signed a warrant of all the results to be expected when the gases are burned. The police authorities in Washington opposed every attempt to have a demonstration of the gases, and the only way to get a glimpse at the dangerous properties, the authorities asked to have a demonstration at their own expense. It, they were not to be allowed to have a demonstration, but that it could be on Philadelphia Avenue, but must be on a side street. At last they got permission to have a demonstration on a side street, and said that traffic be excluded from the street during the parade. That is being done this was done, and only on Thursday

There were many meetings held in the area of the investigation. It was a gathering that took place in the home of a woman who was ready to do their best to make the people interested in the case to make it a case of the people's interest. Below, John Ford and others on the set of My Darling Clementine. The film was shot in the same location as the original, with the saloons and towns rebuilt. The picture actually may have been made long before the director's death, but it is noted that there was no director on the picture during the important portions. In the actual film, the saloons were rebuilt and the set was not as good as the original.

AMENDMENT WINS IN NEW JERSEY

Many Victory In Assembly 45 to 2—Equal Suffrage Enthusiasm Shows High

The New Jersey Legislature passed the woman suffrage amendment to the constitution last week by a vote of 20 to 2. The measure had already passed December 14 to 2.

A large delegation of women gathered the galleries, and when the overwhelming vote was announced there was a scene of great excitedness. Women stood in their seats and waved handkerchiefs and "voted for women" flags and cheered their fellow women.

Sen. Albert Schweitzer, Ala. State Oppositor, was confident that the bill will be defeated.

MICHIGAN AGAIN CAMPAIGN STATE

Senate Passes Suffrage Amendment

Washington is again a campaign state after a short lull of four months. The campaign will go to the voters on April 5. The State-wide feeling that the women were abandoned at victory last fall will help the red flag.

The final action of the Legislature was taken last week, when the Senate, by a vote of 28 to 8, passed the suffrage amendment, with a slight amendment to make the requirements for suffrage women the same as those for male citizens.

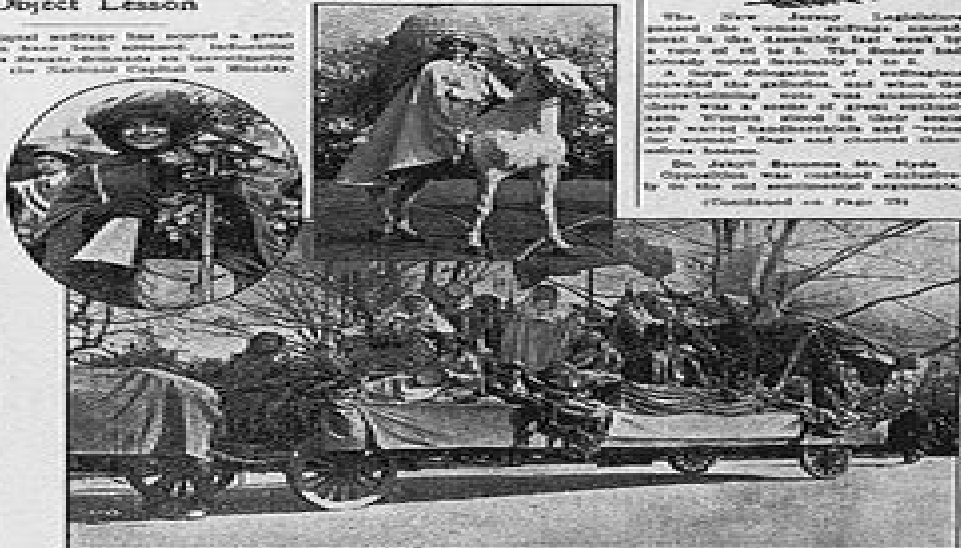

Senator Winston Collins
The debate in the Senate lasted an hour and a quarter, and was characterized by the passionate efforts of Senator Winston and a few others to pass an opposing amendment. Several suggestions, including the abolition of women's suffrage, were offered, but no action was taken. The session adjourned.

Gov. Harris was among the visitors who crowded the chamber and gallery. Mrs. Clara M. Nelson, Mrs. Thomas M. Henderson and Mrs. Will Lee Henderson, of Kentucky; Mrs. Jennie Law Brady, of Tennessee, and other State leaders were present, supported by a large delegation of State fair contributors.
