From Legislation To Integration Race Relations In Britain:

From Legislation to Integration? M. Anwar,P. Roach,R. Sondhi,1999-11-10 Britain is now permanently a multi racial and multi cultural society with a race relations legislative framework From Legislation to Integration provides a unique and comprehensive analysis of the contribution made by this legislation to the development of British race relations The politics of the Race Relations Act 1976 the issues regarding law enforcement and the impact of legislation in British race relations are examined Contextualising Britain the book puts the situation in this country within the European Union framework and compares it with the United States It also looks to the future and makes relevant suggestions to improve the current legislation It will appeal to students of social sciences researchers policy makers and professionals in the relevant fields nationally and internationally

Race Relations in Britain Tessa Blackstone,Bhikhu Parekh,Peter Sanders,2005-06-27 Bringing together distinguished experts in the field of race relations this book addresses questions which are increasingly relevant in the current socio political context of Great Britain The kind of visions of multicultural Britain which are currently being canvassed and the problems which ethnic minorities continue to face are addressed together with an examination of the new policy initiatives which are needed to tackle these problems Race Relations in Britain falls into three parts which analyse contemporary trends articulating a vision of multicultural Britain and exploring important theoretical controversies identify the obstacles that stand in the way of a racism free Britain looking at current policy in areas such as immigration employment education the criminal justice system as well as the role of the media offer a vision of a multi cultural Britain advancing new policies based on current research

Challenging Racism in Britain and Germany Z. Layton-Henry,C. Wilpert,2003-03-13 This collection analyses some of the factors that contribute to racism and exclusion in Britain and Germany such as citizenship laws racial violence discrimination in education and employment anti semitism and the rise of the far right Strategies to combat racism racist violence and discrimination in Britain are described and analysed and proposals for anti discrimination legislation in Germany are considered

An Immigration History of Britain Panikos Panayi,2014-09-11 Immigration ethnicity multiculturalism and racism have become part of daily discourse in Britain in recent decades yet far from being new these phenomena have characterised British life since the 19th century While the numbers of immigrants increased after the Second World War groups such as the Irish Germans and East European Jews have been arriving settling and impacting on British society from the Victorian period onwards In this comprehensive and fascinating account Panikos Panayi examines immigration as an ongoing process in which ethnic communities evolve as individuals choose whether to retain their ethnic identities and customs or to integrate and assimilate into wider British norms Consequently he tackles the contradictions in the history of immigration over the past two centuries migration versus government control migrant poverty versus social mobility ethnic identity versus increasing Anglicisation and above all racism versus multiculturalism Providing an important historical context to contemporary debates and taking into account the complexity and variety of individual experiences over time this book demonstrates that no simple approach or theory can summarise the migrant experience in Britain

Integrating Immigrants in Europe Peter Scholten, Han Entzinger, Rinus Penninx, Stijn Verbeek, 2015-06-02 This open access book explores how research and policymaking in the field of migrant integration have developed historically and how this interrelationship plays out in the strongly politicised climate of opinions on migration in Europe It features interdisciplinary theoretical contributions as well as original empirical studies on research policy dialogues at both the EU and country level The chapters study not only how the dialogue between research and policy is structured such as advisory bodies research agencies and ad hoc committees but also how these dialogues affect policymaking and the development of migrant integration research itself as well The analysis reveals profound changes in the dialogue structures associated with the research policy nexus in the domain of migrant integration On the one hand dialogue structures have become more ad hoc often established in response to distinct political events or to specific problems On the other politicisation has not thwarted all efforts to develop more institutionalised dialogue structures between producers and users of knowledge In addition research has contributed to policymaking in very different ways in various European countries This edited volume is unique in this effort to reflect on the impact of research policy dialogues both on the development of migrant integration policies as well as on migrant integration research It will be of importance to scholars in this field as well as to policymakers and other stakeholders involved in migrant integration policymaking

The Europeanization of National Policies and Politics of Immigration T. Faist, A. Ette, 2007-02-28 The Europeanization of National Policies and Politics of Immigration is the first cutting edge volume presenting a comparative empirical investigation on the impact of the EU on migration policy at national level Revealing striking differences this collection examines traditional member states new member states as well as non member states

