Georges Simenon Revisited:

Georges Simenon Revisited Lucille Frackman Becker, 1999 This book presents a brief biography of Georges Simenon's life and critical interpretation and discussion of his works Investigating Simenon Russell Campbell, 2022-09-21 For nearly a century the work of Belgian crime writer and psychological novelist Georges Simenon creator of Chief Inspector Maigret has captivated readers worldwide This investigation situates Simenon's work in its historical context and interprets it as a reaction to shifting gender relations in Western society Simenon's compelling narratives capture the anxieties of men whose patriarchal position was under threat in an era of insurgent feminist movements These concerns are also evident in Simenon's pervasive preoccupation with sexuality as well as his political stance that stems from his petit bourgeois upbringing This groundbreaking study includes interwoven commentary on all 191 novels Simenon published under his own name including several that have never been translated into English as well as a number of short stories and several pseudonymous works

Icons of Mystery and Crime Detection Mitzi M. Brunsdale, 2010-07-26 This book provides an introduction to 24 iconic figures real and fictional that have shaped the detective mystery genre of popular literature Icons of Mystery and Crime Detection From Sleuths to Superheroes is an insightful look at one of our most popular and diverse fictional genres providing a guided tour of mystery and crime writing by focusing on two dozen of the field's most enduring creations and creators Icons of Mystery and Crime Detection spans the history of the detective story with series of critical entries on the field's most evocative names from the originator of the form Edgar Allan Poe to its first popular running character Sherlock Holmes from the Golden Age of Sam Spade Philip Marlowe and Charlie Chan in fiction and films to small screen heroes such as Columbo and Jessica Fletcher Also included are other accomplished practitioners of the craft of mystery crime storytelling including Agatha Christie Tony Hillerman and Alfred Hitchcock Italian Crime Fiction Revisited Stefano Serafini, 2025-01-30 This book offers the first extensive investigation of Italian crime fiction in the period between 1861 the year of Italy's unification and 1941 when the famous Mondadori series I libri gialli which had published crime novels since 1929 was suppressed by the fascist regime By exploring the formal and thematic metamorphoses of Italian crime narratives and probing the different socio political roles that they played in both the liberal and fascist periods it provides a radical re conceptualization in both historical and theoretical terms of a form of fiction that has been largely marginalized for both aesthetic and ideological reasons uncovering how it was implicated in the construction of the modern state and in the articulation and shaping of the process of making Italians Translation Revisited Mamadou Diawara, Elísio S. Macamo, Jean-Bernard Ouédraogo, 2019-01-17 How realistic is it to expect translation to render the world intelligible in a context shaped by different historical trajectories and experiences Can we rely on human universals to translate through the unique and specific webs of meaning that languages represent If knowledge production is a kind of translation then it is fair to assume that the possibility of translation has largely rested on the idea that Western experience is the repository of these human universals against the background of which different human experiences can be rendered intelligible The problem with this assumption however is that there are limits to Western claims to universalism mainly because these claims were at the service of the desire to justify imperial expansion This book addresses issues arising from these claims to universalism in the process of producing knowledge about diverse African social realities It shows that the idea of knowledge production as translation can be usefully deployed to inquire into how knowledge of Africa translates into an imperial attempt at changing local norms institutions and spiritual values Translation in this sense is the normalization of meanings issuing from a local historical experience claiming to be universal The task of producing knowledge of African social realities cannot be adequately addressed without a prior critical engagement with how translation has come to shape our ways of rendering Africa intelligible The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008

