Death, Dying and Bereavement in a Changing World Alan R. Kemp, 2015-10-16 This title takes a comprehensive approach exploring the physical social psychological and spiritual dimensions of death dying and bereavement Through personal stories from real people Death Dying and Bereavement provides readers with a context for understanding their changing encounters with such difficult concepts

Governing Death, Making Persons Huwy-min Lucia

Liu, 2023-01-15 Governing Death Making Persons tells the story of how economic reforms and changes in the management of death in China have affected the governance of persons. The Chinese Communist Party has sought to channel the funeral industry and death rituals into vehicles for reshaping people into modern citizens and subjects. Since the Reform and Opening period and the marketization of state funeral parlors, the Party has promoted personalized funerals in the hope of promoting a market-oriented and individualistic ethos. However, things have not gone as planned. Huwy min Lucia Liu writes about the funerals she witnessed and the life stories of two kinds of funeral workers: state workers who are quasi-government officials and semilegal private funeral brokers. She shows that end-of-life commemoration in urban China today is characterized by the resilience of social conventions and not a shift toward market economy individualization. Rather than seeing a rise of individualism and the decline of a socialist self, Liu sees the durability of socialist religious communal and relational ideas of self woven together through creative ritual framings in spite of their contradictions.

An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry Corinna Laughlin, 2023-02-01 Countless generous-hearted people feel called to bereavement ministry and accompany the bereaved both liturgically and pastorally. In An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry: Caring for Those Who Mourn, all those called to bereavement ministry will receive the theological and spiritual formation to minister to the dying and those who grieve. This resource presents a bereavement ministry that flows from the liturgical and pastoral vision of the Church's official funeral rites and ensures that all ministers, ordained lay professional staff, and volunteer ministers are working out of a shared understanding of that vision. In pastoral and engaging prose, author Corinna Laughlin unfolds the Church's theology of Christian death, the paschal mystery, the communion of saints, and the healing power of the rites. This book addresses ministry with the dying and with the bereaved at the time of death and presents the range of pastoral services the parish and its bereavement team can offer both in the early days and throughout the year following a death. This foundational and readable resource provides compelling and enriching formation in bereavement ministry. An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry: Caring for Those Who Mourn may be used by any person seeking formation in bereavement ministry. It may also be used in tandem with Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry by Robert Valle, a resource for parishes that are developing or refreshing a parish bereavement ministry. Whether An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry is used with Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry or independently, it will give the reader a compelling and enriching formation in bereavement ministry.

Cultural Changes in Attitudes Toward Death, Dying, and Bereavement Cynthia A. Peveto, PhD, 2004-11-18 By comparing the findings from Kalish's and Reynolds's landmark 1970's Death and Ethnicity Study to their own present study, Hayslip and Peveto examine the impact of cultural change on death attitudes. With a focus on African American, Asian American, and Hispanic American subpopulations, with Caucasians treated as a comparison group, the authors come to several conclusions, including the shift toward more interest in being informed of one's own terminal prognosis, a more personal approach to funerals and mourning observances, a greater focus on family and relationships.

