in the 1960s into such stylistic labels as Earth Art Systems Art Body Art and Performance Art During this critical period artists around the world began testing the limits of what art could be how it might be produced and who the artist is Collaboration emerged as a prime way to reframe these questions Green looks at three distinct types of collaboration the highly bureaucratic identities created by Joseph Kosuth Ian Burn Mel Ramsden and other members of Art the close knit relationships based on marriage or lifetime partnership as practiced by the Boyle Family Anne and Patrick Poirier Helen Mayer Harrison and Newton Harrison and couples like Christo and Jeanne Claude Gilbert George or Marina Abramovic and Ulay who developed third identities effacing the individual artists almost entirely These collaborations Green contends resulted in new and at times extreme authorial models that continue to inform current thinking about artistic identity and to illuminate the origins of postmodern art suggesting in the process a new genealogy for art in the twenty first century The Glory of Van Gogh Nathalie Heinich,1997-11-16 The author explores how and why the impoverished and mentally tormented Van Gogh came to be glorified shortly after his suicide at the age of 37 Apart from describing his life she also explores the economics of the art market In an appendix attention is given to Van Gogh and art criticism in France 1888 1901

Welchman,2013-01-11 Beginning with the first comprehensive account of the discourse of appropriation that dominated the art world in the late 1970s and 1980s Art After Appropriation suggests a matrix of inflections and refusals around the culture of taking or citation each chapter loosely correlated with one year of the decade between 1989 and 1999 The opening chapters show how the Second World culture of the USSR gave rise to a new visibility for photography during the dissolution of the Soviet Union around 1989 Welchman examines how genres of ethnography documentary and travel are crossed with fictive performance and social improvisation in the videos of Steve Fagin He discusses how hybrid forms of subjectivity are delivered by a new critical narcissism and how the Korean American artist Cody Choi converts diffident gestures of appropriation from the logic of material or stylistic annexation into continuous incorporated events Art After Appropriation also examines the creation of public art from covert actions and social feedback and how bodies participate in their own appropriation Art After Appropriation concludes with the advent of the rainbow net an imaginary icon that governs the spaces of interactivity proliferation and media piracy at the end of the millennium John Welchman is Professor of Modern Art History Theory and Criticism at the University of California San Diego He is the author of Modernism Relocated 1995 and Invisible Colors 1997 and editor of Rethinking Borders 1996 and a forthcoming three volume anthology of the writings of LA artist Mike Kelley Welchman has contributed to numerous journals magazines museum catalogues and newspapers including Artforum New York Times Los Angeles Times International Herald Tribune Los Angeles County Museum of Art Tate Gallery Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles Reina Sofia Madrid Haus der Kunst Munich Eyesight Alone Caroline A.
