George Nowlan, Maritime Conservative in National Politics Margaret Conrad, 1986      George Nowlan, Maritime Conservative in National Politics Margaret Conrad, 1986      Closing Sysco Lachlan MacKinnon, 2020-02-27 Closing Sysco presents a history of deindustrialization and working class resistance in the Cape Breton steel industry between 1945 and 2001 The Sydney Steel Works is at the heart of this story having existed in tandem with Cape Breton's larger coal operations since the early twentieth century The book explores the multifaceted nature of deindustrialization the internal politics of the steelworkers union the successful efforts to nationalize the mill in 1967 the years in transition under public ownership and the confrontations over health safety and environmental degradation in the 1990s and 2000s Closing Sysco moves beyond the moment of closure to trace the cultural historical and political ramifications of deindustrialization that continue to play out in post industrial Cape Breton Island A significant intervention into the international literature on deindustrialization this study pushes scholarship beyond the bounds of political economy and cultural change to begin tackling issues of bodily health environment and historical memory in post industrial places The experiences of the men and women who were displaced by the decline and closure of Sydney Steel are central to this book Featuring interviews with former steelworkers office employees managers politicians and community activists these one on one conversations reveal both the human cost of industrial closure and the lingering after effects of deindustrialization      Canadian History: Confederation to the present Martin Brook Taylor, Doug Owram, 1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader's Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship Cover      The Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, 1754-2004 Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History, 2004-01-01 Editors Philip Girard Jim Phillips and Barry Cahill have put together the first complete history of any Canadian provincial superior court All of the essays are original and many offer new interpretations of familiar themes in Canadian legal history      Who's Who of Canadian Women, 1999-2000 Gillian Holmes, 1999-06-01 Who's Who of Canadian Women is a guide to the most powerful and innovative women in Canada Celebrating the talents and achievement of over 3 700 women Who's Who of Canadian Women includes women from all over Canada in all fields including agriculture academia law business politics journalism religion sports and entertainment Each biography includes such information as personal data education career history current employment affiliations interests and honours A special comment section reveals personal thoughts goals and achievements of the profiled individual Entries are indexed by employment of affiliation for easy reference Published every two years Who's Who of Canadian Women selects its biographees on merit alone This collection is an essential resource for all those interested in the achievements of Canadian women      J.L. Ilsley: A Political Biography Barry Cahill, 2021-11-09 A farmer's son from rural Nova Scotia J L Ilsley 1894 1967 is an almost forgotten figure who played a key role in government during the Second World War even though he was despised by Prime Minister William

Lyon Mackenzie King Ilsley was spectacularly successful in cajoling and compelling Canadians to pay for the war He became a highly regarded national figure He gradually established his claim to succeed William Lyon Mackenzie King as Prime Minister when the time came Ultimately in his devious way King thwarted Ilsley s ambition Ilsley abandoned politics to take up the post of chief justice in Nova Scotia for 17 years His place in Canadian political history has been undermined by family members who destroyed his personal papers Historian and biographer Barry Cahill has pieced together the story of Ilsley s career for the first time He used the personal papers of other Ottawa figures of the times previously secret cabinet records and glimpses of the man as seen by others in his circle including of course Mackenzie King in his voluminous diaries The Maritimes George Peabody,Carolyn MacGregor,Richard Thorne,1987-01-01 The Maritimes Tradition Challenge Change is a high school textbook used to teach students about the social conditions of the Maritimes Every major aspect of the region is included its natural resources and economy its changing social and political life and its unique cultural expressions Often these come alive through the experiences of the diverse array of Maritimers from all walks of life and from all parts of the region that appear in these pages The Maritimes Tradition Challenge Change is a unique picture of a region with a strong sense of tradition facing many challenges and undergoing change in every area of life Archivaria ,2003 At the Ocean's Edge Margaret Conrad,2020-07-09 At the Ocean s Edge offers a vibrant account of Nova Scotia s colonial history situating it in an early and dramatic chapter in the expansion of Europe Between 1450 and 1850 various processes sometimes violent often judicial rarely conclusive transferred power first from Indigenous societies to the French and British empires and then to European settlers and their descendants who claimed the land as their own This book not only brings Nova Scotia s struggles into sharp focus but also unpacks the intellectual and social values that took root in the region By the time that Nova Scotia became a province of the Dominion of Canada in 1867 its multicultural peoples including Mi kmaq Acadian African and British had come to a grudging unequal and often contested accommodation among themselves Written in accessible and spirited prose the narrative follows larger trends through the experiences of colourful individuals who grappled with expulsion genocide and war to establish the institutions relationships and values that still shape Nova Scotia s identity Histoire Sociale ,1987 Scrum Wars Allan Levine,1996-08-08 The image of the scrum a beleaguered politician surrounded by jockeying reporters is central to our perception of Ottawa The modern scrum began with the arrival of television but even in Sir John A Macdonald s day a century earlier reporters in the parliamentary press gallery had waited outside the prime minister s office pen in hand hoping for a quote for the next edition The scrum represents the test of wills the contest of wits and the battle for control that have characterized the relationship between Canadian prime ministers and journalists for more than 125 years Scrum Wars chronicles this relationship It is an anecdotal as well as analytical account showing how earlier prime ministers like Sir John A Macdonald and Sir Wilfrid Laurier were able to exercise control over what was written about their administrators while more recent leaders like John Diefenbaker Joe Clark John Turner and

