From Humboldt to Kodiak, 1886-1895 Fred Roscoe, 1992 Autobiography of the son of Baptist missionaries and teachers in Kodiak southwest Alaska      Alaska History Marvin W. Falk, 2006-03-30 Marvin W Falk offers a systemic and select listing of just over 3 000 publications on the history of Alaska published from the 18th century to early 2004 Early explorations were conducted by nationals from several nations and the results were published in Russian German French Spanish and English Many of these foreign language accounts have been published in translation and are included in the bibliography This bibliography covers a wide span of Alaskan history including historical literature from Discovery in 1741 The Russian period ending in 1867 The U S territorial period ending with statehood in 1959 The oil boom      Alutiiq Villages Under Russian and U.S. Rule Sonja Luehrmann, 2008 Sonja Luehrmann s volume examines Alutiiq history within the larger context of Russian and American expansionism The author uses source material in both English and Russian in order to create a work focused on the intersection of the two colonial perspectives throwing light on our understanding of the differences in the way each society incorporated the Alutiiq community both as a labor force and a social entity In a series of map essays Luehrmann examines the changing patterns of settlement and demography among the Alutiiq as the population responded to the conditions they encountered economic exploitation new cultural influences intermarriage disease and the eruption of Novarupta The addition of Russian source material fills an important blank in this unique history and makes Alutiiq Villages Under Russian and U S Rule a major resource for anyone working on Alutiiq history or the region s history in the Russian colonial period      Indigenous Cosmopolitans Maximilian Christian Forte, 2010 Timely and original this volume looks at indigenous peoples from the perspective of cosmopolitan theory and at cosmopolitanism from the perspective of the indigenous world In doing so it not only sheds new light on both but also has something important to say about the complexities of identification in this shrinking overheated world Analysing ethnography from around the world the authors demonstrate the universality of the local indigeneity and the particularity of the universal cosmopolitanism Anthropology doesn t get much better than this Thomas Hylland Eriksen Professor of Anthropology University of Oslo Author of Globalisation Book Jacket      Gaining Daylight Sara Loewen, 2013-03-15 For many the idea of living off the land is a romantic notion left to stories of olden days or wistful dreams at the office But for Sara Loewen it becomes her way of life each summer as her family settles into their remote cabin on Uyak Bay for the height of salmon season With this connection to thousands of years of fishing and gathering at its core Gaining Daylight explores what it means to balance lives on two islands living within both an ancient way of life and the modern world Her personal essays integrate natural and island history with her experiences of fishing and family life as well as the challenges of living at the northern edge of the Pacific Loewen s writing is richly descriptive readers can almost feel heat from wood stoves smell smoking salmon and spot the ways the ocean blues change with the season With honesty and humor Loewen easily draws readers into her world sharing the rewards of subsistence living and the peace brought by miles of crisp solitude      Aurora Borealis Art Guillermo, Cora Guillermo, 2014-05-13 The harvest is plenty but the gatherers are few A Filipino American couple proved that a few could yield fruitful result through their unique way of modern day witnessing that is dramatic and practical Their scintillating account in reaching out to compatriots kababayans is gleaned in their descriptive narration and inspiring messages of love that encapsulates their cultural background contemporary events and vision This inspirational historical book provides a pragmatic model of discipleship in reaching ethnic constituencies in America      Alaska History, 1992      Pacific Northwest Quarterly, 1994      America, History and Life, 1997 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada      Alaska Marvin W. Falk, 1995 Even Kluwer with only a sales office in the U S prints CiP in their books A house publishing books for libraries should always display cataloging in publication irresponsible This is another good bibliography in a widely used series Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR      Notes on Russian America: pt.
