Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006 Col. William N. Selig, the Man Who Invented Hollywood Andrew A. Erish, 2012-03-01 All histories of Hollywood are wrong Why Two words Colonel Selig This early pioneer laid the foundation for the movie industry that we know today Active from 1896 to 1938 William N Selig was responsible for an amazing series of firsts including the first two reel narrative film and the first two hour narrative feature made in America the first American movie serial with cliffhanger endings the first westerns filmed in the West with real cowboys and Indians the creation of the jungle adventure genre the first horror film in America the first successful American newsreel made in partnership with William Randolph Hearst and the first permanent film studio in Los Angeles Selig was also among the first to cultivate extensive international exhibition of American films which created a worldwide audience and contributed to American domination of the medium In this book Andrew Erish delves into the virtually untouched Selig archive at the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences Library to tell the fascinating story of this unjustly forgotten film pioneer He traces Selig's career from his early work as a traveling magician in the Midwest to his founding of the first movie studio in Los Angeles in 1909 to his landmark series of innovations that still influence the film industry As Erish recounts the many accomplishments of the man who first recognized that Southern California is the perfect place for moviemaking he convincingly demonstrates that while others have been credited with inventing Hollywood Colonel Selig is actually the one who most deserves that honor Prehistoric Humans in Film and Television Michael Klossner, 2015-01-09 From the early days of the movies cavemen have been a popular subject for filmmakers not surprisingly since the birth of cinema occurred only a few decades after the earliest scientific studies of prehistoric man Filmmakers however were not constrained by the emerging science instead they most often took a comedic look at prehistory a trend that continued throughout the 20th century Prehistoric humans also populated adventure fantasy films with the original One Million B C 1940 leading the charge Documentaries were also made but it was not until the 1970s that accurate film accounts of prehistoric humans finally emerged This exhaustive work provides detailed accounts of 581 film and television productions that feature depictions of human prehistory Included are dramas and comedies set in human prehistory documentaries and films and television shows in which prehistoric people somehow exist in historical periods from the advent of civilization up to the present or in extraterrestrial settings Each entry includes full filmographic data including year of release running time production personnel cast information and format A description of each film provides background on the prehistoric elements Contemporary critical

commentary is included for many of the works

The Stardom Film Karen McNally, 2020-12-08 Since the earliest days of the movie industry Hollywood has mythologized itself through stories of stardom A female protagonist escapes the confines of rural America in search of freedom in a western dream factory an ambitious conceited movie idol falls from grace and discovers what it means to embody true stardom or a fading star confronts Hollywood's obsession with youth by embarking on a determined mission to reclaim her lost fame In its various forms the stardom film is crucial to understanding how Hollywood has shaped its own identity as well as its claim on America's collective imagination In the first book to focus exclusively on these modern fairy tales Karen McNally traces the history of this genre from silent cinema to contemporary film and television to show its significance to both Hollywood and broader American culture Drawing on extensive archival research she provides close readings of a wide range of films from Souls for Sale 1923 to A Star is Born 1937 and 1954 and Judy 2019 moving between fictional narratives biopics and those that occupy a space in between McNally considers the genre's core set of tropes its construction of stardom around idealized white femininity and its reflections on the blurred boundaries between myth image and reality The Stardom Film offers an original understanding of one of Hollywood's most enduring genres and why the allure of fame continues to fascinate us Billboard ,1997-02-22 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends

Tappin' at the Apollo Cheryl M. Willis, 2016-05-02 In the 1920s and 1930s Edwina Salt Evelyn and Jewel Pepper Welch learned to tap dance on street corners in New York and Philadelphia By the 1940s they were Black show business headliners playing Harlem's Apollo Theater with the likes of Count Basie Fats Waller and Earl Fatha Hines Their exuberant tap style usually performed by men earned them the respect of their male peers and the acclaim of audiences Based on extensive interviews with Salt and Pepper this book chronicles for the first time the lives and careers of two overlooked female performers who succeeded despite the racism sexism and homophobia of the Big Band era Billboard ,1997-11-15 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends
