Jones, Wendy Oliver, 2022-02-01 National Dance Education Organization Ruth Lovell Murray Book Award UNCG Susan W Stinson Book Award for Dance Education Strategies for recovering the Africanist roots of jazz dance in teaching and practice An African American art form jazz dance has an inaccurate historical narrative that often sets Euro American aesthetics and values at the inception of the jazz dance genealogy The roots were systemically erased and remain widely marginalized and untaught and the devaluation of its Africanist origins and lineage has largely gone unchallenged Decolonizing contemporary jazz dance practice this book examines the state of jazz dance theory pedagogy and choreography in the twenty first century recovering and affirming the lifeblood of jazz in Africanist aesthetics and Black American culture Rooted Jazz Dance brings together jazz dance scholars practitioners choreographers and educators from across the United States and Canada with the goal of changing the course of practice in future generations Contributors delve into the Africanist elements within jazz dance and discuss the role of Whiteness including Eurocentric technique and ideology in marginalizing African American vernacular dance which has resulted in the prominence of Eurocentric jazz styles and the systemic erosion of the roots These chapters offer strategies for teaching rooted jazz dance examples for changing dance curricula and artist perspectives on choreographing and performing jazz Above all they emphasize the importance of centering Africanist and African American principles aesthetics and values Arguing that the history of jazz dance is closely tied to the history of racism in the United States these essays challenge a century of misappropriation and lean into difficult conversations of reparations for jazz dance This volume overcomes a major roadblock to racial justice in the dance field by amplifying the people and culture responsible for the jazz language Contributors LaTasha Barnes Lindsay Guarino Natasha Powell Carlos R A Jones Rubim de Toledo Kim Fuller Wendy Oliver Joanne Baker Karen Clemente Vicki Adams Willis Julie Kerr Berry Pat Taylor Cory Bowles Melanie George Paula J Peters Patricia Cohen Brandi Coleman Kimberley Cooper Monique Marie Haley Jamie Freeman Cormack Adrienne Hawkins Karen Hubbard Lynnette Young Overby Jessie Metcalf McCullough E Moncell Durden Publication of this work made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

Human Experience John Russon, 2010-03-29 Co winner of the 2005 Biennial Book Prize for the best philosophy book published in English presented by the Canadian Philosophical Association John Russon's Human Experience draws on central concepts of contemporary European philosophy to develop a novel analysis of the human psyche Beginning with a study of the nature of perception embodiment and memory Russon investigates the formation of personality through family and social experience He focuses on the importance of the feedback we receive from others regarding our fundamental worth as persons and on the way this interpersonal process embeds meaning into our most basic bodily practices eating sleeping sex and so on Russon concludes with an original interpretation of neurosis as the habits of bodily practice developed in family interactions that have become the foundation for developed interpersonal life and proposes a theory of psychological therapy as the development of philosophical insight that responds to these neurotic compulsions

Narratives and Reflections in Music Education Tawnya D. Smith, Karin S. Hendricks, 2020-02-03 This volume offers chapters written by some of the most respected narrative and qualitative inquiry writers in the field of music education The authorship and scope are international and the chapters advance the philosophical theoretical and methodological bases of narrative inquiry in music education and the arts The book contains two sections each with a specific aim The first is to continue and expand upon dialogue regarding narrative inquiry in music education emphasizing how narrative involves the art of listening to and hearing others whose voices are often unheard The chapters invite music teachers and scholars to experience and confront music education stories from multiple perspectives and worldviews inviting an international readership to engage in critical dialogue with and about marginalized voices in music The second section focuses on ways in which narrative might be represented beyond the printed page such as with music film photography and performative pieces This section includes philosophical discussions about arts based and aesthetic inquiry as well as examples of such work
