George Rickey The Early Works:

George Rickey Maxwell Davidson, 2004 George Rickey's fascinating sculptural oeuvre is incredibly diverse This book is concerned exclusively with the early indoor sculptures from the first 25 years of Rickey's output With over 380 color and black and white photos covering the artist's early innovations we get an intimate and more complete picture of his artistic diversity than ever before George Rickey, 1992 George Rickey George Rickey, Maxwell Davidson Gallery, 2004

George Rickey Werner L. Feibes, 2008 George Rickey George Rickey, Nan Rosenthal, 1977 George Rickey in South Bend George Rickey, Art Center (South Bend, Ind.), 1985 George Rickey, 2010 February 18 March 20 2010 Marlborough Chelsea The Art Dealer's Apprentice David Guenther, 2024-03-05 The Art Dealer's Apprentice tells the story of how the author moved to New York in 1989 as a young Midwesterner found a job at an Upper East Side gallery and became the protégé of Carla Panicali an Italian countess and major international art world figure From Carla an extraordinary woman whom he deeply admired the author learned to navigate the treacherous waters of authenticity power and money in the art business and his own life As gallery director he gradually piloted the gallery through a sea of fakes frauds and unscrupulous colleagues competitors collectors and experts until the art market crashed and in the ensuing crisis in the increasingly money driven art world of the 1990s he came to question even the authenticity of his friendship with Carla In The Art Dealer's Apprentice the author recounts how he learned the New York art business from the inside including the roles of dealers auction houses runners collectors and experts the personal histories of famous artists and the art historical importance and salability of their work and how paintings and sculptures were or were not authenticated and sold often based surprisingly on factors having little to do with the artwork itself The author also details how international business was done in some cases through illicit transport of artworks payoffs to experts and Swiss bank accounts Increasingly disillusioned the author ultimately concludes that by the early 1990s the art business was no longer really about art The Fran and Ray Stark Collection of 20th-century Sculpture at the J. Paul Getty Museum Christopher Bedford, Penelope Curtis, John Dixon Hunt, 2008 This catalogue celebrates the recently installed collection of twentieth century sculpture donated to the J Paul Getty Trust by the Fran and Ray Stark Trust in 2005 The book takes the reader on a visual tour of the J Paul Getty Museum's new sculpture gardens and installations which features twenty eight works by artists such as Alexander Calder Alberto Giacometti Ferdinand Leger Roy Lichtenstein Ren Magritte Aristide Maillol Joan Mir Henry Moore and Isamu Noguchi The book offers essays on the curatorial decisions involved in establishing harmonious groupings a history of European and American sculpture within built outdoor environments and gardens and catalogue entries that discuss individual pieces within their broader art historical contexts George Rickey George Rickey, 2000 George Rickey George Rickey, Maxwell Davidson Gallery, 2001 The Necessity of Sculpture Eric Gibson, 2020-04-07 The Necessity of Sculpture brings together a selection of articles on sculpture and sculptors from Eric Gibson's nearly four decade career as an art critic

It covers subjects as diverse as Mesopotamian cylinder seals war memorials and the art of the American West stylistic periods such as the Hellenistic in Ancient Greece and Kamakura in medieval Japan Michelangelo Gian Lorenzo Bernini Augustus Saint Gaudens and other historical figures modernists like Auguste Rodin Pablo Picasso and Alberto Giacometti and contemporary artists including Richard Serra Rachel Whiteread and Jeff Koons Organized chronologically by artist and period this collection is as much a synoptic history of sculpture as it is an art chronicle At the same time it is an illuminating introduction to the subject for anyone coming to it for the first time Art Now Gallery Guide ,2001-05 George Rickey George Rickey,1966 George Rickey George Rickey,Maxwell Davidson Gallery,2001 Calder: The Conquest of Space Jed Perl,2020-04-14 The concluding volume to the first biography of one of the most important influential and beloved twentieth century sculptors and one of the greatest artists in the cultural history of America is a vividly written illuminating account of his triumphant later years The second and final volume of this magnificent biography begins during World War II when Calder known to all as Sandy and his wife Louisa opened their home to a stream of artists and writers in exile from Europe In the postwar decades they divided their time between the United States and France as Calder made his first monumental public sculptures and received blockbuster commissions that included Expo 67 in Montreal and the 1968 Olympics in Mexico City Jed Perl makes clear how Calder s radical sculptural imagination shaped the minimalist and kinetic art movements that emerged in the 1960s And we see as well that through everything their ever expanding friendships with artists and writers of all stripes working to end the war in Vietnam hosting riotous dance parties at their Connecticut home seeing the mobile Calder s essential artistic invention find its way into Webster s dictionary Calder and Louisa remained the risk taking singularly bohemian couple they had been since first meeting at the end of the Roaring Twenties The biography ends with Calder s death in 1976 at the age of seventy eight only weeks after an encyclopedic retrospective of his work opened at the Whitney Museum in New York but leaves us with a new clearer understanding of his legacy both as an artist and a man Intermedia Hans Breder,Klaus-Peter Busse,2005 Claes Oldenburg and Coosje van Bruggen, Cleveland's Free Stamp Edward J. Olszewski,2017-08-04 In 1985 the Sohio oil company commissioned Claes Oldenburg and Coosje van Bruggen to design and construct a large outdoor sculpture for its new corporate headquarters in Cleveland Ohio The result was Free Stamp a bold and distinctive installation that captured both a Pop Art sensibility and a connection to the city s industrial past Sohio executives approved the design and work was already underway when British Petroleum acquired the company The new owners quickly decided that the sculpture was inappropriate for their building and attempted to rid themselves of Free Stamp by donating it to the city of Cleveland a gift that the city initially had no desire to accept After much debate and public protest the sculpture found a home in Willard Park where it stands today This is the first study of any sculpture by Oldenburg and van Bruggen to examine the genesis of their art from conception to installation Edward J Olszewski has put together a fascinating narrative based on interviews with the artists archival material from city records and in house corporate memoranda as well as letters to the editor and political cartoons He traces the development of the sculpture from the artists first sketches and models to the installation of the completed work in its urban environment
