Making War In The Name Of God Christopher Catherwood,2008-10-01 From Islam declaring Jihad against the west to Arab against Jew to Catholic against Protestant one question resonates with the global threat we face today Why does God inspire the killing of Man Renowned historian Christopher Catherwood vividly recounts a saga of passion and prejudice that laid the foundation for our own troubled age Beginning with the death in 632 of Muhammad as much political leader and general as prophet Islam commenced its breathtaking spread which under Muhammad s successors eventually conquered an empire larger than Rome s Even as this vast realm broke apart into Sunni and Shiite factions the Christian retaliation ruthlessly and unscrupulously unleashed in 1095 with the First Crusade sparked a clash between East and West that continues to this day The pattern would repeat itself again and again with the Ottoman invasion of the Balkans in which the same Islamic faith that had once been an institution of tolerance in places like Spain became an instrument of expansion with the wars of the Reformation when Catholic and Protestant slaughtered each other in the name of the Prince of Peace and with the endless conflicts of today s Middle East savagely fought over by three faiths that all worship the same God Based on exhaustive research and written with an unflinching unbiased eye toward revealing the often painful truth Making War in the Name of God unveils humanity s ancient habit of sanctifying bloodshed and exposes a past that we forget at our peril Christopher Catherwood teaches history at Cambridge University in England and at the University of Richmond Virginia A fellow of the Royal Historical Society he is the author of several acclaimed books including Churchill s Folly How Winston

Churchill Created Modern Iraq A God Divided Understanding the Differences Between Islam Christianity and Judaism and Whose Side Is God On Cosmopolitan Archaeologies Lynn Meskell,2009-04-17 A collection exploring the implications of applying the cosmopolitan ideals of obligations to others and respect for cultural difference to archaeological practice

The Political Economy of Iran Farhad Gohardani,Zahra Tizro,2019-03-07 This study entails a theoretical reading of the Iranian modern history and follows an interdisciplinary agenda at the intersection of philosophy psychoanalysis economics and politics and intends to offer a novel framework for the analysis of socio economic development in Iran in the modern era A brief review of Iranian modern history from the Constitutional Revolution to the Oil Nationalization Movement the 1979 Islamic Revolution and the recent Reformist and Green Movements demonstrates that Iranian people travelled full circle This historical experience of socio economic development revolving around the bitter question of Why are we backward and its manifestation in perpetual socio political instability and violence is the subject matter of this study Michel Foucault s conceived relation between the production of truth and production of wealth captures the essence of hypothesis offered in this study Foucault 1980 93 94 maintains that In the last analysis we must produce truth as we must produce wealth indeed we must produce truth in order to produce wealth in the first place Based on a hybrid methodology combining hermeneutics of understanding and hermeneutics of suspicion this monograph proposes that the failure to produce wealth has had particular roots in the failure in the production of truth and trust At the heart of the proposed theoretical model is the following formula the Iranian subject s confused preference structure culminates in the formation of unstable coalitions which in turn leads to institutional failure creating a chaotic social order and a turbulent history as experienced by the Iranian nation in the modern era As such the society oscillates between the chaotic states of socio political anarchy emanating from irreconcilable differences between and within social assemblages and their affiliated hybrid forms of regimes of truth in the springs of freedom and repressive states of order in the winters of discontent Each time after the experience of chaos the order is restored based on the emergence of a final arbiter Iranian leviathan as the evolved coping strategy for achieving conflict resolution This highly volatile truth cycle produces the experience of socio economic backwardness and violence The explanatory power of the theoretical framework offered in the study exploring the relation between the production of truth trust and wealth is demonstrated via providing historical examples from strong events of Iranian modern history The significant policy implications of the model are explored This monograph will appeal to researchers scholars graduate students policy makers and anyone interested in the Middle Eastern politics Iran development studies and political economy The Origins of Secular Institutions H. Zeynep Bulutgil,2022 An original theory and meticulous analysis of how advocates of political secularization emerged historically and why they succeeded in some contexts but not others Why do some countries adopt secular institutions while others do not In The Origins of Secular Institutions Zeynep Bulutgil develops a theory that combines ideational and organizational mechanisms to explain how institutional secularization occurs She first focuses on why political groups with a secularizing agenda emerge Her argument is that the circulation of Enlightenment literature among the elite and associations through which the elite could exchange ideas were the main factors that influenced the early emergence of secularizing political movements She then turns to the conditions under which these movements succeed Secularizing political groups are at a comparative disadvantage when it comes to recruiting grassroots support because unlike religious actors they cannot rely on a pre existing institutional structure They become likely to overcome this obstacle if they have time to build a robust organization before religious political movements emerge Bulutgil supports these arguments by combining statistical analysis of original historical data with comparative analysis of countries in Europe France Spain The United Kingdom and the Middle East North Africa Turkey Morocco and Tunisia An authoritative explanation of why political secularization occurred in some countries but not others this book will reshape our understanding of an issue of unsurpassed importance for over two centuries the effects of modernity on politics A
