

“The Adolescent Brain VS. the Adult”

Frontal Lobe is the part of our brain that controls impulse, emotion, judgment and empathy in an adult like fashion. Limbic system controls impulse, sexual behavior, emotion and risk/reward. There is a temporary imbalance in the rate of development of the two systems in the adolescent brain which causes a challenge when it comes to making the right decision. Teens and adults possess the same capacity to see between right and wrong, but teens have trouble making the correct decision in the moment.

Teens think with the amygdala, the emotional part of the limbic system

The emotional center of the brain and decision-making part are developing at different rates, leading to more emotions and less thinking when making decisions

Teens are more likely to Be impulsive,

quick-tempered,
unpredictable, flaky,
emotional, self-destructive,
mischievous, irritable,
troublesome

Adults think with the prefrontal
cortex

Leading to rational decision making and being aware of consequences

From Adolescent To Adult:

From Adolescence to Adulthood in the Vietnam Era Timothy J. Owens, 2008-01-08 Children born during the post WWII era of peace and prosperity entered history at a time dominated by I Like Ike politics and domestic security As they approached adolescence however their world was shaken by major cultural economic social and political upheaval And although it was time of great innovation and progress a sense of chaos and bitterness began to envelop the country It was the 60s For many Americans a mere mention of this decade evokes an extraordinary time and place in the country s and their own history Adolescents who had been enjoying the technological and medical advances of the era television drive in movies rock and roll vaccinations that prevented once incurable diseases now were also experiencing the fallout from the Civil Rights Movement domestic terrorism stagflation and perhaps most significant the Vietnam War From Adolescence to Adulthood in the Vietnam Era provides a unique detailed long term study of the psychological and social worlds of male adolescents who were on the cusp of adulthood as the 1960s were ending This longitudinal analysis follows adolescent boys who graduated with the class of 1969 and transitioned into adulthood either through military service full time employment or college life The results examine the different pathways these boys chose and the affect these choices had on their transition from adolescents to young adult men

From Adolescent to Adult Percival Mallon Symonds, 1961 Presents a follow up study of twenty eight subjects originally studied as adolescents thirteen year earlier to rate the subjects on forty graphic rating scales from new testing and interviews

Socioemotional Development and Health from Adolescence to Adulthood Lea Pulkkinen, Jaakko Kaprio, Richard J. Rose, 2006-08-16 This 2006 book reports results from two major research studies of behavior development from adolescence into adulthood The studies seek to identify predictors of adult outcomes from individual differences in children s behavior as rated by the children themselves their parents teachers and peers and from characteristic differences in families

Development from Adolescence to Early Adulthood Marion Kloep, Leo Hendry, Rachel Taylor, Ian Stuart-Hamilton, 2015-06-26 Traditionally the subject of adolescent development has been explored using a stage based approach often with an emphasis on the potential risks and problems of adolescence Taking a different approach in this book the authors draw upon a wealth of research to examine the period of development from adolescence to adulthood from a dynamic systems perspective investigating multi faceted multi variable explanations surrounding the transitions and consequent transformations that occur in young peoples lives as they change from teenagers to young adults The book considers the social institutions interactions contexts and relationships that influence each other and young people during developmental transitions Topics covered include dynamic systems theory in developmental and social psychology adolescents in social contexts compliments lies and other social skills school university and labour market transition adolescent health in a lifespan context family dynamics Development from Adolescence to Early Adulthood will be key reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the field of developmental psychology as well as clinicians and policy makers working with young people Transition from Pediatric to Adult Healthcare Services for Adolescents and Young Adults with Long-term Conditions Cecily L. Betz,Imelda T. Coyne,2019-11-30 This book offers essential information on interventions and actions that enable and promote transition experiences for adolescents and young adults It provides guidance on appropriate strategies that bring together these groups and caregivers in the context of transition preparation and those which optimize adolescents and young adults ability to self manage their healthcare The health care transition for adolescents and young adults has gained more attention given the improved survival rates including for those with long term conditions It is now estimated that more than 90% of children diagnosed with a long term condition will survive into adulthood The significant change in survival requires concomitant services to facilitate adolescents and young adults successful transition to adult health care therefore providers need education knowledge and skills to support healthcare transition services A recent US national survey demonstrated only 10% of parents caregivers reported that their children received transition preparation services This book is targeted at nurses and pediatric and adult health care providers of different disciplines seeking guidance on which interventions are available how they can be used advantages and challenges and how best to promote a seamless transition for all adolescents and young adults with long term conditions It provides several examples of transition programmes and initiatives worldwide There is an increasing focus on how nurses can support transition but little guidance on what is effective and what has been tried This book will fill a gap by addressing all of these issues outlined above and by providing worked examples from leading nurse researchers and academics worldwide
