the boundaries of folklore literature anthropology and Latin American studies It is one of the very few studies to offer an overview of the changes taking place in Amazonia through the eyes of ordinary people This book is a rich collection of stories about the transformation of dolphins in the city of enchantment The joy in this book is not just its vibrant analysis and careful relating of tradition and lore but also its uncanny accurateness in capturing the very essence of Amazonia Darrell Posey Journal of Latin American Studies Slater s fluid prose reads like a novel for those interested in Amazonian culture and folklore while her integrated approach makes this a must read for those interested in innovative methodology Lisa Gabbert Western Folklore Kuna Art and Shamanism Paolo Fortis, 2013-01-02 Known for their beautiful textile art the Kuna of Panama have been scrutinized by anthropologists for decades Perhaps surprisingly this scrutiny has overlooked the magnificent Kuna craft of nuchukana wooden anthropomorphic carvings which play vital roles in curing and other Kuna rituals Drawing on long term fieldwork Paolo Fortis at last brings to light this crucial cultural facet illuminating not only Kuna aesthetics and art production but also their relation to wider social and cosmological concerns Exploring an art form that informs birth and death personhood the dream world the natural world religion gender roles and ecology Kuna Art and Shamanism provides a rich understanding of this society s visual system and the ways in which these groundbreaking ethnographic findings can enhance Amerindian scholarship overall Fortis also explores the fact that to ask what it means for the Kuna people to carve the figure of a person is to pose a riddle about the culture s complete concept of knowing Also incorporating notions of landscape islands gardens and ancient trees as well as cycles of life including the influence of illness Fortis places the statues at the center of a network of social relationships that entangle people with nonhuman entities As an activity carried out by skilled elderly men who possess embodied knowledge of lifelong transformations the carving process is one that mediates mortal worlds with those of immortal primordial spirits Kuna Art and Shamanism immerses readers in this sense of unity and opposition between soul and body internal forms and external appearances and image and design

Anthropology, Colonial Policy and the Decline of French Empire in Africa Douglas W. Leonard, 2019-12-26 Conceived as both a vehicle to national prestige and as a civilizing mission the second French colonial empire 1830 1962 challenged soldiers scholars and administrators to understand societies radically different from their own The resultant networks of anthropological inquiry however did not have this effect Rather they opened pathways to political and intellectual independence framed in the language of social science and in the process upended the colonial political system and reshaped the nature of human inquiry in France While still unequal French colonial rule in Africa revealed the durability and strength of non European modes of thought In this influential new study historian Douglas W Leonard examines the political and intellectual repercussions of French efforts to understand and to dominate colonial Africa through the use of anthropology From General Louis Faidherbe in the 1840s to politician Jacques Soustelle and sociologist Pierre Bourdieu in the 1950s these French thinkers sowed the seeds of colonial destruction Bathing - the Body and Community Care Julia

Dialogicality in Development Ingrid E. Josephs,2003-09-30 The crucial nature of developmental theory is the question of relationship between cultural and personal facets of human development Dialogue is a useful concept to specify this relationship from a process oriented perspective In its broadest sense the notion of dialogue entails the interaction between at least two entities persons meanings perspectives out of which novelty can but need not emerge Thus dialogic models are open for developmental questions These issues are examined in this the first volume in which the increasingly popular metaphor of dialogue is systematically applied to developmental issues Dialogue is a multilevel concept and can be understood 1 as a real exchange between two interacting persons 2 as the interaction between culture at large e g stories and narratives and the interacting developing person and 3 as a metaphor for developmental processes in general In the first part of this international volume the concept of dialogue is elaborated by researchers from different disciplines The focus of the second section is on dialogic models in the area of self development The third deals with the dialogical co development of person and culture
