The British Friend ,1846 British Intelligence, Strategy and the Cold War, 1945-51 Richard J. Aldrich,2005-08-12 The Cold War is often considered to be the quintessential intelligence conflict Yet secret intelligence remains the missing dimension of Britain s Cold War history This volume offers an authoritative picture of Britain s clandestine role in the development of the Cold War focusing upon the key issues of intelligence and strategy A Spy Among Friends Ben Macintyre,2014-01-01 From bestselling author Ben Macintyre the true untold story of history s most famous traitor The A to Z of British Intelligence Nigel West,2009-09-02 The A to Z of British Intelligence offers insight into the history and operations of British Intelligence through its more than 1 800 entries covering a vast and varied cast of characters the spies and their handlers the moles and defectors the political leaders the top brass the techniques and jargon and the many different offices and organizations Covered also are the agencies leading individuals and prominent personalities operations including double agent and deception campaigns and events using the most up to date declassified material but written in a style for the professional and general reader alike This text features 16 black and white photographs an extensive chronology and a comprehensive bibliography Encyclopedia of Cold War Espionage, Spies, and Secret Operations Richard Trahair,2012-01-10 The only comprehensive and up to date book of its kind with the latest information Summary of Ben Macintyre's A Spy Among Friends Milkyway Media,2024-02-06 Get the Summary of Ben Macintyre s A Spy Among Friends in 20 minutes Please note This is a summary not the original book A Spy Among Friends chronicles the intertwined lives of British intelligence officers Nicholas Elliott and Kim Philby the latter a notorious double agent for the Soviet Union Elliott from a privileged background joined MI6 and developed a close bond with Philby who was also recruited into British intelligence despite his hidden communist sympathies Philby s charm and social connections allowed him to rise within MI6 all while betraying secrets to the Soviets Classified! Nigel West,2024-02-29 Over the past fifty years Nigel West has been involved in almost every espionage related investigation breakthrough or revelation that you can think of His molehunts have led to the unmasking of spies within MI5 MI6 and the CIA and the identification of numerous others some of whom were crucial to the Allied victory in the Second World War and would have died without any public recognition if not for him His first encounter with the intelligence community was a lecture given at his school by John le Carr the guest of a Benedictine monk who had recently retired from MI6 Later West worked as a researcher for SOE agent Ronnie Seth who was sentenced to death by the Nazis after being captured during Operation blunderhead and exposed two of the Cambridge spies recruited by Anthony Blunt For the fortieth anniversary of the D Day landings West traced the double agent codenamed garbo and brought him to London so he could be decorated at Buckingham Palace As action packed as the lives of the spies he has written about this is the story of the most enthralling and significant post war intelligence revelations as told by Britain s most authoritative writer on espionage and the secret services At Her Majestys Secret Service Nigel West,2016-06-30

In August 1909 a kindly balding figure named Mansfield Smith Cumming was summoned to London by Admiral Alexander Bethell Director of Naval Intelligence He was to assume the inaugural position of Chief more famously known as C of what has become Cold War Counterfeit Spies Nigel West,2016-10-14 The Cold War with its air of mutual fear and distrust and the shadowy world of spies and secret agents gave publishers the chance to produce countless stories of espionage treachery and deception What Nigel West has discovered is that the most egregious deceptions were in fact the stories themselves In this remarkable investigation into the claims of many who portrayed themselves as key players in clandestine operations the author has exposed a catalogue of misrepresentations and falsehoods Did Greville Wynne really exfiltrate a GRU defector from Odessa Was the frogman Buster Crabb abducted during a mission in Portsmouth Harbour Did the KGB run a close guarded training facility as described by J Bernard Hutton in School for Spies which was modelled on a typical town in the American mid west so agents could be acclimatised to a non Soviet environment With the help of witnesses with first hand experience and recently declassified documents Nigel West answers these and other fascinating questions from a time when secrecy and suspicion allowed the truth to be concealed Operation Lena and Hitler's Plots to Blow Up Britain Bernard O'Connor,2017-11-15 The wartime story of how the Nazi Germany s sent saboteurs from 1938 onwards to launch acts of terror on the street of England and amazingly employed collaborators from the IRA and attempted to use Scottish and Welsh nationalists Historical Dictionary of Ian Fleming's World of Intelligence Nigel West,2009-11-09 Twelve novels and nine short stories define one of the most extraordinary fictional characters of all time creating the basis for the most successful movie series in cinematographic history watched by more than half the world s population The single person probably more responsible than any other for glamorizing the murky world of espionage is Ian Fleming the creator of James Bond who himself lived a remarkable double life of spy and writer Everyone has an opinion on why 007 became so successful but one possible explanation is the ingenious formula of fact fiction and sheer fantasy Certainly the author drew on friends and places he knew well to provide the backdrop for his drama but what proportion of his output is authentic and what comes directly from the author s imagination These questions and more are examined in the Historical Dictionary of Ian Fleming's World of Intelligence Fact and Fiction This is done through a chronology an introduction a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actual cases of espionage real life spies MI5 SIS CIA KGB and others It also contains entries on Ian Fleming s novels and short stories family and friends his employers and colleagues and other notable characters Clandestine Lives of Colonel David Smiley Clive Jones,2019-05-21 Drawing on extensive interviews and archival research this biography uncovers the motivations and ideals that informed Smiley s commitment to covert action and intelligence during the Second World War and early part of the Cold War often among tribally based societies With particular reference to operations in Albania Oman and Yemen it addresses the wider issues of accountability and control of clandestine operations Double Agent Victoire David Tremain,2018-06-11 Mathilde Carr notoriously known as La Chatte was remarkable for all the wrong reasons Like most spies she was temperamental scheming and manipulative but she was also treacherous A dangerous mix especially when combined with her infamous history of love affairs on both sides Her acts of treachery were almost unprecedented in the history of intelligence yet her involvement in the Interalli affair has only warranted a brief mention in the accounts of special operations in France during the Second World War But what motivated her to betray more than 100 members of the Interalli network the largest spy network in France Was she the only guilty party or were others equally as culpable Drawing on material from MI5 files Double Agent Victoire explores the events that led to her betrayal who may have cast the first stone and their motivations as well as how the lives and careers of those involved were affected It reveals a story full of intrigue sex betrayal and double dealing involving a rich cast including members of the French Resistance German Abwehr and British Intelligence Encyclopedia of Cold War Espionage, Spies, and Secret Operations R. C. S. Trahair, Robert L. Miller, 2013-10-18 The only updated Cold War spy encyclopedia in print

