A Primer to the Novels* James MOFFATT (D.D.),1909 George Meredith , George Meredith William Chislett,1925 George Meredith Richard Cronin,2019-11-23 George Meredith The Life and Writing of an Alteregoist is not only a critical biography of the Victorian novelist and poet George Meredith but also a portrait of the novel in the later nineteenth century Interweaving analysis of Meredith s novels and poems with discussion of his life Richard Cronin focuses primarily on the books Meredith read and wrote arguing that novels by the end of the nineteenth century were shaped as much by the reading as by the experience of their writers Cronin places Meredith s novels in relation to the work of his contemporaries including Henry James Thomas Hardy and George Gissing Organized thematically the book explores Meredith s personal side including his hostility to biography his origins as the son of a tailor his marriages as well as his reading habits and the prose style that is the most complete expression of his strange but compelling personality The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson,1940

Ryan, 2012-06-07 In Thinking without Thinking in the Victorian Novel Vanessa L Ryan demonstrates how both the form and the experience of reading novels played an important role in ongoing debates about the nature of consciousness during the Victorian era Revolutionary developments in science during the mid and late nineteenth century including the discoveries and writings of Herbert Spencer William Carpenter and George Henry Lewes had a vital impact on fiction writers of the time Wilkie Collins George Eliot George Meredith and Henry James read contributions in what we now call cognitive science that asked what is the mind These Victorian fiction writers took a crucial step asking how we experience our minds how that experience relates to our behavior and questions of responsibility how we can gain control over our mental reflexes and finally how fiction plays a special role in understanding and training our minds Victorian fiction writers focus not only on the question of how the mind works but also on how it seems to work and how we ought to make it work Ryan shows how the novelistic emphasis on dynamic processes and functions on the activity of the mind rather than its structure or essence can also be seen in some of the most exciting and comprehensive scientific revisions of the understanding of thinking in the Victorian period This book studies the way in which the mind in the nineteenth century view is embedded not just in the body but also in behavior in social structures and finally in fiction A History of English Literature Emile Legouis, Louis François Cazamian, 1927 Reader's Index and Guide , 1928 The Writer William Henry Hills, Robert Luce, 1910 The Writer , 1910 The Cambridge History of English Literature Sir Adolphus William Ward, Alfred Rayney Waller, 1917 Some Characteristics of George Meredith's Prose Style Vincent Earl Miller, 1950