The Indo-European Puzzle Revisited Kristian Kristiansen, Guus Kroonen, Eske Willerslev, 2023-05-11 This book examines the impact of ancient DNA research and scientific evidence on our understanding of the emergence of Indo European languages in prehistory Offering cutting edge contributions from an international team of scholars it considers the driving forces behind the Indo European migrations during the 3rd and 2nd millennia BC The volume explores the rise of the world's first pastoral nomads the Yamnaya Culture in the Russian Pontic steppe including their social organization expansions and the transition from nomadism to semi sedentism when entering Europe It also traces the chariot conquest in the late Bronze Age and its impact on the expansion of the Indo Iranian languages into Central Asia In the final section the volumes consider the development of hierarchical societies and the origins of slavery A landmark synthesis of recent exciting discoveries the book also includes an extensive theoretical discussion regarding the integration of linguistics genetics and archaeology and the importance of interdisciplinary research in the study of ancient migration Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature Classics Revisited Kenneth Rexroth, 1986 Rexroth Classics Revisited Humorous and insightful essays on Classic literature French Crime Fiction, 1945-2005 Margaret-Anne Hutton, 2016-04-22 In the first major study of representations of World War II in French crime fiction Margaret Anne Hutton draws on a corpus of over a hundred and fifty texts spanning more than sixty years Included are well known writers male and female such as Aubert Simenon Boileau Narcejak Vargas Daeninckx and Jonquet as well as a broad range of lesser known authors Hutton's introduction situates her study within the larger framework of literary representations of World War II setting the stage for her discussions of genre the problem of defining crimes and criminals in the context of the war the epistemological issues that arise in the relationship between World War II historiography and the crime novel and the temporal textures linking past crimes to the present Filling a gap in the fields of crime fiction and fictional representations of the War Hutton's book calls into question the way both crime fiction and the French theatre of World War II have been conceptualized and codified Unwilling Executioner Andrew Pepper,2016-04-08 What gives crime fiction its distinctive shape and form What makes it such a compelling vehicle of social and political critique Unwilling Executioner argues that the answer lies in the emerging genre's complex and intimate relationship with the bureaucratic state and modern capitalism and the contradictions that ensue once the state assumes control of the criminal justice system This study offers a dramatic new interpretation of the genre's emergence and evolution over a three hundred year period and as a genuinely transnational phenomenon From its roots in the tales of criminality circulated widely in Paris and London in the early eighteenth century this book examines the extraordinary richness diversity and complexity of the genre's subsequent thematizations of crime and policing moving from France and Britain and from continental Europe and the United States to other parts of the globe In doing so it offers new ways of reading established crime novelists like Gaboriau Doyle Hammett and Simenon beyond their national contexts and an impulse to characterize their work as either straightforwardly radical or conservative It also argues for the centrality of writers like Defoe Gay Godwin Vidocq Morrison and more recently Manchette Himes and Sj wall and Wahl to a project where crime and policing are rooted and shown to be rooted in the social and economic conditions of their time These are all deeply political writers even if their novels exhibit no interest in directly promoting political causes or parties The result is an agile layered and far reaching account of the crime story's ambivalent relationship to the justice system and its move to complicate our understanding of what crime is and how society is policed and for whose benefit Encyclopedia of World Writers, 1800 to the Present Marie Diamond,2020-07-01 In recent years schools have started introducing more inclusive syllabi emphasizing the works and ideas of previously overlooked or underrepresented writers Readers of all ages can now explore the rich contributions of writers from around the world These writers have various backgrounds and unlike most writers from the U S or the United Kingdom information on them in English can be difficult to find Encyclopedia of World Writers 1800 to the Present covers the most important writers outside of the U S Britain and Ireland since 1800 More than 330 insightful A to Z entries profile novelists poets dramatists and short story writers whose works are anthologized in textbooks or assigned in high school English classes Entries range in length from 200 to 1 000 words each and include a biographical sketch synopses of major works and a brief bibliography Dozens of entries are new to this edition and many existing entries have been updated and significantly expanded with new Critical Analysis sections Coverage includes Chinua Achebe Margaret Atwood Roberto Bola o Albert Camus Khalid Hosseini Victor Hugo Mohammad Iqbal Franz Kafka Stieg Larsson Mario Vargas Llosa Naghib Mahfouz Gabriel Garc a M rquez Kenzaburo Oe Marcel Proust Leo Tolstoy Emile Zola and more Multicultural Writers from Antiquity to 1945 Alba Amoia,Bettina L. Knapp,2001-10-30 The final decades of the 20th century have seen an explosion of interest in multiculturalism But multiculturalism is more than an awareness of the different cultures comprising contemporary societies For centuries people from around the world have come in contact with cultures other than their own and their exposure to multiple cultures has fostered their creativity and ability to make lasting contributions to civilization. The effects of multiculturalism are especially apparent in literature since writers tend to be particularly aware of their environments and record their experiences. This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 100 world writers from antiquity to 1945 who were significantly influenced by cultures other than their own. Included are entries for major canonical Ancient and Modern writers of the Western and Eastern worlds. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography, a discussion of multicultural themes and contexts, a summary of the writer's critical reception, and primary and secondary bibliographies. By illuminating the shaping influence of multiculturalism on these writers, the volume points to the lasting value of multiculturalism in the contemporary world. Revisiting the French Resistance in Cinema, Literature, Bande Dessinée, and Television (1942-2012) Christophe Corbin, 2019-05-03. Revisiting the French Resistance in Cinema, Literature, Bande Dessinée, and Television 1942-2012 examines how fictional works have contributed to shaping the image of the French Resistance and offers a key to understanding France's national psyche. Christophe Corbin explores themes including the making of the myth of an honorable country united against a common enemy, comedies gently poking fun at it, and fictional works debunking it straightforwardly, the invisibility and resurfacing of women in films and novels, as well as contemporary depictions of the Resistance on television. Case studies include sometimes forgotten or lesser known works such as Aragon's wartime poetry, early films such as Le Père tranquille or Casablanca, inspired Fortunat, iconic films and novels such as Le Silence de la mer or La Grande Vadrouille, but also contemporary fictional works such as Effroyables jardins and Un Héros très discret or the popular TV series Un Village français. It will be of interest to scholars and students in cultural studies, film studies, French studies, history, and media studies.

Each chapter examines a specific period, movement, or group of writers, as well as engaging with wider debates on the place of crime fiction within contemporary French and European culture. From early twentieth-century pioneers such as Gaston Leroux and Maurice Leblanc to the phenomenal success of Georges Simenon from May 68 to the gender politics of crime fiction and postmodern reinventions, this collection approaches crime fiction in an interdisciplinary manner, alive to the innovative and often critically informed perspective it provides on French society and culture. The book also includes short extracts in English translation and an extensive bibliography of critical material for further reading. Such resources are aimed at encouraging the reader to gain a greater appreciation and understanding of this potent and formidable narrative of
