Future For Women In Development:

The Future for Women in Development, 1990 Women in Development United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations, 1984 The Future of Women's Rights Joanna Kerr, Ellen Sprenger, Alison Symington, 2004-09 The Future of Women's Rights identifies the emergence of various trends threatening the advance of gender equality women's human rights and sustainable human development These phenomena include the impacts of globalization and neoliberal economics developments in biotechnology the neo conservative backlash against women's rights monopolistic ownership patterns over information technologies the rise of identity politics marginalizing women's issues and the increase in violent conflict and war The contributors to this volume are united in seeing a pressing need for women's movements to evaluate their methods with a view to making their future political work more effective They identify current issues and trends in the world thinking through how these may impact women and the work of women's movements Their Future Michael Gubser, 2025-05-27 A compelling examination of how economic development projects ignore local history and the effects of this shortsightedness Foreign aid planners rarely consider the history of the societies in which they work an oversight noted in the development literature but rarely examined Aid programs costing billions of dollars operate largely in a historical vacuum divorced from the knowledge of what succeeded or failed in the past Michael Gubser chronicles the varieties of ahistoricism in international development theory and practice since 1945 He traces the history of development ideas analyzing key theoretical and policy statements to highlight the marginalization of history in favor of technical solutions to economic and social problems and he examines aid programs in several developing countries to show how Western models of social and economic development have been applied and misapplied Future of Labour - Future of Women? Gerhard Engelbrech, Maria Jungkunst, 2000 Future Directions in Social Development James Midgley, Manohar Pawar, 2016-11-25 This book invites readers to think about future directions in social development The book succinctly presents the historical context and progress of social development By reflecting on the Millennium and Sustainable Development Goals it discusses the increasing global relevance of several critical themes and issues such as human rights and good governance participation peace gender environment religion and spirituality aging social protection and partnership It appreciates the importance of goals and targets but calls to look beyond them to visualise future directions in social development The book argues that values driven social development needs to focus on knowledge creation dissemination and training draw on multidisciplinary knowledge and professionals promote conscientious consumption create less unequal societies and engage in innovation that brings happiness to everyone Elise Boulding: A Pioneer in Peace Research, Peacemaking, Feminism, Future Studies and the Family J. Russell Boulding, 2016-11-02 This series of four volumes honors the lifetime achievements of the distinguished activist and scholar Elise Boulding 1920 2010 on the occasion of her 95th birthday This first anthology documents the breadth of Elise Boulding's contributions to Peace Research Peacemaking Feminism Future Studies and

Sociology of the Family Known as the matriarch of the twentieth century peace research movement she made significant contributions in the fields of peace education future studies feminism and sociology of the family and as a prominent leader in the peace movement and the Society of Friends Banking on the Future of Asia and the Pacific Peter

McCawley, 2017-07-01 This book is a history of the Asian Development Bank ADB a multilateral development bank established 50 years ago to serve Asia and the Pacific Focusing on the region's economic development the evolution of the international development agenda and the story of ADB itself this book raises several key questions What are the outstanding features of regional development to which ADB had to respond How has the bank grown and evolved in changing circumstances How did ADB's successive leaders promote reforms while preserving continuity with the efforts of their predecessors ADB has played an important role in the transformation of Asia and the Pacific over the past 50 years As ADB continues to evolve and adapt to the region's changing development landscape the experiences highlighted in this book can provide valuable insight on how best to serve Asia and the Pacific in the future China's Development and the Development in the Middle East and North Africa Jabbar, 2021-11-01 Broadly speaking we can view women and development as the empowerment of women in a Third World context Accordingly the question is whether women in the Middle East and North Africa benefit from development If so in what ways do they benefit The essays in this volume survey a number of countries in the region to address these questions The countries include Afghanistan Palestine Israel Iran Algeria Iraq Saudi Arabia Morocco and Egypt There is also an introduction to the volume and a general essay on women and development The authors themselves are an international group of social scientists specializing in the region Future

Visions of Urban Public Housing (Routledge Revivals) Wolfgang F. E. Preisner, David P. Varady, Francis P.

