From Moldavia to Moldova Nicholas Dima, 1991 An updated to January 1991 edition of the 1982 account of what at last report was Soviet Moldavia since World War II Presents Soviet Romanian and Moldavian views of what country the territory should be or be part of No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Modern Hatreds Stuart J. Kaufman, 2015-06-22 Ethnic conflict has been the driving force of wars all over the world yet it remains an enigma What is it about ethnicity that breaks countries apart and drives people to acts of savage violence against their lifelong neighbors Stuart Kaufman rejects the notion of permanent ancient hatreds as the answer Dissatisfied as well with a purely rationalist explanation he finds the roots of ethnic violence in myths and symbols the stories ethnic groups tell about who they are Ethnic wars Kaufman argues result from the politics of these myths and symbols appeals to flags and faded glories that aim to stir emotions rather than to address interests Popular hostility based on these myths impels groups to follow extremist leaders invoking such emotion laden ethnic symbols If ethnic domination becomes their goal ethnic war is the likely result Kaufman examines contemporary ethnic wars in the Caucasus and southeastern Europe Drawing on information from a variety of sources including visits to the regions and dozens of personal interviews he demonstrates that diplomacy and economic incentives are not enough to prevent or end ethnic wars The key to real conflict resolution is peacebuilding the often overlooked effort by nongovernmental organizations to change hostile attitudes at both the elite and the grassroots levels Europe Since 1945 Bernard A. Cities and Economy in Europe Katalin Szende, Erika Szívós, Boglárka Weisz, 2024-02-29 Exploring new perspectives concerning regions traditionally considered on the margins of Europe this book fills a gap in current historiography through its analysis of cities space and economy from the High Middle Ages to the present Markets trade and economy in general have formed the backbone of urban life ever since the emergence of cities and towns but classical theorists have largely focused on developments in Western Europe Urban research in the last few decades has advanced in many ways to supersede and correct this still influential image and to include other parts of Europe into the analytical framework Building on these emerging methodologies this volume pays close attention to the fringes of Europe in the East North West and South The essays discuss the development of various spaces as nodal points for the exchange and production of commodities that took place in cities and towns The scope of this work allows for a point of comparison to frequently studied examples in Europe encouraging readers to identify larger patterns beyond individual examples Cities and Economy in Europe Markets and Trade on the Margins from the Middle Ages to the Present is the perfect resource for students and researchers of economic and urban history
