events leading up to it did so in their own unique way. Each interpreting the events through the lens of different Old Testament Scriptures and each emphasising different themes. Based on his own sermons preached over a number of years at All Souls Church in London Christopher Wright explores the rich variety and lets the four Gospels preach the Gospel in their own way. This is an excellent resource for preachers which is further enriched by the final chapter that provides a personal commentary on how Wright prepared each of the sermons.

Preparing Evangelistic Sermons Ramesh Richard, 2005-10 Ministry leader and evangelist provides readers with a proven do it yourself method for effective evangelistic sermons

Gospel Telling Richard J. Coleman, 2002 When was the last time you took a moment to consider the purpose and effectiveness of your children's sermons? After all nothing is more important than sowing the seeds of faith early in life. In this comprehensive look at all aspects of preaching the gospel to young people Richard Coleman challenges you to examine your approach with a critical eye and gives you plenty of practical guidance for developing simple direct messages that help children form a relationship with Jesus Christ. In the first section of Gospel Telling Coleman discusses what constitutes meaningful children's sermons offering a thoughtful rationale for the idea that we must proclaim the gospel so youngsters experience God's love. You'll learn how you can mine your own experience for inspiration and proclaim gospel stories that flow from your specific circumstances. Then in the second portion of the book you'll see this process at work with over thirty examples illustrating several different types of children's sermons. Whether you're a pastor Christian educator or engaged in the teaching ministry you're sure to profit from the practical advice and in depth reflection in these pages. With Gospel Telling you'll be equipped to share with young people the good news with creativity and theological integrity. Gospel Telling is an enriching book that treats children with the spiritual respect they deserve. Richard Coleman understands the transformative language of children play and metaphor and shows how our weekly children's sermons can reach the heart of the child and not simply the mind of the adult. This is a must have resource for educators and pastors alike. Mickie O'Donnell Executive Director Children's Ministries of America. Richard Coleman understands the core of the biblical message as well as the learning processes of children and puts them together in theory and practice. This is a valuable treatment of a too long neglected topic. Rev Ray Kostulias Pastor First Congregational Church Park Ridge New Jersey Author of Character Witness and I. Witness Richard J. Coleman has served as the teaching minister of a university church the pastor of a small town congregation and the director of an interdenominational inner city Christian center. He has published children's sermons leadership training articles and seasonal devotionals as well as books on the dialogue between science and theology and the dialogue between Evangelicals and Liberals. Coleman is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University and Princeton Theological

Evangelistic Preaching Ozora Stearns Davis, 1921 The Gospel Arc Jeff Hatton, 2021-04-13 We need more than ever to be spoken back to life again Our endless forms of self activation in the church and culture today have proven to do little more than exhaust us make us anxious and ultimately disappoint and depress us Despite our impressive effort preaching has not escaped this prison of self entanglement Snoozing in the pew is now the good ol days as more and more people report a pathological aversion to preaching Perhaps there is a common thread leaving Jesus behind Leaving Jesus behind is the broken pattern of every human heart even the preacher's The Gospel Arc preaching model seeks to take Jesus with you in preaching It is preaching that experiences Jesus with the Bible Practically the Gospel Arc helps biblical communicators discover and display the Textual Jesus from Genesis to Revelation thereby unleashing divine energies to wake up the snoozer and finally electrify the self activator Taking Jesus with you in preaching changes everything Even preachers Can these bones live God probes the preacher Suffering from the inability to maintain a ministry the preacher gives a lame non answer Preach to bones God startles the preacher As he does stranger things happen The bones live Ezek 37 1 14

The Preaching of Jesus William Frank Brosend,2010-01-01 Using the findings of historical Jesus studies William Brosend asks what is the rhetoric that characterized the preaching of Jesus in the Synoptic Gospels and how may today s preaching benefit from it This book for preachers and students of preaching helps the reader see four distinct aspects of the rhetoric of Jesus dialogical preaching in response to challenges and questions proclaimatory making bold and authoritative statements occasionally self referential though less so than in the Fourth Gospel and persistently figurative illustrating his message through metaphor Brosend spends one chapter on each of these methods closing each chapter with a sermon that models that approach and his analysis of it Sample sermons are by well known preachers including Fred Craddock Michael Curry

Tom Long and Barbara Brown Taylor Brosend concludes with the implications for modern preaching and a sermon of his own

Setting Words on Fire Paul Scott Wilson,2010-10-01 In the second half of the twentieth century a profound shift took place in how we think about preaching We moved away from a vertical focus on the preacher who hands down the authoritative teaching to more relational narrative and conversational models Yet common to both of these understandings says Paul Scott Wilson is the idea that preaching is primarily about teaching that it mainly conveys information about God Important as this emphasis on preaching as teaching has been Wilson believes that the time for a new approach has arrived That new approach which he names preaching as proclamation has begun to arise from a variety of Euro American and African American sources Its primary aim is not to convey information but to engender an encounter with God s grace in Christ More than guiding people to say Yes now I understand it hopes to lead them to proclaim I am redeemed we are saved More than telling the gospel story it renders the gospel s claim on human lives leading to conviction of sin repentance and transformation Pulling together the disparate strands of this new homiletical school Wilson constructs a comprehensive introduction to preaching focusing on its character as proclamation of the sovereign grace of God That Gospel Sermon on the Blessed Hope Dwight Lyman Moody,2019-12-09 In That Gospel Sermon on the Blessed Hope Dwight Lyman Moody presents a profound exploration of Christian eschatology emphasizing the hope of eternal life through faith in Christ Moody employs a direct passionate literary style that reflects his deep conviction and charismatic oratory woven with scriptural references to engage his audience The sermon is not merely theological discourse but an impassioned call for spiritual awakening shaped by the revivalist context of the late 19th century a time when America was experiencing significant religious fervor and social change Moody s interpretation of the Blessed Hope serves as both a theological statement and a source of encouragement for believers reinforcing the promise of salvation and eternal life as central tenets of the Christian faith Dwight Lyman Moody an influential evangelist and founder of the Moody Church dedicated his life to spreading the Gospel His experiences working with the urban poor in Chicago and his deep engagement with scripture motivated him to articulate a message of hope during a turbulent era marked by uncertainty and moral crises Moody s direct engagement with audiences made his sermons accessible and transformative encouraging personal reflection and commitment to faith This book is highly recommended for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of Christian hope and eschatology as well as for those interested in the historical context of evangelical preaching Moody s powerful narrative not only conveys theological insights but also inspires readers to embrace the joy and assurance found in the promise of eternal life
