Where to from Here? Brian Grogan, 2012 If you ve ever felt challenged as a Christian to say what you believe about life after death you will find intelligent proposals here Fr Grogan s deep knowledge of the current scholarship on subjects like judgment heaven hell and purgatory is matched by his skill at clearly presenting insights through stories and examples This book begins with the idea that every inhabitant of this planet contributes to the shaping of God s project the life of the world to come and it emphasizes that the relationships between God and ourselves endure eternally Rooting everything in this sense of ongoing relationship Grogan poses and responds to questions such as Could hell be empty Can knowledge of the future transform the present What will it be like to be fully alive What will we do in heaven He also makes a clear call to engage with God now in transforming our present relationships so that everyone may become more truly fully alive This is the Christian gift to the world The next time anyone asks me about heaven hell purgatory limbo or anything related to what awaits us after our earthly lives have ended I will recommend this excellent new book Father Grogan s approach is wise without being preachy scholarly without being overly academic and hopeful without being naive He covers almost any question that a Christian might have about the last things and does so by taking those concerns seriously answering them carefully and grounding them in Scripture and tradition Highly recommended James Martin SJ author of The Jesuit Guide to Almost Everything