National Paradigms of Migration Research Dietrich Thränhardt, Michael Bommers, 2010 The varying traditions in the migration research of different countries are closely connected to the respective national political landscape and the way in which the respective national state views itself affirmative and positive or perhaps more self critical Seen side by side much emerges to be discussed and challenged that was previously beyond doubt The present volume introduces the reader to the traditions of migration research in twelve different countries the more traditional immigration countries of Canada and Australia four European countries with decades of experience United Kingdom Germany Austria Netherlands countries newer to immigration such as Italy Poland and Japan and finally the postcolonial countries of India Malaysia and Nigeria Through this comparative approach this volume presents a new approach to understanding the different research traditions The reader is confronted with the various ways in which emigrants are included or excluded from society thereby gaining an understanding of the existing intellectual discourses as well as learning to qualify them in the light of other solutions and traditions Because the approaches of the respective migration research tradition are not always the same the volume is attractive for a number of professionals Sociologists political scientists ethnologists economists and philosophers can join together to discuss the terms migration integration and their relationship to social structures This in turn challenges premises that previously were held to be a matter of course

Defining British Citizenship Rieko Karatani,2004-08-02 Unlike many nations Britain had not developed a national citizenship by the 20th century Instead belonging in Britain was merely a function of allegiance to the Crown This lack of definition was seen as beneficial This title explores the implications of such vagueness as a new millennium begins Global Changes in Asylum Regimes D. Joly,2002-11-22 This book examines convergent trends in asylum regimes around the world It covers the main regions of the world where asylum is a critical problem Europe Africa and Central America It also looks at the major issues human rights non governmental organisation involvement gender return comprehensive policy European Union harmonisation international intervention and temporary protection Constructions of Migrant Integration in British Public Discourse Sam Bennett,2018-01-25 This is a study into how the public discourse on migrant integration in the UK changed from 2000 2010 The book shows that the discursive construction of integration in the British public sphere shifted from one of cultural pluralism to one of neo assimilation informed by a wider spread of neo liberalism that necessitates self sufficiency and discourages state assistance Situated within the Critical Discourse Studies tradition the book employs a Discourse Historical approach to the data and includes innovative analysis combining top down policy documents and media texts and bottom up focus groups with migrants and new citizens sites of discourse production In doing so it provides a broad and detailed perspective of public discourse on integration in the UK The book shows that understandings of integration are diachronically and synchronically fluid and as such the term plays an important role as a consensus concept that different actors can support whilst construing it in different ways Analysis of the data further reveals that integration is interdiscursively linked to other social fields such as the economy terrorism and public spending The book also argues that integration policy has become directed not just at new migrants but also long term British citizens and that this has the potential to have considerable impact on community cohesion Race Politics in Britain and France Erik Bleich,2003-05-26 Britain and France have developed substantially different policies to manage racial tensions since the 1960s in spite of having similar numbers of post war ethnic minority immigrants This book provides the first detailed historical exploration of race policy development in these two countries In this path breaking work Bleich argues against common wisdom that attributes policy outcomes to the role of powerful interest groups or to the constraints of existing institutions instead emphasizing the importance of frames as widely held ideas that propelled policymaking in different directions British policymakers framing of race and racism principally in North American terms of color discrimination encouraged them to import many policies from across the Atlantic For decades after WWII by contrast French policy leaders framed racism in terms influenced largely by their Vichy past which encouraged policies designed primarily to counter hate speech while avoiding the recognition of race found across the English Channel Migration Policies and Political Participation P. Odmalm, 2005-10-26 Comparing differences in migrant political participation the author discusses the influence that institutions have on opportunities and constraints for migrants political engagement The book adopts a multi country comparative approach highlighting three areas where institutions influence the scope for migrant actors in Sweden the Netherlands France Germany and the UK Strategies adopted by organized migrant interests in response to specific political structures The role of identity and its relevance in explaining varying political participation Institutional effects on the relationship between migrant organizations and political parties Black Youth, Racism and the State John Solomos, 1988 This book provides an in depth analysis of the position of young blacks in British society during the 1980s

