50 Ways to Raise $1,000 Gwen Green, 2020-08-13 WHY SHOULD YOU READ THIS BOOK You should read this book because it is worth at least 50 000 As a fundraiser I'm sure you'll have come across many lists of fundraising ideas online and some you'll have been able to put into action Where this book takes a different approach is that not only does it provide a great list of fundraising ideas that most people could do it also explains very clearly what you'll need to do to scale that fundraising idea to raise at least 1 000 This includes ticket pricing target audience number of people you need to engage etc In addition the 50 fundraising ideas have been split into 10 categories based on where these ideas are likely to be most successful e.g. in the workplace in the community or online I caveat that several ideas could work across different categories I have never met a fundraiser who thought they had plenty of time on their hands especially not our wonderful volunteer fundraisers who are also juggling jobs family and other life commitments As such this book provides inspiration for great fundraising ideas that can bring in a substantial amount of money in one hit If you are passionate about fundraising for your local community school church sports club animal shelter or hospice etc but feel a bit guilty because you'd also like to spend more time with your family friends traveling enjoying your hobbies or if like me you'd just like to spend more time sleeping then this is the book for you WHY I WROTE THIS BOOK I have been a fundraiser for as long as I can remember before I even knew what it meant My earliest fundraising memory is from the age of about 6 when my task was to stuff as many items into a standard sized matchbox and get people to sponsor me to do so Great fun for a 6 year old and impressive targeting for a very well known children's charity From school fundraising activities to fundraising for the local church roof I was always at the center of something fundraising related In my early 20's I decided to raise funds for a disability charity that had supported my family the challenge was to raise 2500 and hike 100 km across the Sinai Peninsula in Egypt Waking up one morning in the desert slightly sunburnt unwashed for days and sand in all the wrong places I decided fundraising was the life for me For the last twenty years I have worked as a professional fundraiser and worked my way from a fundraising administrator to a charity CEO What has always struck me during this time is the power of community and the dedication of individuals just like you who take time out of their busy lives to raise funds for causes they believe in From building sports halls and fixing church roofs to providing shelter and care for the vulnerable the compassion and dedication of our local communities are the backbones of fundraising worldwide I wrote this book to say thank you and to provide you not only with some great fundraising ideas but also practical advice as to what you need to do to scale those ideas to raise 1 000 from each
