George The Uninvited Ghost:

George, the Uninvited Ghost Helen Zumo, 1980-05-01 The Haunted Screen Lee Kovacs, 2005-11-21 While ghosts often inhabit films and literature devoted to the horror genre a group of literature based films from the 1930s and 1940s presents more human and romantic apparitions These films provide the underpinnings for many of the gentle supernatural films of the 1990s Tracing the links between specters as diverse as Rex Harrison s Captain Gregg and Patrick Swazye s Sam Wheat the text presents the evolution of the cinematic literary ghost from classic Gothic to the psychological sociological and political ideologies of today Included are analyses of the literary and film versions of classic ghost stories Wuthering Heights The Ghost and Mrs Muir Portrait of Jennie Letter from an Unknown Woman The Uninvited Liliom and Our Town as well as interpretations of modern films not based on literary works that show the influence of these predecessors Ghost and Truly Madly Deeply The text includes stills a bibliography and an index Haunted Homeland Michael Norman, 2025-06-25

Trapped miners from cave ins long ago still calling for help Ghostly women lurking in the shadows of city streets Spectral holy men and outlaws from America s Spanish past making appearances in our modern age They are all citizens of Haunted America and this is HAUNTED HOMELAND From a haunted castle in the wilds of Alaska to phantom clergymen in the Southwest and mysterious bouncing lights on the East Coast this latest volume covers the places the people and the things that belong to the earthbound realm of the fantastic Michael Norman has gathered together spectral events of all kinds apparitions of the famous like Mary Surratt Mary Todd Lincoln and Mad Anthony Wayne haunted crime scenes in Chicago and along the Indiana byways as well as banshees poltergeists and even a ghost named George who has become an accepted resident in a house in North Carolina Some of these tales date back to America s early days such as the screaming woman of Marblehead Massachusetts while others rise from more contemporary sources like noted mystery writer Mary Robert Rhinehart s encounter with ghost at a house on Long Island A ghostly Supreme Court Justice a specter known as The Texan an abandoned Canadian bride reminiscent of Dickens s Miss Havesham and many others make an appearance in this latest chronicle of the Haunted American landscape At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied Modern Ghost Melodramas Michael Walker, 2025-10-01 The popular and critical successes of films like The Sixth Sense and The Ring and its sequels in the late 1990s led to an impressive international explosion of scary films dealing with ghosts This book takes a close look at a number of those films from different countries including the United States Japan South Korea Spain and Great Britain Making a crucial distinction between these atmospheric films and conventional horror Michael Walker argues that they are most productively seen as ghost melodramas which opens them up to a powerful range of analytic tools from the study of melodrama including crucially psychoanalysis

Monsters in the Closet Harry M. Benshoff, 1997-11-15 Monster in the Closet is a history of the horrors film that explores the genre's relationship to the social and cultural history of homosexuality in America Drawing on a wide variety of films and primary source materials including censorship files critical reviews promotional materials fanzines men's magazines and popular news weeklies the book examines the historical figure of the movie monster in relation to various medical psychological religious and social models of homosexuality While recent work within gay and lesbian studies has explored how the genetic tropes of the horror film intersect with popular culture s understanding of queerness this is the first book to examine how the concept of the monster queer has evolved from era to era From the gay and lesbian sensibilities encoded into the form and content of the classical Hollywood horror film to recent films which play upon AIDS related fears Monster in the Closet examines how the horror film started and continues to demonize or quite literally monsterize queer sexuality and what the pleasures and costs of such representations might be both for individual spectators and culture at large

Best Years Charles Affron, Mirella Jona Affron, 2009-08-14 Americans flocked to the movies in 1945 and 1946 the center point of the three decade heyday of the studio system s sound era Why Best Years is a panoramic study shining light on this critical juncture in American history and the history of American cinema the end of World War II 1945 and a year of unprecedented success in Hollywood s Golden Age 1946 This unique time the last year of war and the first full year of peace provides a rich blend of cinema genres and types from the battlefront to the home front the peace film to the woman s film psychological drama and the period s provocative new style film noir Best Years focuses on films that were famous infamous forgotten and unforgettable Big budget A films road shows and familiar series share the spotlight From Bergman and Grant in Notorious to Abbott and Costello in Lost in a Harem Charles Affron and Mirella Jona Affron examine why the bond between screen and viewer was perhaps never tighter Paying special attention to the movie going public in key cities Atlanta New York Boston Honolulu and Chicago this ambitious work takes us on a cinematic journey to recapture a magical time