Colonized by Humanity Rob Waters, 2023 Colonized by Humanity is a study of racial liberalism at the end of empire It uncovers the projects to cultivate racial integration developed in the two decades between the arrival of the Empire Windrush and the passage of the first Race Relations Act An Unfortunate Coincidence Didi Herman, 2011 This book examines the depiction of Jews and Jewishness in modern English law revealing the role of racial and religious understandings in legal decision making It challenges both assumptions about tolerance and neutrality in English law and any simple narrative of anti-Semitism charting the ambivalent status of Jewish identity in the law Race, Ethnicity and Football Daniel Burdsey, 2012-01-25 As the first edited collection dedicated specifically to race ethnicity and British football this book brings together a range of academics comprising both established commentators and up and coming voices Combining theoretical and empirical contributions the volume addresses a wide variety of topics such as the experiences of Muslims the recruitment of African players devolution and national identities case studies of minority ethnic clubs mixed race players multiculturalism and anti racism sectarianism education and covering the amateur and professional spheres and focusing on both players and supporters the book elucidates the linkages between race ethnicity gender and masculinity

Citizenship, Security And Democracy Muslim Engagement With The West Wanda Krause, 2009-01-01 Citizenship Security and Democracy provides greater analysis of and seeks solutions to the challenges of citizenship security and democracy through fresh and more varied perspectives as is related to Islamic discourse and Muslim communities and their activism in the West These concerns have never been more pressing than today Democracy has been a global endeavour and concern as in its ideal form it gives promise to liberty freedoms and rights However after especially 9 11 and 7 7 securitization has become a more immediate goal making security the driving discourse today But both security and democracy are becoming ever less attainable in today's climate of increased division and cleavages along ideological lines and Islamophobia an acute problem for citizenship in humanity On September 13 2006 the Association of Muslim Social Scientists AMSS UK and the Foundation for Political Economic and Social Research SETA held a three day conference to explore the challenges of democracy and security and importantly explore issues around citizenship and identity of Muslim diaspora Given the backdrop to a growing political discourse on the Muslim Other framed through the events of 9 11 and 7 7 and increased tension as a result of this discourse framing the aim was to help discern causes to the major challenges facing governments and the safety freedoms and dignity of individuals globally This was attempted through the study of Islamic thought and on the ground case study research of Muslim societies and communities This conference marks one of the major events to have been organised where such a large number of scholars experts and activists from a wide range of ideological positions and professional backgrounds come together in an ambitious attempt to resolve the most pressing issues at the turn of the 21st century Editor These papers have been published to widen discourse stimulate debate and hopefully pave the way for further research Doubtless readers may agree with some of the issues raised and disagree with others but it is hoped that overall both general and specialised readers will benefit from the perspectives offered and some of the more focused issues examined in the book

The EU Race Directive Erica Howard, 2009-10-16 In 2000 the European Union adopted a Directive against discrimination on the grounds of racial or ethnic origin This book provides an in depth evaluation of the Race Directive and its effects questioning how successful the Race directive has been The EU Race Directive discusses the history of the fight against racial discrimination in the EU and the equality clauses in international Human Rights instruments It then examines the terms race racism and racial discrimination and equality in the Directive The book also looks at the concepts of equality which can be distinguished in the Race Directive and in the subsequent developments at EU level Examining whether the Directive has improved the protection against racial or ethnic origin discrimination for people within the EU the book concludes with an assessment of how far the EU has come on the road to racial equality with the adoption of the Race Directive and the subsequent developments It also contains proposals for possible improvements The comprehensive and up to date analysis in this book goes beyond most other books written on the subject and the specific focus on racism and racial discrimination means a more thorough examination than most texts focusing on discrimination on a larger number of grounds This book will be of great value to students and academics in European law social sciences and human rights researching racism racial discrimination ethnicity and race relations It will also be useful for policy makers

The Politics of International Migration Management M. Geiger, A. Pécoud, 2010-10-13 Throughout the world governments and intergovernmental organizations such as the International Organization for Migration are developing new approaches aimed at renewing migration policy making This book now in paperback critically analyzes the actors discourses and practices of migration management

The Politics of the Common Law Adam Gearey, Wayne Morrison, Robert Jago, 2013-05-02 The Politics of the Common Law offers a critical introduction to the legal system of England and Wales Unlike other conventional accounts this revised and updated second edition presents a coherent argument organised around the central claim that contemporary postcolonial common law must be understood as an articulation of human rights and open justice The book examines the impact of the European Convention and European Union law on the structures and ideologies of the common law and engages with the politics of the rule of law These themes are read into normative accounts of civil and criminal procedure that stress the importance of due process The final sections of the book address the reality of civil and criminal procedure in the light of recent civil unrest in the UK and the growing privatisation of public services The book questions whether it is possible to find a balance between the requirements of economics and the demands of justice
