George Müller of Bristol Arthur T. Pierson, Arthur Tappan Pierson, 1899 The classic biography of George Müller tells the story of one of England's greatest evangelists famed and admired for his establishment of orphanages in his hometown of Bristol George Müller was successful in caring for well over 10 000 orphans yet it was only after long and difficult campaigns and effort that such hard won victories against social and economic injustice were won Beginning his efforts in the 1820s and continuing as the United Kingdom's population ballooned in the midst of industrialization Müller encountered many obstacles on his path A passionate believer in both God and social justice Müller found opposition to his ideas among the wealthy Firm in the belief that the poor should receive a good standard of education he was ridiculed and dismissed as a foolish idealist Yet Müller proved the naysayers wrong decades of effort resulted in the Ashley Downs orphanage which housed thousands of impoverished children while he assisted in the establishment of 117 schools in all these ensured education for 120 000 children during Müller's lifetime In his later years Müller embarked on a seventeen year mission around the world where he evangelized on topics concerning both God and his accomplishments in assisting the poor Speaking far and wide to congregations in India South Africa Canada the United States and continental Europe he became a prominent figure seen to exemplify Christian kindness and good deeds As well as his work in society Müller was a profoundly religious person who would spend much of his life in prayer He prayed spontaneously and would request God's assistance in all manner of things the repair of a orphan house's boiler the health of a sick child and good weather and fortune during his long voyages on ship being just a few of his pleas to the Lord Joining God at the age of ninety two in 1898 George Müller's work changed countless lives and he continues to inspire Christians to this day George Muller of Bristol A. Arthur T. Pierson, George Muller of Bristol Arthur Pierson, 2018-01-16 A HUMAN life filled with the presence and power of God is one of God's choicest gifts to His church and to the world Things which are unseen and eternal seem to the carnal man distant and indistinct while what is seen and temporal is vivid and real Practically any object in nature that can be seen or felt is thus more real and actual to most men than the Living God Every man who walks with God and finds Him a present Help in every time of need who puts His promises to the practical proof and verifies them in actual experience every believer who with the key of faith unlocks God's mysteries and with the key of prayer unlocks God's treasures thus furnishes to the race a demonstration and an illustration of the fact that He is and is a Rewarder of them that diligently seek Him George Müller was such an argument and example incarnated in human flesh Here was a man of like passions as we are and tempted in all points like as we are but who believed God and was established by believing who prayed earnestly that he might live a life and do a work which should be a convincing proof that God hears prayer and that it is safe to trust Him at all times and who has furnished just such a witness as he desired Like Enoch he truly walked with God and had abundant testimony borne to him that he pleased God And when on the tenth day of March 1898 it was told us of George Muller that he was not we knew that God had taken him it seemed more like a translation than like death To those who are familiar with his long life story and most of all to those who intimately knew him and felt the power of personal contact with him he was one of God's ripest saints and himself a living proof that a life of faith is possible that God may be known communed with found and may become a conscious companion in the daily life George Muller proved for himself and for all others who will receive his witness that to those who are willing to take God at His word and to yield self to His will He is the same yesterday and today and forever that the days of divine intervention and deliverance are past only to those with whom the days of faith and obedience are past in a word that believing prayer works still the wonders which our fathers told of in the days of old

VERY soon after the decease of my beloved father in law I began to receive letters pressing upon me the desirableness of issuing as soon as possible a memoir of him and his work The well known autobiography entitled Narrative of the Lord s Dealings with George M ller had been and was still being so greatly used by God in the edification of believers and the conversion of unbelievers that I hesitated to countenance any attempt to supersede or even supplement it But as with prayer I reflected upon the subject several considerations impressed me 1st The last volume of the Narrative ends with the year 1885 so that there is no record of the last thirteen years of Mr M ller s life excepting what is contained in the yearly reports of The Scriptural Knowledge Institution 2d The last three volumes of the Narrative being mainly a condensation of the yearly reports during the period embraced in them contain much unavoidable repetition 3d A book of say four hundred and fifty pages containing the substance of the four volumes of the Narrative and carrying on the history to the date of the decease of the founder of the institution would meet the desire of a large class of readers 4th Several brief sketches of Mr M ller s career had issued from the press within a few days after the funeral and one written by Mr F Warne and published by W F Mack but I was convinced by the letters that reached me that a more comprehensive memoir was called for and would be produced so I was led especially to pray for guidance that such a book might be entrusted to the author fitted by God to undertake it
