Friends And Lovers Uab:

The UAB Marcel Proust Symposium William C. Carter,1989 Doc Frank Adams,Burgin Mathews,2012-09-04
Autobiography of jazz elder statesman Frank Doc Adams highlighting his role in Birmingham Alabama s historic jazz scene and tracing his personal adventure that parallels in many ways the story and spirit of jazz itself Doc tells the story of an accomplished jazz master from his musical apprenticeship under John T Fess Whatley and his time touring with Sun Ra and Duke Ellington to his own inspiring work as an educator and bandleader Central to this narrative is the often overlooked story of Birmingham s unique jazz tradition and community From the very beginnings of jazz Birmingham was home to an active network of jazz practitioners and a remarkable system of jazz apprenticeship rooted in the city s segregated schools Birmingham musicians spread across the country to populate the sidelines of the nation s bestknown bands Local musicians like Erskine Hawkins and members of his celebrated orchestra returned home heroes Frank Doc Adams explores through first hand experience the history of this community introducing readers to a large and colorful cast of characters including Fess Whatley the legendary maker of musicians who trained legions of Birmingham players and made a significant mark on the larger history of jazz Adams s interactions with the young Sun Ra meanwhile reveal life changing lessons from one of American music s most innovative personalities Along the way Adams reflects on his notable family including his father Oscar editor of the Birmingham Reporter and an outspoken civic leader in the African American community and Adams s brother Oscar Jr who would become Alabama s first black supreme court justice Adams s story offers a valuable window into the world of Birmingham s black middle class in the days before the civil rights movement and integration Throughout Adams demonstrates the ways in which jazz professionalism became a source of pride within this community and he offers his thoughts on the continued relevance of jazz education in the twenty first century Who's who Among African Americans Ashyia N. Henderson,2000 Devoted to recording the scope of African American achievement reference provides biographical and career details on more than 20 000 notable African American individuals including leaders from sports the arts business religion and more An obituary section contains fully updated entries for listees who have died since the previous edition
