whose quirky comic experiments influenced decades of television from Laugh In to Late Night A true pioneer of television Ernie Kovacs entertained audiences throughout the 1950s and early 1960s with his zany irreverent and surprising humor and also inspired a host of later comedies and comedians including Monty Python David Letterman much of Saturday Night Live

Rowan and Martin's Laugh In, Captain Kangaroo and even Sesame Street. Kovacs created laughter through wildly creative comic jokes, playful characterizations, hilarious insights and wacky experiments. Nothing in moderation is his motto and epitaph sums up well Kovacs's wholehearted approach to comedy and life. In this book, Andrew Horton offers the first sustained look at Ernie Kovacs's wide-ranging and lasting contributions to the development of TV comedy. He discusses in detail Kovacs's work in New York which included The Ernie Kovacs Show CBS prime time 1952-1953, The Ernie Kovacs Show NBC daytime variety 1956-1957, Tonight NBC late night comedy variety 1956-1957 and a number of quiz shows. Horton also looks at Kovacs's work in Los Angeles and in feature film comedy. He vividly describes how Kovacs and his comic co-conspirators created offbeat characters and situations that subverted expectations and upended the status quo. Most of all, Horton demonstrates that Kovacs grasped the possibility for creating a fresh genre of comedy through the new medium of television and exploited it to the fullest.

Straight A's College Cookbook Karen Wokes, 2004      Between the Lines Emmanuel

Thomas, 2015-12-04. The book contains essays on simple but perplexing questions that we come across as we go about living our lives. How do we react to a situation when we fail to practice what we preach? Why do we occasionally feel joy in the misfortune of others and then feel guilty about it? Is religion a difficult proposition in the modern world? We are shaken when heroes worshipped by many as role models get convicted on crimes done in secret. The book makes an attempt to search for answers to such questions by going through authoritative sources of research done by eminent scholars with the intention to disseminate such thoughts to those who are assailed by similar questions and help them to come to their own conclusions. The book has parts consisting of musings, reminiscences, satire and short stories conveying messages that are considered important as we face problems in our daily existence.
