Future Of Foundations:

Trustees & the Future of Foundations John W. Nason, 1977 The Future of Foundations in an Open Society Bertelsmann Stiftung (Gütersloh, Germany), 1999 The forces of globalization affect the world of politics and business in powerful ways Electronic media instant communication and the free flow of goods and services exert pressure on societies to adapt to new ways of life But they also allow for the rapid dissemination of new ideas and perspectives and have made possible the spreading of democratic values and open societies This new environment presents both challenges and opportunities for foundations They are called upon to adopt new roles that were once the domain of state and governmental institutions At the same time they are asked to perform them in better and more efficient ways In addition international integration mandates that their perspectives and strategies transcend national borders This book contains the proceedings of an international symposium hosted by the Bertelsmann Foundation It documents the growing consensus that in the open society it is not enough for foundations to do good they have to do it well The contributors are Dieter Feddersen Caio K Koch Weser Reinhard Mohn Kenneth Prewitt John Richardson and Dorothy S Ridings Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 , 1996 How Organizations Manage the Future Hannes Krämer, Matthias Wenzel, 2018-06-27 This pioneering edited collection explores the question of how organizations manage the future Moving away from traditional research which focuses on the past the editors problematize the future as an inherent but under examined part of organizing Arguing that the future acts as both a driver of and a performative result of organizing the book asks how organizations conceptualize and deal with the future and what processes are in place to handle things to come With empirical research examining the practices discourses and concepts that play key roles organizations and their approaches are scrutinized A timely compendium of theoretical discussion and practical implications on the relevance of the future this book is essential reading for those interested in organization sociology and management studies Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 , 2003

The Future of International Relations Iver B. Neumann, Ole Wæver, 2005-06-29 This book presents the state of the art of international relations theory through an analysis of the work of twelve key contemporary thinkers John Vincent Kenneth Waltz Robert O Keohane Robert Gilpin Bertrand Badie John Ruggie Hayward Alker Nicholas G Onuf Alexander Wendt Jean Bethke Elshtain R B J Walker and James Der Derian The authors aim to break with the usual procedure in the field which juxtaposes aspects of the work of contemporary theorists with others presenting them as part of a disembodied school of thought or paradigm A more individual focus can demonstrate instead the well rounded character of some of the leading oeuvres and can thus offer a more representative view of the discipline This book is designed to cover the work of theorists whom students of international relations will read and sometimes struggle with The essays can be read either as introductions to the work of these theorists or as companions to it Each chapter attempts to place the thinker in the landscape of the discipline to identify how they go about studying International Relations and to discuss what others can learn from them