Brian Mulroney often found themselves at the mercy of intense media scrutiny and comment      Mike Starr of Oshawa
 Myron Momryk,2018-01-23 Mike Starr had a remarkable career in Canadian politics In June 1957 he was appointed Minister of Labour in John Diefenbaker s cabinet and created a sensation especially among Canadian ethnocultural groups He made political history as the first Ukrainian Canadian appointed to federal cabinet As Minister of Labour Starr was faced with numerous national problems including seasonal unemployment regional disparities union negotiations and emerging militant nationalism in Quebec When the Diefenbaker government was defeated in the 1963 federal election Starr returned to his earlier role as Member of Parliament With the changing Canadian political environment he was defeated by a tiny margin in the 1968 federal election Starr continued his distinguished career of public service from 1968 to 1980 He promoted the increasing involvement of ethnocultural groups in Canada political life In recent decades it has become a political norm to have members of various ethnocultural and visible minority groups elected to the House of Commons and appointed to Cabinet and other senior government positions For breaking this barrier Mike Starr was indeed a pioneer in Canadian politics Published in English      The Thousandth Man Barry Cahill,2000-12-15 James McGregor Stewart 1889 1955 was perhaps the foremost Canadian corporate lawyer of his day He was also an appellate counsel venture capitalist Conservative Party fundraiser bibliographer of Rudyard Kipling and sometime university teacher of classics A leader of the bar in the inter war period he was the first Maritimer to serve as president of the Canadian Bar Association He distinguished himself mainly in constitutional cases before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council During his career Stewart was also head of the leading law firm in eastern Canada now Stewart McKelvey Stirling Scales director and vice president of the Royal Bank of Canada and senior counsel to the Royal Commission on Dominion Provincial Relations Above all Stewart was committed to the idea of law as a truly learned profession and to the bar as the most important legal institution To this day no lawyer has held such prestige and power both within and outside Atlantic Canada in his time he was the only Maritime lawyer who gained full acceptance by every branch of the Canadian establishment Thematic rather than chronological in approach this fascinating legal biography provides both a history of a uniquely Canadian career and an interpretation of its significance for Stewart s time and ours      The Atlantic Provinces in Confederation E. R. Forbes,Ernest R. Forbes,Delphin Andrew Muise,Bill Parenteau,1993-01-01 The Atlantic Provinces cover New Brunswick Nova Scotia Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland      Introducing Canada Brian Gobbett,Robert Irwin,1998-04-30 In addition to presenting brief descriptions of more than 1 000 historical monographs dealing with Canada the bibliography introduces the reader to several historiographic debates and places key works within that context      Canada and the First World War, Second Edition David MacKenzie,2018-12-03 The First World War is often credited as being the event that gave Canada its own identity distinct from that of Britain France and the United States Less often noted however is that it was also the cause of a great deal of friction within Canadian society The fifteen essays contained in Canada and the First World War examine how

Canadians experienced the war and how their experiences were shaped by region politics gender class and nationalism Editor David MacKenzie has brought together some of the leading voices in Canadian history to take an in depth look into the tensions and fractures the war caused and to address the way some attitudes about the country were changed while others remained the same The essays vary in scope but are strongly unified so as to create a collection that treats its subject in a complete and comprehensive manner Canada and the First World War is a tribute to esteemed University of Toronto historian Robert Craig Brown one of Canada's greatest authorities on the Great War World War One The collection is a significant contribution to the on going re examination of Canada's experiences in war and a must read for students of Canadian history

A Concise History of Canada Margaret Conrad, 2022-08-11 A new edition of Margaret Conrad's lucid account of the diverse complex and often contested nation state of Canada

When Television was Young Paul Rutherford, 1990-01-01 A decade after the first Canadian telecasts in September 1952 TV had conquered the country Why was the little screen so enthusiastically welcomed by Canadians Was television in its early years more innovative less commercial and more Canadian than current offerings In this study of what is often called the golden age of television Paul Rutherford has set out to dispel some cherished myths and to resurrect the memory of a noble experiment in the making of Canadian culture He focuses on three key aspects of the story The first is the development of the national service including the critical acclaim won by Radio Canada the struggles of the CBC's English service to provide mass entertainment that could compete with the Hollywood product and the effective challenge of private television to the whole dream of public broadcasting The second deals with the wealth of made in Canada programming available to please and inform viewers even commercials receive close attention Altogether Rutherford argues Canadian programming reflected as well as enhanced the prevailing values and assumptions of the mainstream The final focus is on McLuhan's Question What happens to society when a new medium of communications enters the picture Rutherford's findings cast doubt upon the common presumptions about the awesome power of television Television in Canada Rutherford concludes amounts to a failed revolution It never realized the ambitions of its masters or the fears of its critics Its course was shaped not only by the will of the government the power of commerce and the empire of Hollywood but also by the desires and habits of the viewers

Regional Ministers Herman Bakvis, 1991 Bakvis challenges recent assumptions by political scientists that the era of strong regional ministers in Canadian government is passed drawing on developments and experiences in cabinet and its supporting agencies over the past decade Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
