Georganne Deen Philip Monk,1998 Georganne Deen ,1997 Georganne Deen Georganne Deen,Doug Harvey,McKinney Avenue Contemporary (Gallery),2002 Georganne Deen Georganne Deen,Michael Duncan,Amy Gerstler,1997 The work of Georganne Deen is a veritable landscape of trauma Projected through a lens of adolescence one that amplifies the fears insecurities and longings of the human psyche to monumental proportions the work represents a tireless exploration of personal history memory family and depression Her primary backdrop is one of suburban pubescence one that seems to originate and complete itself in a frequently repeated bedroom motif a faithful reproduction of the room she shared with her sister as a child The sense of entrapment depression intimacy and fantasy that imbues this girlish room nourishes a motley cast of characters family members pop icons Greek gods and the artist herself who appear variously in human animal insect or vegetable guise or any combination therein Deen s mother one of the most common characters and the subject of her series Mother Load appears in one painting as a shriveled tree in the act of severing from herself the limb that carries a baby carriage and in others as a thin teated dog shedding from one teat a spotlight that illuminates two fighting girls an enormous spider with a skull for a head and a twelve breasted woman spilling milk from buckets at her side many with the same grimacing face the same menacing cigarette in the mouth and all suffused with the need and resentment that define an alcoholic mother s presence In her paintings Georganne Deen dissects her most intimate family dramas Rendered in a comic style they mine emotionally charged materials and explore the dynamics of dysfunction with extraordinary honesty Essays by Amy Gerstler and Michael Zakian OUT OF PRINT Georganne Deen Georganne Deen,Power Plant (Art gallery),1998 Made in California Stephanie Barron,Sheri Bernstein,Ilene Susan Fort,2000 Unusually inclusive visually intriguing and beautifully produced Made in California will appeal to anyone who has lived in visited or imagined California The Art of Dreams, Visions, Other Worlds Robert Craig Bunch,2025-05-01 Robert Craig Bunch has interviewed sixty current Texas artists focusing on painters printmakers sculptors and others whose work broadly speaking is inspired by dreams visions myths and imagined worlds Working in the tradition of predecessors such as Bror Utter Ben Culwell Maudee Carron Kelly Fearing Jim Harter Valton Tyler Harry Geffert and even more distant antecedents such as Hieronymus Bosch Hildegard of Bingen and the prehistoric rock artists of the Lower Pecos these artists are united by the common theme of taking inspiration from an inner landscape that includes elements of the fantastic the mystical and the surreal In his introduction to the interviews Bunch observes Art has many purposes Among the most ancient and persistent have been the depiction of worlds beyond what is perceived in common mythical pasts and imagined futures realms supernatural magical and fantastic and interior worlds of dreams visions hallucinations and unfettered imagination Through sensitive examination of these artists and their approach to these works he affords readers a fresh perspective on the creative process especially its roots in the subconscious and the human fascination with dreams and altered modes of

awareness Ranging from discussions of filmmaker Richard Linklater to conversations with artist and educator Floyd Newsum while also incorporating less familiar artists such as Houston's Fariba Abedin and El Paso's Ho Baron this collection of interviews with working Texas artists includes a representative image chosen by each interviewee as a representation of their work The Art of Dreams Visions Other Worlds Interviews with Texas Artists promises to expand readers concepts of the boundaries currently being explored by Texas artists Mother Jones Magazine, 1986-12 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues Georganne Deen Michael Morley, Adam Parfrey, Dunedin Public Art Gallery, 1999-08-01 Secret Mystic Rites Todd Schorr, 1998 Twisted illustrations from Schorr's imagination bring together space alien Shringers fatal B movie beauties and well dressed men from the Lounge Underground Schorr fills his works with a mixture of the glamorous humorous and bizarre In this first collection of his work one revels in the extremes he reaches in his search for the hidden strange in the mundane Served by a tremendous technical ability he depicts with no restraint the wildest visions this side of Robert Williams The Decolonized Eye Sarita Echavez See, 2009 From the late 1980s to the present artists of Filipino descent in the United States have produced a challenging and creative movement In The Decolonized Eye Sarita Echavez See shows how these artists have engaged with the complex aftermath of U S colonialism in the Philippines Focusing on artists working in New York and California See examines the overlapping artistic and aesthetic practices and concerns of filmmaker Angel Shaw painter Manuel Ocampo installation artist Paul Pfeiffer comedian Rex Navarrete performance artist Nicky Paraíso and sculptor Reanne Estrada to explain the reasons for their strangely shadowy presence in American culture and scholarship Offering an interpretation of their creations that accounts for their queer decolonizing strategies of camp mimesis and humor See reveals the conditions of possibility that constitute this contemporary archive By analyzing art performance and visual culture The Decolonized Eye illuminates the unexpected consequences of America's amnesia over its imperial history I'm So Glad We Had This Time Together Maurice Vellekoop, 2024-02-27 An astonishing epic graphic memoir in the spirit of Fun Home by Alison Bechdel and Gender Queer by Maia Kobabe I'm So Glad We Had This Time Together is that rarest of things a book about coming out to a loving yet conservative family that is as heartrending to read as it is to look at It's an incredibly moving funny and ultimately triumphant account spoiler alert of what can only be described as a magical fairy tale pun totally intended Anderson Cooper Meet little Maurice Vellekoop the youngest of four children raised by Dutch immigrants in the 1970s in a blue collar suburb of Toronto Despite their working class milieu the Vellekoops are devoted to art music and film and they instill a deep reverence for the arts in young Maurice except for literature He'd much rather watch Cher and Carol Burnett on TV than read a book He also loves playing with his girlfriends Barbie dolls and helping his Mum in her hair salon which she runs out of the basement of their house In short he is really really gay Which is a huge problem because the family is part of the Christian Reformed Church a strict Calvinist sect They go to church twice on Sunday and they send their kids to a private Christian school catechism classes and the Calvinist Cadet Corps Needless to say the church is intolerant of homosexuality Though she loves her son deeply Maurice's mother Ann cannot accept him setting the course for a long estrangement Vellekoop struggles through all of this until he graduates from high school and is accepted into the Ontario College of Art in the early 1980s Here he finds a welcoming community of bohemians including a brilliant flamboyantly gay professor who encourages him to come out But just as he's dipping his toes into the waters of gay sex and love a series of romantic disasters followed by a violent attack sets him back severely And then the shadow of the AIDS era descends Maurice reacts by retreating to the safety of childhood obsessions and seeks to satisfy his emotional needs with film and theatre going music boozy self medication and prolific art making When these tactics inevitably fail Vellekoop at last embarks on a journey towards his heart's true desire In psychotherapy the spiderweb of family faith guilt sexuality mental health the intergenerational fallout of World War II King Ludwig II of Bavaria French Formula Hairspray and much more at last begins to untangle But it's going to be a long messy and occasionally hilarious process I'm So Glad We Had This Time Together is an enthralling portrait of what it means to be true to yourself to learn to forgive and to be an artist