Death and Bereavement Across Cultures Colin Murray Parkes, Pittu Laungani, William Young, 2015-06-05 All societies have their own customs and beliefs surrounding death In the West traditional ways of mourning are disappearing and although Western science has had a major impact on how people die it has taught us little about the way to die or to grieve Many whose work brings them into contact with the dying and the bereaved from Western and other cultures are at a loss to know how to offer appropriate and sensitive support Death and Bereavement Across Cultures 2nd Edition is a handbook which meets the needs of doctors nurses social workers hospital chaplains counsellors and volunteers caring for patients with life threatening illness and their families before and after bereavement It is a practical guide explaining the religious and other differences commonly met with in multi cultural societies when someone is dying or bereaved In doing so readers may be surprised to find how much we can learn from other cultures about our own attitudes and assumptions about death Written by international experts in the field the book Describes the rituals and beliefs of major world religions Explains their psychological and historical context Shows how customs are changed by contact with the West Considers the implications for the future The second edition includes new chapters that explore how members of the health care professions perform roles formerly conducted by priests and shamans can cross the cultural gaps between different cultures and religions consider the relevance of attitudes and assumptions about death for our understanding of religious and nationalist extremism and its consequences discuss the Buddhist Islamic and Christian ways of death Death raises questions which science cannot answer Whatever our personal beliefs we can all gain from learning how others view these ultimate problems This book explores the richness of mourning traditions around the world with the aim of increasing the sensitivity and understanding which we all bring to the issue of death and bereavement Creating Meaningful Funeral Ceremonies Alan Wolfelt, 2013-11-19 More and more people are considering a career in nursing or healthcare but the thought of undertaking an academic degree at university can be intimidating Whether you are moving straight from school or college or have been away from education for some time Getting Ready for your Nursing Degree is essential preparation for anyone considering becoming or about to become a nursing student It looks at all aspects of university work in a straightforward way and provides advice examples and activities designed to help you get the most out of classes research and assessments from your first lecture right through to sitting exams and learning on placement Designed with nursing students in mind this small but perfectly formed guide is tailored to help you develop the skills you will need not only for your course but for your career and lifelong learning as a registered healthcare practitioner Caring through the Funeral Gene Fowler, 2020-01-24 Caring through the Funeral is a guidebook to take pastors through the complete funeral process from the moment the call is received to the weeks following the funeral More than just a how to Caring through the Funeral uniquely addresses the funeral process from the perspective of pastoral ministry of pastoral caring throughout the time of mourning from the death through post funeral grieving Many times the funeral is the most momentous means of pastoral caring for the bereaved and often it is the only time that the church has an opportunity to care for the family and friends Gene Fowler explores what pastors go through at each stage of the funeral process Both descriptive and conceptual Fowler s practical advice solid pastoral and theological grounding and case illustrations take pastors and student pastors through many issues the language of loss the vocabulary ministers need for this caring ministry bereavement and grief pastoral care of family members pastoral care of non family members including groups within the church and community the funeral as worship service including a comparison of our Protestant liturgical books and the elements that comprise a Christian funeral practical issues of planning the service including sample services funeral service as means of caring for the bereaved and as a rite of passage and the interrelationship between funerals mourning and grief how funerals often launch mourners on a spiritual journey questions asked by the bereaved role of resurrection in pastoral care pastoral care after the funeral

Mortality, Mourning and Mortuary Practices in Indigenous Australia Myrna Tonkinson, Victoria Burbank, 2017-03-02 Drawing on ethnography of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities across Australia Mortality Mourning and Mortuary Practices in Indigenous Australia focuses on the current ways in which indigenous people confront and manage various aspects of death The contributors employ their contemporary and long term anthropological fieldwork with indigenous Australians to construct rich accounts of indigenous practices and beliefs and to engage with questions relating to the frequent experience of death within the context of unprecedented change and premature mortality The volume makes use of extensive empirical material to address questions of inequality with specific reference to mortality thus contributing to the anthropology of indigenous Australia whilst attending to its theoretical methodological and political concerns As such it will appeal not only to anthropologists but also to those interested in social inequality the social and psychosocial consequences of death and the conceptualization and manipulation of the relationships between the living and the dead

Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry Robert Valle, Paula Kosin, 2023-02-01 All Christians are responsible for consoling those who have lost a loved one An active parish bereavement ministry involves many parishioners performing various forms of compassionate service In Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry author Robert Valle guides parish leaders toward creating a bereavement ministry that flows from the liturgical and pastoral vision of the Church s official funeral rites He explains the theology and key pastoral insights of the Order of Christian Funerals OCF and outlines the phases of bereavement ministry from accompanying the bereaved at the time of death to the preparation of the funeral liturgies then home visits and acts of compassion throughout the following year This resource provides practical advice and downloadable materials for training ministers in the theological spiritual and human dimensions essential for effective bereavement ministry Contributing author Paula Kosin provides scripts and other editable downloads for facilitating a grief support group Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry together with An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry Caring for Those Who Mourn a resource for bereavement ministers and Grieving A Spiritual Process for Catholics a book for the grieving provide the training insight and guidance for forming a parish bereavement ministry that will bring comfort and peace to all in your community who are grieving the loss of a loved one Grieving with Hope Albín Masarik,2017-12-31 In this well researched work Dr Alb n Masarik explores various features of funeral sermons arising from their unique context and homiletic process While funeral sermons are an important element in pastoral care of churches and the wider community theological reflection of this weighty responsibility can be hard to find Addressing the definition of a funeral sermon their categorization purpose and context this book brings clarity to inform the exercise of preaching a funeral sermon and help pastors and theologians grapple with how to best shepherd their flock and exalt our Saviour in the midst of bereavement Death, Burial and the Individual in Early Modern England Clare Gittings,2023-10-13 First published in 1984 Death Burial and the Individual in Early Modern England traces how and why the modern reaction to death has come about by examining English attitudes to death since the Middle Ages In earlier centuries death was very much in the midst of life since it was not as now associated mainly with old age War plague and infant mortality gave it a very different aspect to its present one The author shows in detail how modern concern with the individual has gradually alienated death from our society the greater the emphasis on personal uniqueness the more intense the anguish when an individual dies Changes in attitudes to death are traced through alterations in funeral rituals covering all sections of society from paupers to princes This gracefully written book is a unique scholarly and thorough treatment of the subject providing both a sensitive insight into the feelings of people in early modern England and an explanation of the modern anxiety about death The range and assurance of this book will commend it to historians and the interested general reader alike Creating Meaning in Funerals William G. Hoy,2024-08-01 Creating Meaning in Funerals is a book about the ways in which bereaved families and communities create meaningful ceremonies against a backdrop of what is culturally appropriate even when their choices might make little economic sense to those outside the culture The culmination of these customs and practices this book maintains is how bereaved individuals families and communities are drawn into significant meaning making in early bereavement Readers will be repeatedly challenged to suspend their own biases observe the customs and beliefs of others thoughtfully and provide counseling support and encouragement to bereaved individuals for whom funerals were or were not effective means of coping with their loss Discussion questions at the end of each chapter make the book useful for educational settings such as funeral service classroom instruction thanatology classes and grief counseling courses Each chapter is also accompanied by its own reference list to make chapters more useful individually Death, Grief and Poverty in Britain, 1870-1914 Julie-Marie Strange,2005-07-25 A study of expression of grief among the working class in Victorian and Edwardian Britain Funeral Industry United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations,1980 Funeral Rites Reformation for Any African Ethnic Community Based on the Proposed New Funeral Practices for the Agikuyu Johnson Nganga Mbugua,2016-06-17 This book has been written on the premise that the mode of coping with death of virtually all African ethnic communities has taken proportions and turns that are neither cultural scriptural nor necessary Current rites are complicated time consuming expensive and are leaving most families and their neighbors impoverished They have been extremely commercialized and a large number of Africans do not have resources to bury their dead the modern way Were the Agikuyu read Africans to curb numerous funeral demands which they deem necessary and customary when in actual fact they are not funerals for them would become cheaper faster and simpler would be decent enough for the dead would take care of those left behind and would be environmentally friendly How Africans in the Diaspora away from their ancestral homeland should cope with death is also addressed Also addressed is the issue of cremation It is shown that at the resurrection God will accord us new spiritual bodies which will have no bearing with the material substance of our earthly mortal bodies Death and Religion in a Changing World Kathleen

Garces-Foley,2014-12-18 This comprehensive study of the intersection of death and religion offers a unique look at how religious people approach death in the twenty first century Previous scholarship has largely focused on traditional beliefs and paid little attention to how religious traditions evolve in relation to their changing social context Employing a sociological approach Death and Religion in a Changing World describes how people from a wide variety of faiths draw on and adapt traditional beliefs and practices as they deal with death in modern societies The book includes coverage of newly emerging social and religious phenomena that are only just beginning to be analyzed by religion scholars such as public shrines the role of the media spiritual bereavement groups and the use of the Internet in death practices Death and Bereavement Across Cultures William Young,2003-09-02 All societies have their own customs and beliefs surrounding death This handbook explains how to offer appropriate and sensitive support to those from other cultures who are dying or bereaved

Bereavement and Health Wolfgang Stroebe,Margaret S. Stroebe,1987-09-25 Does the popular notion of a broken heart have some grounding in reality How can grief affect the body in ways that necessitate medical care and may even be life threatening Bereavement and Health constitutes a comprehensive review of what is known about the impact of bereavement on surviving partners Drawing on the work of psychologists sociologists epidemiologists and psychiatrists Wolfgang and Margaret Stroebe offer a theoretically coherent perspective focused on conjugal loss After a thorough discussion of stress and depression models of bereavement the authors present their own theoretical approach emphasizing social contacts and the interpersonal nature of grief They then examine the psychological and medical consequences of bereavement Are the bereaved at higher risk than those who have not lost a partner What has research revealed about the causes symptoms and outcomes of grief Key questions about recovery from grief are also addressed Is the health risk of bereavement severe enough to have lasting or even fatal consequences Is it possible to identify those bereaved who are at high risk before their health suffers What are the strategies that are most likely to lead to effective coping Can attempts at intervention be effective The Stroebe's combination of theoretical integration and methodological rigor will make Bereavement and Health a standard