Russell, 2017-08-03 First published in 1994 this book brings together the papers presented at the International Forum on Future Visions of Urban Public Housing held on November 17-20 1994 in Cincinnati Ohio Participants included public housing officials academics practitioners and public housing residents who came together to debate compare and analyse practices and issues in urban and public housing in industrialised nations The 55 collected papers address the following key topics public housing policy comprehensive neighbourhood planning for public housing public housing in the urban design context quality of design standards and guidelines for public housing resident participation and enhanced self sufficiency in public housing public housing alternatives revitalising and rehabilitating public housing the Elderly Children and special populations in public housing The findings suggest new directions for policy and agendas for action Future Transitions in the Mining Industry Tuija Mononen,Lasse Peltonen,2025-10-09 This volume focuses on mining and the challenges for this industry as it transitions and evolves as the demand for products and responsible and sustainable mining ever increases Mining is a prerequisite for modern society yet the industry is often criticized for having many negative environmental and social impacts The volume explores the challenges controversies and responses that arise when a society is reliant on the products of mining to maintain their standard of living yet are simultaneously calling for the implementation of sustainable practices with many communities also being resistant to mining activities taking place in their own location Many transitions which present a solution to one problem can often lead to new issues and developments elsewhere For example the electrification of vehicles will help to mitigate climate change but this will simultaneously increase the demand for minerals required for batteries The acceptance of or resistance to mining varies from location to location and across different scales with key factors relating to the social and environmental impacts and the economic benefits One common tension revolves around whether local communities really benefit economically from mining activities and even if they do they could now be negatively impacted by the digitization of the industry which will naturally lead to a reduction in the number of jobs This volume explains how transitions of these types are inextricably linked by demand acceptance and the perception of benefits and that as the industry evolves more tensions and controversies will develop This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of mining and the extractive industries transitions and sustainable development as well as to professionals working in natural resource management The Foundation and Future of Feminist Therapy Marcia Hill,Mary Ballou,2013-04-03 Explore the obstacles and challenges involved in bringing feminist values and techniques into mainstream therapy Feminist therapy has been challenging mainstream therapy thinking and practice for the past thirty years The Foundation and Future of Feminist Therapy is the first book to provide a summary and compilation of that history It describes the work of the major contributors early and recent and gives a terrific overview of the rich and radical development of feminist therapy from a variety of perspectives The Foundation and Future of Feminist Therapy honors the work of women such as Laura Brown Iris Fodor Miriam Greenspan Hannah Lerman and Lenore Walker who developed and who continue to develop feminist therapy theory and practice This book breaks new ground by envisioning a feminist informed future in the areas of therapy practice the education of therapists and community It also provides an unflinching look at the challenges and threats to developing that future and offers suggestions for action The Foundation and Future of Feminist Therapy includes the work of past and present contributors to feminist theory on topics such as the complex intertwining of gender and other oppressions the impact of race and ethnicity the effects of sexual orientation age class disability and refugee and immigrant status discussions about violence against women feminist theory from a wide range of perspectives from relational cultural to multicultural theory perspectives on trauma the discussions at a conference that imagined a future informed by feminist principles and much more For those interested in feminist therapy theory The Foundation and Future of Feminist Therapy is an excellent starting point and many references are provided for readers who want to pursue specific topics further This book will interest practicing therapists at all levels including psychologists counselors and social workers It is also appropriate as a textbook for women s studies psychology of women counseling psychology and social work classes

The Future has an Ancient Heart Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum, 2012-08 Feminist cultural historian Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum caps her previous work with The Future has an Ancient Heart a scholarly study of the transformative legacy of African origins and values of caring sharing healing and vision carried by African migrants throughout the world Birnbaum focuses on the long endurance of these values from the first human communities in south and central Africa ones that Africans manifested in the region of the African mediterranean landmass that later separated Africa from Europe and Asia when the ice melted and waters rose These migrants reached every continent and later became spiritual as well as geographical migrations back to Africa from ancient times to the transformative present Using the same methods as her teaching Birnbaum employs a mutual learning process in her work to help us think about our own ancestral story adding to the wisdom we need to surmount contemporary crises and give us the energy to help bring a more equal and just world into being Her methodologies are grounded on empirical techniques of science and the social sciences and yet leave openings for the liminal knowledge that resides underneath and beyond boundaries of established religions secular ideologies and conventional science A true work of transformation The Future has an Ancient Heart opens the door to new possibilities within our world

The Future of Asian Feminisms Nursyahbani Katjasungkana, Saskia E. Wieringa, 2011-10-18 This book on the future of Asian feminisms confronting fundamentalisms conflicts and neo liberalism is a critical contribution to the rising voices of Asian women s studies scholars and activists It is based on the ongoing research and advocacy work of the Kartini Asia Network founded in 2003 in Manila The five overlapping themes of the network are women gender studies fundamentalisms conflicts livelihood and sexuality Considering that the economic and political weight of the region is growing fast and that the 21st century has been named the Asian century Asia is increasingly recognised as the continent to which economic if not political power will shift in the coming decades The chapters brought together in this volume demonstrate the great diversity of the transversal cultural flow that women s movements within Asia provide Members of the Kartini network stimulate the articulation of a particular Asian voice in women s studies and in the global women s movement Considering the existing patriarchal structures all over the continent a continuum of oppressions enfolds from the global sphere of market exchange to emerging fundamentalisms and to bitter conflicts and struggles around sexualities The present volume provides elements for the critical dialogues that are needed between women in the region between women and men between people in all sorts of strategic positions and between theoreticians in the Global South and the Global North to create a world in which human dignity is not eroded by predatory economic processes and in which democracy diversity pluralism and inclusivity are the guiding principles of governance Women, Development, and Communities for Empowerment in Appalachia Virginia Rinaldo Seitz, 1995-01-01 An examination of the class and gender conditions of working class women in the coal mining fields reveals how they struggled for development and change and how the struggle sometimes lead to empowerment Perspectives on Women's Higher Education Leadership from around the World Karen Jones, Arta Ante, Karen A.
