Indigenous People and Economic Development Katia Iankova, Azizul Hassan, Rachel L'Abbe, 2016-03-22 Indigenous peoples are an intrinsic part of countries like Australia New Zealand Canada Finland USA India Russia and almost all parts of South America and Africa A considerable amount of research has been done during the twentieth century mainly by anthropologists sociologists and linguists in order to describe and document their traditional life style for the protection and safeguarding of their established knowledge skills languages and beliefs These communities are engaging and adapting rapidly to the changing circumstances partly caused by post modernisation and the process of globalization These have led them to aspire to better living standards as well as preserving their uniqueness approaches to environment close proximity to social structures and communities For at least the last two decades patterns of increased economic activity by indigenous peoples in many countries have been viewed to be significantly on the rise Indigenous People and Economic Development reveals some of the characteristics of this economic activity coloured by the unique regard and philosophy of life that indigenous people around the world have The successes difficulties and obstacles to economic development their solutions and innovative practices in business all of these elements based on research findings are discussed in this book and offer an inside view of the dynamics of the indigenous societies which are evolving in a globalised and highly interconnected contemporary world Inalienable Properties Jamie Baxter,2020-05-31 As many Indigenous communities return to self governance and self determination they are taking their own approaches to property rights and community development Based on case studies in four Indigenous communities the Westbank Membertou Nisga a and James Bay Cree nations Jamie Baxter traces how local leaders have set the course for land rights and development during formative periods of legal and economic upheaval Drawing on new research about institutional change in organizational settings Baxter explores when and how community leaders have sustained inalienable land rights without turning to either persuasion or coercive force the two levers of power normally associated with political leadership Inalienable Properties challenges the view that liberalized land markets are the inevitable result of legal and economic change It shows how inalienability can result from intentional choices and is linked to structures of decision making that have long lasting consequences for communities Indigenous Entrepreneurship in Southeast Asia Emiel L. Eijdenberg,Thirumaran K,Pengji Wang,Caroline Wong,2024-04-09 This book provides an in depth exploration of indigenous entrepreneurship and its challenges while addressing ways to make businesses more inclusive and sustainable in the long term Offering a balanced mix of critical perspectives theoretical insights and practical implications provided by both academics and practitioners it examines how indigenous entrepreneurship practices in Southeast Asia challenge existing theories in business and management research The chapters also explore the role of various stakeholders such as the larger community and society supply chain members policy makers etc in facilitating indigenous entrepreneurship Highlighting the uniqueness and diversity of indigenous entrepreneurship in Southeast Asia this book renders a comprehensive overview of contemporary indigenization topics organized by Southeast Asian cultural and national contexts Indigenous Entrepreneurship in Sub-Saharan Africa Emiel L. Eijdenberg,Felix Ostertag,Léo-Paul Dana,Henrietta Onwuegbuzie,2024-09-28 This book presents a comprehensive overview of contemporary indigenization topics in the cultural context of sub Saharan Africa Discussing current state of affairs of indigenous entrepreneurship in Africa it seeks to understand what enables and constrains indigenous entrepreneurship in the region Further it explores the role of the institutional environment in promoting indigenous entrepreneurship Tying in the UN Sustainable Development Goals the chapters examine how indigenous entrepreneurship relates to ending poverty creating decent work and economic growth reducing inequalities contributing to sustainable cities and communities and promoting peace justice and strong institutions

For researchers interested in how indigenous entrepreneurship practices in sub Saharan Africa contest contemporary theories in entrepreneurship and management research this work will prove a valuable resource with its much needed case studies quantitative and qualitative research and practitioner perspectives Transnational Indians in the North American West Clarissa Confer, Andrae Marak, Laura Tuennerman, 2015-10-28 This collection of eleven original essays goes beyond traditional border driven studies to place the histories of Native Americans indigenous peoples and First Nation peoples in a larger context than merely that of the dominant nation As Transnational Indians in the North American West shows transnationalism can be expressed in various ways To some it can be based on dependency so that the history of the indigenous people of the American Southwest can only be understood in the larger context of Mexico and Central America Others focus on the importance of movement between Indian and non Indian worlds as Indians left their reserved lands to work hunt fish gather pursue legal cases or seek out education to name but a few examples Conversely even natives who remained on reserved lands were nonetheless transnational inasmuch as the reserves did not fully belong to them but were administered by a nation state Boundaries that scholars once viewed as impermeable it turns out can be quite porous This book stands to be an important contribution to the scholarship that is increasingly breaking free of old boundaries De Gruyter Handbook of Entrepreneurial Finance David Lingelbach, 2022-05-09 As of early 2022 seven of the ten largest firms in the world by market capitalization had been funded through various types of entrepreneurial finance This handbook provides an up to date survey of what we know about this significant phenomenon in all its forms and where our knowledge about it needs to head from here The handbook embraces a wide range of established and emerging academic and practitioner voices across the globe to explore the theoretical and practical flux and tension in the field Until recently most studies have taken a supply side perspective focusing on the perspective of those who provide funding to new ventures This book takes a different demand side perspective beginning with the entrepreneur and gradually broadening our view to include close by and then more distant funding sources Following this approach it is organized into four parts detailing the individual level founders resources bricolage and bootstrapping effectuation and portfolio entrepreneurship the inner circle informal financing business groups incubators and accelerators the wider world formal debt microfinance venture capital corporate venture capital business angels government funding and family offices and emerging perspectives non Western perspectives gender indigenous perspectives post conflict and disaster zones and ethics The introduction considers the general state of the field while the conclusion takes on additional topics relevant to entrepreneurial finance such as decentralized finance big data behavioral economics financial innovation and COVID 19 as well as possible ways in which entrepreneurial finance can have a greater impact on other disciplines This handbook will be a core reference work for researchers practitioners and policy makers seeking an up to date academic survey of entrepreneurial finance It can also be used as a primary text in Ph D seminars in entrepreneurship entrepreneurial finance and finance Instructors in Master s level