MI6 and the Machinery of Spying Philip Davies, 2004-06 Philip H J Davies is one of a growing number of British academic scholars of intelligence but the only academic to approach the subject in terms of political science rather than history He wrote his PhD at the University of Reading on the topic Organisational Development of Britain's Secret Intelligence Service 1909-1979 and has published extensively on intelligence and defence issues After completing his PhD he taught for a year and a half on the University of London external degree programme in Singapore before returning to the UK to lecture at the University of Reading for two years He was formerly Associate Professor of International and Security Studies at the University of Malaya in Malaysia where he not only conducted his research but provided a range of training and consultancy services to the Malaysian intelligence and foreign services He is now based at Brunel University UK The British Friend of India Magazine, and Indian Review, The Muslim Brotherhood and the West Martyn Frampton, 2018-02-19 Drawing on the Muslim Brotherhood's Arabic and English writings and on archival research in London and Washington Martyn Frampton provides the first comprehensive history of the charged relationship between the world's largest Islamist movement and the Western powers that have dominated the Middle East for a century Britain and the United States A Narrative of the March and Operations of the Army of the Indus, in the Expedition to Afghanistan in the Years 1838-1839 William Hough, 1841 The Story of Rena Stewart Victoria Walsh, 2025-07-12 Soldier journalist and centenarian a triple badge of honour especially for a woman Introducing Rena Stewart 1923-2023 a remarkable 100 year old Bletchley Park Girl who translated Hitler's will and blazed a trail for women at the BBC The Story of Rena Stewart narrates Rena's fascinating tale in her own words and is a testament to a life that was seriously well lived On graduating from St Andrews University in 1943 Scottish linguist Rena and her friend Agnes decided to do something about the war They signed up for the Auxiliary Territorial Service and were posted to Bletchley Park where Rena processed secret German messages At the end of the war Rena and her Bletchley chums were sent to Germany to translate the statements of captured Nazi officers

There she and another friend Margery were also given a top secret task to translate Hitler's personal will. Career woman Rena had however always wanted to work in the media. On her return to England she managed to secure a position as a lowly clerk at the BBC World Service. She worked her way up from there including spending ten years listening in to Russian Cold War broadcasts. Finally she became the first female Senior Duty Editor in the World Service newsroom. My greatest achievement she declared with pride has been getting people to recognise that a woman can be as good a journalist as a man. Alongside Rena's story this book delves into the lives of her closest Bletchley friends and uncovers intriguing historical mysteries from her remarkable century of life.

Palestine Investigated Eldad Harouvi, 2016-08-08. This book tells the story of the Criminal Investigation Department (CID) of the Palestine Police Force (PPF) in the historical context which impacted the CID's missions, methods and composition. At first the CID was engaged in providing technical assistance for criminal investigation. Following the PPF's poor performance in the Arab Revolt in 1929 a commission of inquiry headed by Sir Herbert Dowbiggin recommended adding intelligence gathering and surveillance of political elements to police functions. Teams were set up and a Special Branch established. From 1932 the CID deployed a network of live sources among the Arabs and issued intelligence summaries evaluating Arab and Jewish political activity. Post 1935 the security situation deteriorated. Arab policemen and officials joined the Arab side thus drying up sources of information. The British therefore asked for assistance from the Jewish population. In 1937 Sir Charles Tegart recommended that the CID invest in obtaining raw intelligence by direct contacts in the field. In 1938 Arthur Giles took command and targeted both the Revisionist and Yishuv movements. Although the CID did not succeed in obtaining sufficient tactical information to prevent Yishuv actions, Giles identified the mood of the Jewish leadership and public, an important intelligence accomplishment regarding Britain's attitude towards the Palestine question. But British impotence in the field was manifested by the failure to prevent the bombing of the King David Hotel in Jerusalem. Towards the end of the Mandate as civil war broke out following the UN General Assembly resolution of November 1947, the CID was primarily engaged in documenting events and providing evaluations to London whose decision makers put high value on CID intelligence as they formulated political responses. With Forewords by Professor Yoav Gelber, University of Haifa and Professor John Ferris, University of Calgary.
